"I am ready to testify under oath that if it had not been for August Flower I should have died before this. Eight years ago I was taken sick, and suffered as no one but a dyspeptic can. I employed three of our best doctors and received no benefit. They told me that I had heart, kidney, and liver trouble. Everything I ate distressed me so that I had to throw it up. August Flower cured me. There is no medicine equal to it." LORENZO F. SLEEPER, Appleton, Maine.

CAT AND COPPERHEAD FIGHT.

Former's Science and Dexterity So Great that the Snake Wasn't In It.

Joseph Brown, who drives the stage between Galeton, Pa., and Germania, while on his trip in, noticed a cat stealing along through the grass at the roadside, three miles from here. Brown stopped his horses and watched the cat to see what she was after. He glanced ahead of the cat and saw a arge pilot snake, or copperhead, lying in the grass a few feet away. It was toward this poisonous snake that the cat was stealing. Brown at first thought he would get out and kill the snake, but concluded to see what the cat would do with the cat would do with the snake, but it became plain to Brown that the snake was not to be taken by surprise, for it had its glittering sye fixed on the cat, and was making itself ready for a fight. When the cat had approached to within a foot of the snake she raised one paw and held it straight out toward the pilot. In a flash the snake struck at the paw, but the cat was still quicker than the pilot and whisked her paw away. The snake missed it, and as quick is lightning the cat orought are other fore paw into play, and with it she dealt the snake a blow that knocked ita foot or more to one side, the cat's sharp nails tearing deep scratches in the snake's neck, from which blood began to flow instantly. The pilot was evidently greatly surprised at the result of the round, but, maddened by the cat's attack, turned again for fight.

Again the cat presented her left paw as a feint, and again the snake received the cat's terrible right hander alongside his head. These skillful tactics of the wily cat were repeated four times with the same result, and then the pilot, was fooled by it for his victions strike was avoided again by the cat's quick maneuver, and again the snake received the cat's terrible right hander alongside his head. These skillful tactics of the wily cat were repeated four times with the same result, and then the pilot, weakened and thoroughly spiritless, turned and buried it.

The cat belongs to a young woman who teaches the West Branch District School, and a few days before the There's nothing left of Catarrh, when you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. With the poisonous, irritating snuffs and strong, caustic solutions, a good deal is left. They may, perhaps, stop it for a time, but there's danger of driving it to the lungs. They work on false principles.

But Dr. Sage's Remedy cures it, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. Not only Catarrh itself, but Catarrhal Headache, Cold in the Head—everything catarrhal in its nature. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. So will yours. You may not believe it, but the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy do.

And to prove it they make you this offer:

If they can't cure you, they'll pay you $500 in cash. It's a business proposition from a responsible house.

But 'do you think they'd make it if they and tage couldn't down and they couldn't down this offer.

CATARRH AS A CAUSE

Of Nervous Debility—An American Malady Debility of the nervous system from in temperate habits of any kind, or exposure o cold, are quite likely to cause a conditi of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat so nearly resembling catarrh that they are practically identical. Also chronic diseases which depress the nervous system will produce the same result, notably female wall produce the same result, notably remaie weakness. They cause a flabby, pale condi-tion of the mucous surfaces, with a sticky, stringy mucous secretion, which produce much hawking or coughing, generally called catarrh, but the whole trouble is called catarrh, but the whole trouble is caused by nervous depression, pure and simple. Beside the usual symptoms of catarrh, the patient has brown specks before his eyes, slight dizziness, roaring in the ears, attack of nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, flashes of heat, followed by light, chilly sensations, faintness, depression, despondency, foolish fears, and many other similar ones. In such cases local treatment can do nothing but harm, the only hope of cure being the internal use of Pe-ru-na, according to the directions on the bottle. Every one beginning treatment for catarth in any of its many phases or complications should send for a free copy of The Family Physician No. 2. Address, The Pern-na Drug Manufacturing Co., Colum-

One of the Oldest Settlers in Penna.

J. D. Willcox was born sixty-seven years ago and has lived most of his time in Olmsville, Tioga Co., Pa., where he is a practical farmer and a successful country merchant. He is deservedly popular, known for many miles around, and by strict integrity and honesty he has attached to himself a host of triends, and has received from the Government the Posmastership of his village. He says: I had been weighed down by poor health for a long time and gradually grew worse until some four years ago the crisis came. At that time four of our best physicians could give me no encouragement, and some of them said I would not live a year. I commenced to use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, Kidney, Liver and Bladder Cure. My doctors said your remedy might help me for a time, but that I would not be here a year hence. I took Swamp-Root for nearly twelve months three times a day, and when the rheumatism set in on my shoulders and arms I used your U. & O. Anointment rubbing in thoroughly over the affected parts, also across my chest, liver and back, warming it in with a hot flat iron. The rheumatism was so bad for a while that I One of the Oldest Settlers in Penna in thoroughly over the affected parts, also across my chest, liver and back, warming it in with a hot flat iron. The rheumatism was so bad for a while that I could not get either hand to my face. My health now is very good; in fact, I think I am as well as most men at my age—sixty-seven years. I give your Swamp-Root entire credit for saving my life and the good health I now enjoy is due to its use. I have worked some on the farm of late and do most of the chores myself.

This is not written for publication, but if it will give others confidence in your great remedy, I have no objections to your using it as best you can. With best regard I remain, J. D. Willcox.

This is but one of the hundreds of letters received daily by Dr. Kilmer & Co., and five thousand dollars will be given to any one who will prove any portion of the above testimony untrue. Swamp-Root is beyond question the greatest discovery of the age.
