REV. DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON.

rear, a suspension bridge from eye to lip, and it is soon crossel over, and a smile is sometimes just as secret as a tear. There is asmuch religion, and I think a little more, in a spring morning than in a starless midnight.

Religious work without any humor or with it is a banquet with a side of beef, and that raw, and no condenents and no dessert succeeding. People will not sit down at such a banquet. By all means remove all frivoity and all pathos and all lightness and all vallent and the silve of the constraint of the control of the con or sanctimonious gloom—and veremently re-fuse to swallow that came.. Oh, how particular a great many people are about the infinitesimals while they are quite reckless about the magnitudes. What to did Christ say? Did He not excoriate the speople in His time who were so careful to twash their hands before a meal, but did not wash their hands before a meal, but did not wash their hands to have so they are unicean hand; it is a worse thing to have an unclean heart. How many people there are in dur time who are very anxious that after their death they shall be buried with a their feet toward the east, and not at all anxious that during their whole life they should face in the right direction so that they shall come up in the resurrection of the gipst whichever way they are buried. How many there are chefly anxious that a minister of the Gospel shall come in the line of apostolic succession, not caring so much swhether he comes from Apostle Paul or Apostle Judas. They have a way of meas turing a gnat until It is larger than a camel.

Again, my subject photographs all these sole of foot they are full of jealousies and hypercriticisms.

"hey spend their life in hunting for muskrats and mud turties instead of hunting for Rocky Mountain eagles; always for something mean instead of something grand. They loos at their neighbors' imperfection through a microscope, and look at their own imperfections through a telescope upside down. Twenty faults of their own do not hurt them half so much as one fault of somebed were so careful to rea meal, but did not is a bad thing to have worse thing to have a way to least, and not at all their whole life they gut direction so that the resurrection of the hey are buried. How ill come in the half the distribution of the life they are buried. How ill come in the half the distribution of the life they are buried. How ill come in the half if yet more collars here' greater than the question, How shall I lay would not take a yard bloom to the shall all get more dollars here' greater than the question. How shall and greater than the question, How shall are thought of a bank mistake and send in a too much would distoo much so and work and would distoo much would d makers National Union, 2030 members.

EMPLOYES of the Grand Trunk Railroad have been ordered not to smoke while on duty or when in uniform. They must remove their hats while passing through a dining car or any car in which an official of the road may be seated. They wilt not be allowed to use a seat, part of which is already occupied by a passeuger.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

RELIGIOUS READING.

in the world. There are others who bear the name of the people of God, and, like the remnant in Jeremina's day, say. 'Pray for in unto the Lord thy God may show us the way wherein we may walk and the thing that we may de.' Then when God's way is made known to them, because it does not happen to be to their liking, they turn their backs upon God and do their own pleasure. (See Jer. xili., 2, 3, zili., 46, 17).—Lesson Helper.

Endeavoring to Finish the Grant Monament.

New York, March 23—Merchants of various branches of trade in the Chamber of Commerce inaugurated a movement looking to the completion of the long deferred monument to General Grant. Committees were appointed to arouse interest in the matter, so that the cornerstone may be laid on April 27, the 70th anniversary of General Grant's birth. It is estimated that about $850,000$ is yet needed to complete the monument.

A Triple Tragedy.

Decatur, Ala., March 24.—John Fritz, while in a drunken frenzy, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Thomas Wolcott. Mrs. Ed. Whitten was shot and seriously injured. Fritz then blew his own brains out. He was chief engineer of the U. S. Rolling Stock plant.

CURIOUS FACTS.

Of Waterloo vererans France has eight

The landed surface of the Northern Hemisphere is about 44,000,000 square miles, as against 16,000,000 square miles ambraced by the Southern Hemisphere.