Asking questions appears to have become a diplomatic "fad." The Chinese minister at Washington has fired a lot of them at Secretary Blaine. A Correction.
We are creditably informed that L. C. We are creditably informed that L. C. Colborn has been trying to make the County Commissioners believe that his opponent, Mr. J. A. Berkey, caused THE STAR to champion the cause of the tax-payers by criticising the course of the Commissioners in the matter of hearing

If Mr. Colborn has been guilty of this. and we have no reason to doubt it. he has been guilty of a very mean and cow-ardly act, for J. A. Berkey has had nothing to do with the matter in any shape or form, having never mentioned anything to us whatever concerning the County Commissioners or their business.

Commissioners or their business.

It looks a good deal as though Mr. Colborn wanted to get solid with the Commissioners and get their influence in favor of his re-election as District Attorney.

But we are inclined to think that Mr. C's tactics will act against him instead of in his favor. He has so far been conducting his campaign on false assertions, any way, and if he gets the nomination for District Attorney the second time, there are more fools in the Republican party than we the eleven men that this county has THE United States senators are about the only men in this country who do not know how the newspapers get executive session proceedings. Such ignorance would be lamentable if it were not so ludicrous. lieve Mr. Colborn will find this out later

C. is not competent to creditably fill his office. Berkey is head and shoulders above him in both intellect and honor. Berkey has conducted his campaign in a manly and honorable way, and if elected will make an excellent officer. Vote for him. We have an idea that the people of this
