BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS. Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up to be as well known as Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $90,000,000 if we average them at $300 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

"A Yard of Pansies." Here is a chance for everybody to get free of cost, an exquisite Oil Picture 36 inches long, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, "A Yard of Pansies," was painted by the same noted artist who did the "Roses." It is the same size, and is pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the "Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, which cost $800, and is being given free with every copy of the June number of DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE.

This June number is a grand souvenir number in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the birthday of the publisher, and is worth many times the cost, which is only 30 cents, as every purchaser will get, practically free, an exquisite picture; and to those who already have "A Yard of Roses," "A Yard of Pansies" will be doubly valuable, especially as accompanying it are full directions for framing either the "Pansies" or "Roses" at home, at a cost of a few cents. You can get the June number of DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE, containing "A Yard of Pansies," of any of our local Newsdealers; or send 30 cents to the publisher, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grantsville, Md. The warm and rainy weather we have been having this spring causes vegetation to grow rapidly, but as a matter of course, the chronic ingrate will bring forth his objections.

In our items in last week's STAR we were represented as saying, that the fish caught by Ward Beachy weighed four pounds and ten ounces, instead of two pounds and ten ounces, as it should have been.

J. Clarence Getty, D. D. S., and Miss Irene, eldest daughter of Hon. Thos. H. Bittinger, were united in the bonds of wedlock, in the German Reformed church, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Evans, last Friday evening. A large number of people witnessed the ceremony. A serenading party rendered some choice music—choice, because each was allowed to sing his own choice of instruments, music, etc. The music was silenced, after continuing quite a while, by the groom appearing and bestowing upon his entertainers a liberal amount of "blithy lucre," after which the merry crowd dispersed.

Divine services were held in the German Reformed church, several evenings last week, and communion services were held on Sunday, at 10 A. M.

Dr. Keller has improved his property by erecting a handsome new fence and putting down a new and substantial pavement in front of it.

We noticed that Len Kurtz has also put down a new plank sidewalk, in front of store and residence.

Chas. Wegman is assisting C. M. Beachy in putting up a barn near Mt. Lake Park, this county.

Our normal school is still increasing in numbers. It is greatly to be regretted that there is not a larger number from our immediate vicinity attending school, who could thereby improve themselves very much.

Supt. Maust, of the Maust & Newman Lumber Co., has purchased a fine fishing tackle wherewith he brings in the "speckled beauties" of Piney run.

If all reports are true, it would be a good idea to form a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, in this burg.

Salisbury and a Name.

As a former Salisbury man I am naturally interested in the old town and willing to do anything to advance its prosperity.

That it has long been burdened with names is a fact, and we feel sure it would be better under one name only. Many names, and some very good ones, too, have been suggested.

That we cannot call our postoffice Salisbury is a well-known fact, as this State already contains an office of that name.

Again, we do not feel like giving up the old name. Such being the case I suggest that we extend its boundaries and then prefix "New" to the old name and call it New Salisbury. There can be no difficulty in taking in the postoffice, the borough and the railroad station under this name.

This will make the name a trifle longer, but it will retain the old name. Very respectfully,

J. C. LOWRY.

Rev. Samuel Bones.

The Rev. Samuel Bones was a good missionary. Sent to reform the benighted Feejee.

How sadly a savage a Feejee might be. He said it was sinful to serve an acquaintance.

As a stew or ragout at an afternoon tea; He taught them that even a pleasant expression Was not enough dress for a modest Feejee.

But, alas and alas! these degenerate heathen somehow didn't reform or convert worth a cent.

And they vulgarly vowed in their coarse Feejee language That they'd eat Reverend Bones even if it was Lent.

But when they had cooked him one morning for breakfast Then they mourned him and called him the tenderest of men.

And they wept bitter tears after he had been eaten.

And wished him alive—to eat over again.

And the Tum Tum quartet with intuitive feeling, And a fine sense of what would have pleased the remains;

Sang a requiem which he in person had taught them.

To expressively sing, with considerable pains, They chanted with joy, and that sense of elation Which comes from done duty and freedom from sin.

The words of that touching, appropriate anthem, "Oh, he was a stranger, and we took him in."
