Deafness Can't be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by taking HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars, free.

In the Spring
Nearly everybody needs a good medicine. The impurities which have accumulated in the blood during the cold months must be expelled or when the mild days come, and the effect of bracing air is lost, the body is liable to be overcome by debility or some serious disease. The remarkable success of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the universal praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. It is the "ideal Spring Medicine."

"It is Invaluable."
"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for the past four years, and for a thorough blood purifier it has no superior. It is invaluable as a spring medicine; it invigorates the whole system and tones up the stomach, and since I became acquainted with Hood's Sarsaparilla I always take several bottles in the spring, and, on occasion, require the rest of the year."—L. GILMAN, Aurora, Iowa.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

FOLLOWERS OF JOHN WESLEY
Assemble in General Conference at Omaha, Summary of Proceedings.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.
Bishop W. Fitzgerald, president, and Dr. B. Hamlin led in devotional exercises.

The order of the day was the report of the committee on constitution, and every body expected that the floodgates of eloquence would be thrown wide open. Dr. Buckley moved that inasmuch as Bishop Merrill was chairman of the constitution committee he should be requested to explain the changes suggested by the report.

The resolution giving Bishop Merrill the privilege of explaining the report on the constitution was carried. The rules were suspended here, however, and the committee on the Columbian exposition was called to report. The report related strongly against Sunday opening. In closing the report said: "Better that the Columbian exposition be not opened at all, than that the gates be opened on Sunday." The committee heartily favored the appropriation of $3,000,000 of government funds provided the gates be closed on Sunday; but if the gates were to be opened on the Sabbath, then the conference was asked to oppose the appropriation. The committee recommended that a telegram bearing the sentiment of the report be sent at once to the President of the United States and to congress. Several vigorous speeches were made favoring the resolution. The preamble and resolutions were adopted, but were referred for revision. The committee was instructed to send the proposed telegram to Washington. The telegram was worded as follows:

"To the Honorable, the President of the United States, Washington:

"We are instructed to communicate through you to the Honorable Representatives the adoption of this day of the following resolution: 'The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here assembled, representing 2,500,000 members and 10,000,000 adherents, heartily approves of the Columbian Exposition and the World's Fair Appropriation Bill, now pending before congress, provided expressly that the appropriation by congress shall be conditioned on closing the Exposition on Sunday.'"

A similar telegram was sent to President Hart.

The conference then took up the report of the committee on constitution. The remainder of the day was taken up in the report of a dozen speakers taking part. Mr. Field, of Philadelphia, moved to postpone the debate until the next general conference. The motion was defeated, and the session was adjourned.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.
At to-day's session of the Methodist Conference, Dr. Gray, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution providing that each bishop be assigned to a prescribed territory for four years, and that the episcopacy be divided into as many districts as there are bishops. Dr. Webb, of East Ohio, in the interest of the ministers, offered a resolution that the conference remove the time limit from the pastorate. Both resolutions were referred without debate, but were received with evident pleasure.

The lay delegates, through John Field, of Philadelphia, presented a memorial for equal representation in conferences.

A resolution asking that seven bishops, five ministers and five laymen be appointed to attend the General Conference of the Methodist Church South, and lay before it the action of this general conference, which believes that the interests of the church will be promoted by the amalgamation of the Church North and South, was referred to a special committee.

The report of the Constitutional Commission was then taken up, and a protracted debate followed respecting the constitutional status of lay delegates. Discussion of the report was pending when the conference adjourned until to-morrow.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.
Bishop Joseph W. Newman presided. Rev. Halstead of Indiana led the devotional meeting. A resolution was introduced favoring the amalgamation of the Freeman's Aid and Southern Education Society and the educational society of the board of education, which was referred to a special committee for consideration. The regular business was suspended for the purpose of resuming the discussion of constitutional revision. Dr. Buckley's motion to indefinitely postpone the constitutional question was carried by a vote of 283 yeas to 10 nays.

Following is the full text of the substitute for the report of the constitutional commission, which was adopted by the conference:

"The section on the general conference in the discipline of 1808, as adopted by the general conference of 1808, has the nature and force of a constitution. That section, with such modifications as have been adopted since that time in accordance with the provisions for amendment in that section is the present constitution, and is now, as included in paragraphs 55 to 64 inclusive in the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church of 1888 excepting:

"First, The change of the provisions for the calling of an extra session of the general conference from an unanimous to a two-thirds vote of the annual conference; and

"Second, That which is known as the plan of lay delegation as recommended by the general conference of 1808 and passed by the general conference of 1817."

This is regarded as a sort of compromise between those who hold that the plan of lay representation is not a part of the constitution and those who hold that it was in reality a victory for the former with the admission on their part that the principle of lay representation is in harmony with and supported by the constitution.

FREDA'S SESSION.
Bishop Goodsell presided to-day. Rev. Thomas Hanlon, of Pennington Seminary introduced a resolution declaring that the Methodist Episcopal church should come out squarely on the great struggle between capital and labor being waged in this country. He declared in his remarks that the church had not shown sufficient sympathy for the toiling millions. His resolution was referred. A delegate from the Indiana Conference introduced a resolution to change the rules so as to admit women as lay delegates in the general conference, and to instruct the annual conference that either men or women may be elected as delegates. Referred to Committee on Lay Delegates.

The conference adopted the report of the Committee on Revivals, giving unqualified approval to the present constitution, and solemnly marriage where the civil law gives authority. Memorial services occupied the conference from this point on. Conference finally adjourned until Monday.

Census Examiners Held for Trial.
PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—Amos E. Engle and F. De Grandchamps, the Industrial Census Examiners arrested yesterday, were given a hearing to-day and held for trial in $1,000 bail each, on charge of making fraudulent returns. The principal witnesses against them were Gottlieb Wagner, shoemaker; Joseph Burke and John Bader, tailors, who claimed that they were not in business as represented in their returns, and denied signatures purporting to be their own.

All the Bodies Recovered.
ROSELIE, WASH., May 14.—The bodies of the 43 miners who perished in the explosion of last week have been recovered. About 250 children have been left fatherless by the disaster, and several thousand dollars have been subscribed for them and their mothers.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

MONDAY.—In the Senate the House bill to encourage American ship building was passed, and now goes to the President for approval. The resolution for payment to the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations below the interests in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservations—about $3,000,000—was then taken up as unfinished business. After debate the resolution was agreed to, yeas, 43, nays, 13. Adjourned.

In the House the River and Harbor bill was passed, after a lengthy debate. Routine business then followed, and soon after the House adjourned.

TUESDAY.—In the Senate to-day the river and harbor bill was received from the House and was referred to the committee on commerce. The conference report on the urgent deficiency bill was presented and agreed to. The Senate bill to re-establish and extend the boundaries of Yellowstone Park was then taken up. After a discussion that lasted nearly two hours the bill was passed—Yeas, 43, nays, 13. The Senate proceeded to executive business and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

After routine business the House went into committee of whole on the Lester of Georgia, in chair on sundry civil appropriation bill, which was discussed until adjournment.

WEDNESDAY.—Mr. Sanders, President pro tem, laid before the Senate the resolution of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled in Omaha, Mo., to represent the members and 10,000,000 adherents, heartily approving the World's Fair appropriation bill, "providing, expressly, that it be conditioned on closing the Exposition on Sunday." The resolution was passed, the most important of which was the Senate bill authorizing the Secretary of War to cause a survey to be made for a ship canal connecting Lake Erie and the Ohio river from Conneaut Harbor, or from Erie to Pittsburgh, and appropriating $10,000. The resolution was referred to the committee on the President of the United States transmitting the seventh annual report of the Commissioner of Labor, and after a brief discussion the House adjourned. Whitelaw Reid's extradition treaty between France and the United States was rejected by the Senate to-day in executive session after severe criticism and debate. The vote was close. The vote was barely that of a quorum and a motion was made to reconsider. It is hoped by the friends of the measure to secure its ratification later on.

There were two surprises in the House to-day. The first was the striking down of the bill for the appropriation of $225,000 for the purchase of a site and the commencement of a building for a new mint at Philadelphia, and the second, the sudden springing of the House of Representatives by Mr. Bland in the shape of an amendment to the same bill requiring the coinage and issue in payment of appropriations of the silver bullion now in the Treasury. The amendment was ruled out, but Mr. Bland announced that he would renew the amendment in another place in the bill. After further routine business the House adjourned.

THURSDAY.—Among the bills introduced in the Senate to-day were the following: By Mr. Foster, a bill for the purpose to proclaim a general holiday commemorating the four hundred anniversary of the discovery of America, October 12, 1492, by Christopher Columbus, an American ship builder, extending to the steamship China the same privileges as have been extended to the City of Paris and the City of New York. The bill is for the purchase of 5,000 tons, built in Glasgow in 1889. She plies between San Francisco and China, in the Pacific Mail Line, but flies the British flag. The bill is for the purpose to amend an international conference on bi-metalism was considered and Mr. Teller addressed the Senate. The naval appropriation bill was then taken up. It was not till 93 pages of the bill had been read, with hardly a break, that any important amendment was reached, and that was when Mr. Teller moved $500,000 toward the expenses of an international naval rendezvous and review in connection with the World's Columbian Exposition. The amendment was referred without discussion. The bill went over until to-morrow, and the Senate, after a brief executive session, adjourned.

In the House a lengthy debate, a resolution was adopted for the investigation of the Pinkerton Agency. The House then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Lester of Georgia, in chair, on a sundry civil appropriation bill, and after discussion, without action, the House adjourned.

FREDA.—In the Senate to-day the River and Harbor bill was received from the Committee on Commerce. It will be called up for action on Tuesday. The net increase made by the Senate committee is $1,393,383. A prolonged discussion on the proposed increase of the navy then followed. Without action the Senate adjourned till Monday.

FRIDAY.—The House of Representatives attempted to secure passage of a bill looking to the payment of a claim by the heirs of Henry S. Sibley, of $40,000, for a tent furnished to the Government in 1859. Fillingburster followed against the passage of the measure, and the House adjourned without action.

SAURDAY.—The Senate was not in session to-day.

Mr. Meredith, of Virginia, announced the death of Sen. Richard H. Chason, and after the adoption of appropriate resolutions, the Speaker appointed a committee to attend the funeral. The House then, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, adjourned.

KANSAS CITY DAMAGED.
The Missouri is a Raging Torrent and People Fly for Their Lives.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 14.—The danger line has been passed, and the flood is increasing every minute. The Missouri river is now a raging torrent, and the town of Harlem is being covered. The signal office sent a warning messenger to that place at 9 o'clock to-night and told the inhabitants to get out as quickly as possible and they at once began fleeing for their lives. All the low-lying parts of Kansas City, Kan., are now under water and in many cases the people were taken from their houses in boats, while several were compelled to wade through the water up to their waists.

FLOODS ON THE INCREASE.
Rivers Out of Their Banks and Causing Immense Destruction.
DES MOINES, Ia., May 14.—The rivers are over their banks and creating havoc with farm and city property. Dozens of families have had to move out of their homes.

St. Louis, May 14.—Reports from all parts of Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa state that the streams are out of their banks and causing destruction that hundreds of thousands of dollars will not cover.

The flood at Omaha has wrecked the $25,000 county hospital building.

CLUBBED TO DEATH.
Horrible Double Murder in Iowa—A Suspected Farm Hand Disappears.
Prescott, Ia., May 14.—Wednesday morning William Coons, a farmer, left his home on business. He returned this afternoon to find the horribly mangled remains of his wife and daughter, who had been beaten to death with a club. Dooley, the farm hand, has disappeared, as also has a team belonging to Coons. Lynching will result if the guilty man is found.

A ROOSTER TAMES A HORSE.

How a Poor Hindu Fakir Overcomes a Violent Stallion.

Hindus are very skillful in training wild animals and snakes, and an incident was related the other day by an Indian traveler of how an Indian fakir tamed in a few minutes a refractory horse that no one else could manage. The horse in question was a full-blooded stallion, belonging to one of the Rajahs who had bought him for 25,000 rupees. The animal's favorite trick was to run backward when anyone mounted him, and no amount of spurring or whipping could make him go in the direction that a good horse should go. Many famed horse trainers were hired to cure the horse of this disgraceful trick, but none succeeded. The Rajah offered £200 to any one who should break the horse of his bad habit.

An English officer who was acquainted with the Rajah told him that he knew a common fakir who was of a very inventive turn of mind, and advised him to give the fellow a trial. The fakir was sent for, and appointed a day on which he said he would positively cure the horse of all bad tricks.

The Rajah, with a number of officers and retainers, went to witness the taming. The tricky horse was handsomely caparisoned, but the fakir made his appearance in his every-day dilapidated clothes, that were dirty, as usual, for he had no others. By his side walked a ragged boy, carrying a bag with something in it. The fakir said a few words to the boy, and then leaped upon the horse's back with the agility of a monkey. The horse immediately began running backward. Everybody was wondering what the fakir could do, when suddenly the boy thrust his hand into the bag and brought out a wild, vicious-looking rooster, with spurs three inches in length. Quick as a flash the boy fastened the rooster to the horse's tail and then the fun began. The rooster put in some fine work with his spurs and cackled and screeched as loud as he could. The horse was evidently surprised. First he stopped and then tried to catch the rooster, as a kitten does its tail, by turning round and round. The fakir held on like a leech.

Finding this did not succeed the horse started on a run straight ahead, just as would a dog with a tin can attached to his caudal appendage. The stallion had been conquered. That one lesson was sufficient, and he never tried to run backward again.—New York Times.

Servants' Commissions.
Housekeepers in New York and Brooklyn find that tradesmen in the two cities have begun to adopt the Parisian custom of paying commissions to maids that do the household marketing. The thing has hardened into law in Paris, and the housekeeper who attempts to do her own marketing finds the prices even higher than those charged to the maids. The custom in New York and Brooklyn first took the form of Christmas presents from butcher, baker, and candlestick maker to their friends the maids. No special secrecy was maintained, and now the grocer's commission is a tacitly recognized matter in some households. It is not unusual for club stewards to stipulate for this privilege, and only the other day one of the largest New York clubs woke up to the fact that it had within a year lost nearly $12,000 through corrupt relations between steward and tradesmen. It was found that all sorts of articles were billed at prices far above the market rate, and that goods delivered when put to the test of the scales turned out to be sadly short in weight.

SICK-N-E-S
A spell of sickness is due when the system's weakened, and the blood impure. It's what you must expect.

But it's what you must prevent, too. And Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents as well as cures. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, improves digestion, and restores health and strength. For Dyspepsia, "Liver Complaint," and every form of Scrofulous, Skin, or Scalp Diseases, as Salt-rheum, Tetter, Erysipelas, or any blood-taint, it's an unequalled remedy.

It's not like the sarsaparillas, which claim to be good for the blood in March, April and May. At all seasons alike, and in all cases, the "Discovery" alone is guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar, for you pay only for the good you get. But it's the best, or it couldn't be sold so.

A REMARKABLE LETTER.

A Prominent Professional Man's Extraordinary Statement.
(N. Y. Sun.)

To the Editor:—As my name and face have appeared in your paper and the public prints lately, and as many of my professional brethren are wondering at it, I feel it only just that I should make an explanation. The statement published over my name was made ten years ago, after long and mature investigation, and I have never changed my mind as to the facts then stated. At that time I said, as a physician, that I believed Warner's Safe Cure was the best of all known preparations for the troubles it was advocated to cure, and I say so still. I know it is considered the proper thing for the medical profession to decry proprietary and other advertised articles; but why should they do so? As the late Dr. J. G. Holland, writing over his own name in Scribner's Monthly, said:

"It is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice; when, however, any person knowing their virtue and foreseeing their popularity secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted all-virtue went out of them."

Dr. Holland was an educated physician, an unprejudiced observer, and he spoke from a broad and varied experience. Proprietary medicine's should not be derided. The evidences of their value are overwhelming. I have seen patients recover from gravel, inflammation of the bladder and Bright's disease after using Warner's Safe Cure, even when all other treatment had failed.

I like this frank and outspoken statement in the interests of humanity and because I know it to be true. I trust for the same reason, you will give it to the public.

Respectfully,
R. A. GUNN,
No. 124 West Forty-seventh street, New York, March 1.

S.S.S. CURES SCROFULA

Mrs. E. J. Rowell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cured of Scrofula by the use of four bottles of S.S.S. after having had much other treatment, and, and being reduced to quite a low condition of health, as it was thought she could not live.

S.S.S. Cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula which appeared all over his face. For 2 years I had given up all hope of his recovery, when finally I was induced to use S.S.S. A few bottles cured him, and no symptoms of the disease remain.
