Administrator's Notice.
Estate of Monroe B. Kretschman, late of Elk Lick township, Somerset county, Pa., dec'd.
Letters of administration on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned by the proper authority, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment and those having claims against the same will present them duly authenticated for settlement, Saturday, July 5th, 1892, at the Hay hotel, in Salisbury borough.
A. L. LOWRY, Administrator.

As I have lately opened a bakery in Salisbury, I am now prepared to furnish Bread, Cakes, Cookies and Pies at short notice for weddings, parties, etc.
M. J. GLOPPELTY.

THE STAR can get you almost any kind of a sewing machine, organ or piano in the market for a great deal less money than any other dealer in the county will sell you the same goods for. We are in a position to get you some of these goods for less than wholesale price, and we can prove it to you. Get other people's prices and then call and see how bad we can beat them all.

Special sale, for the next ten days, of a choice lot of vases, at a great reduction, at the Racket store.
if.

To The Public.
I have lately bought the property and all its appurtenances owned by Dr. O. G. Getty and will do business in the same office. I offer my services to the people of Grantsville and surrounding community at reasonable rates and will endeavor to give the people the benefit of the latest teachings in medicine and surgery.
DR. BRUCE LICHTY.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him: obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked an ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grantsville.
Early cherries and strawberries are donning the becoming blush. Those who consider their localities so highly favored by earliness of season, etc., are not so very far in advance of us, after all, and in quality of fruit, we defy competition.

J. S. Broadwater paid a visit to Cumberland last week.

Rev. A. L. Gnagey and family attended the German Baptist love feast, at Accident, last Saturday.

Chas. B. Getty, the talented Western Union telegraph operator, of Frostburg, is at home on a visit. SATELLITE.
June 14, 1892.

State Lines.

Very nice and warm the last few days. Corn is receiving its first plowing now. Bake Johnson is putting up the wall for D. S. Beachy's barn. John Baughman is doing the carpenter work.

Henry Miller is putting up a wagon shed for Rudolph Yoder.

C. J. Folk and S. S. Miller are the only ones who are at present burning lime for wheat land.

C. T. Lee is this week opening the new road. He is the chap to open it, as he will do it right.

David Byler's father, from Lawrence county, Pa., is here visiting friends and relatives.

Sam Loechel lost a Percheron mare and colt, recently, and J. D. Brennaman lost a Clydesdale mare and colt, caused by the mares not being able to foal.

L. S. Yoder bought a mare from Elt Yoder for $135. He now has a match team.

R. M. Beachy has succeeded in selling four hay loaders, on condition that they work as recommended. Elijah Livengood, M. D. Yoder, E. D. Hershberger and D. J. Swartzentruber are the purchasers.

There is a good joke out on D. J. Swartzentruber and his incubator. He was going to have lots of chickens and turkeys, but here is how the thing panned out: Out of 51 turkey eggs he got 3 turkeys, and out of 43 chicken eggs he got 17 chicks. I hate to tell on Dan, but it can't be helped. D. S. Beachy is about in the same boat, as he got but 15 chicks out of 100 eggs.
JANUS.
June 14th, 1892.

Arthur, III.
Planting corn is the order of the day. Some are done, while others are not more than half done.

Wheat is in heads and clover in bloom. Strawberries are plentiful. Apples are about the size of a hickory nut.

Cherries are getting ripe, what few there are.

The farmers' greatest delight now is the fine weather we have been having for the last week.

N. Beachy is done planting corn and can now go fishing until the other farmers catch up with him.

Dan Brisky had been confined to his bed with malaria fever, but is recovering. Chris Youtzy is convalescing slowly. Jonas Beachy and family are at home again from Newton county, Ind. They report wet weather in Newton county and say that the farmers are not near done planting corn.

S. Yoder and wife, who had been in our locality for a few weeks, have returned to their home in Holmes county, Ohio.

Rev. Moses Beachy, of Ohio, is among us at present. On Ascension day he preached a very interesting sermon in Dave Beachy's dwelling house, at which place the Amish held communion services on that day.

We learned in your last issue of the marriage of our well-known friend, Albert Stanton, to Miss Laura Loechel. We wish them a long and a happy life.

Some of our young folks talk of visiting the great Barnum show, which is to be at Decatur, June 16th.

The young folks had "a singing" at Jake Brisky's last Sunday. Quite a crowd was there—about thirty boys and twenty-six girls.

We are very much interested in some of the items that appear in your paper, especially the State Line and Midland, Va., items. We hope the correspondents will continue to give us all the news from our old home country and friends.
June 10th, 1892. E. S. BEACHY.
