BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless boy-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to discourage him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next few years he intends to sell 500,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $40 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

already here, and Prof. Meese will be here in about a week. Miss McCloskey, of Lock Haven, will do her work in the school during the latter part of August.

hardware dealer, was in town one day last week.

Bender and Enlow. Deceased was highly esteemed for his generosity and uprightness.

Quite a number of people are in town tonight, who expect to witness the draining of the Swanger mill dam. Mr.
Gnagey, owner of the dam, came home tonight with a fine bunch of bass, which were taken out of the dam today. Among the number was one which measured about seventeen inches and weighed 24 pounds. SATELLITE.

Mr. Van Pelt, Editor of the Craig, Mo., Meteor, went to a drug store at Hillsdale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus and looseness of the bowels. He says: "I felt so much better the next morning that I concluded to call on the physician and get him to fix me up a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He said he prescribed it regularly in his practice and found it the best he could get or prepare. I can testify to its efficiency in my case at all events." For sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

State Line.

Hay-making has been delayed on account of wet weather.

D. S. Beachy's barn was raised yesterday. Everything fit to perfection and all went well.

Today Gill Broadwater will raise his barn. C. J. Brennaman is doing the carpenter work.

C. J. Swartzentruber, of Virginia, was here on Sunday and Monday. He was after his threshing machine. Chris looks well and says so far he feels perfectly at home in Virginia.

Last Thursday Silas Beachy, from Bittinger, Md., passed through here enroute for Meyersdale, to take the train for some eastern point, to where he shipped a carload of sheep. Silas is a hustler in that kind of trade, or anything else he takes hold of. JANUS.
June 28th, 1892.

Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
When that remedy is used and the treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mr. A. W.
Walters, a prominent merchant at Waltersburg, Ill., says: "I cured my baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or reach of any medicine." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

The tramp act is being enforced at this place. All tramps caught within the borough limits are promptly arrested, fined and compelled to work out the fine on the streets. Several have had to undergo this lately, and strange to say, in each case they did a good, honest day's work. It would be a good plan for all boroughs to enforce this law. If it were done there would be fewer tramps, and, therefore, fewer crimes and depredations committed.—Confidence Co respondent to Somerset Standard.

A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious sprain of the wrist, which he cured with one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is worth $5 a bottle. It cost him 50 cents. For sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

A western exchange contains the following advertisement: Wanted.—A young lady who can run a typewriter without trying to run the editor. We know we are not pretty, and sometimes go around with a suspender down and shoes off, if our corns hurt, but that's our own affair. This is a snap for some quiet, considerate girl who ain't afraid of home made socks and red whiskers.

R. E. Jenkins and Thomas Mullen, two B. & O. telegraph operators, left their stations at Sand Patch and Hyndman last Saturday for a pleasure trip to Pittsburg.
Upon their arrival in that city, they immediately went to a well-known resort on Third avenue. At midnight Jenkins proposed to one of the inmates that they chloroform Mullen and rob him. The inmate, however, refused and the consequence was that Jenkins was arrested and sent to the work-house for 60 days.

A minister, dining with an editor and observing the scant table, asked a blessing as follows: "Lord, make us thankful for what we are to about receive and strengthen us to journey homeward after we have received it."—Atlanta Constitution.

A man in Cartersville, Ill., proposed elopement to his neighbor's wife. She accepted and gave her lover's wife the tip.
Disguised, the lover's wife took a seat beside her legal lord, and not till he had kissed, caressed and fondled her for two long hours' ride in a closed carriage did he recognize the old staid taste of her lips.
He was so howling mad over the discovery that he made her get out and walk 11 miles home.
