BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell $30,000,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the best business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

CORRESPONDENCE.

West Salisbury.

A gang of horse-traders pitched their tent on the commons, south of town.
They have made several exchanges with parties from the surrounding country, among them Thos. Williams, M. Knecht, H. Delozier and Maust. Each, of course, think they have the best of the bargain.

The West Salisbury nine and the Grassy Run nine played a match game of base ball on the former's grounds, on Saturday last, for $5 to the winning side. The game at the end of the third inning stood 10 to 1 in favor of the West Salisbury boys, when they were too sure of the game and began to play recklessly, which put the Grassy Run boys in the lead, and they kept it, too. At the end of the game the score stood 20 to 14 in favor of the Grassy Run nine, and of course they got the V. The W. S. boys put up $10 to play them next Saturday, but the boys from across the hill couldn't shove up the "stuff." A game will be played later on.

A number of young folks talk of taking in the picnic, at Grantsville, on Saturday, July 20th, 1892.

Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
When that remedy is used and the treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mr. A. W.
Walters, a prominent merchant at Waltersburg, Ill., says: "It cured my baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or reach of any medicine." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

The clatter of harvesting machines can be heard in nearly all directions.
Corn is displaying the tassels.

Charles Durst, of New Germany, met with a serious accident last Wednesday.
He had been cutting wheat, and in returning to the house rode a wild, nervous horse which became frightened at a sheep, which was chased out of a fence corner by a dog and ran under the horse, causing him to wheel and rear, throwing Mr.
Durst to the ground, breaking his right arm near the shoulder and his left leg near the hip, also injuring him internally.
The injuries were attended by Dr. Bruce Lichty, our highly esteemed young doctor, and Dr. O. G. Getty, of Meyersdale.
A little boy, son of Mr. Durst, was with his father on the horse at the time of the accident, and his head was injured, but not seriously. A young daughter of Mr.
Durst fell from a cherry tree, the day previous to the occurrence of the accident to her father, and was seriously injured. Three members of the family injured within two days.

Charles Wegman and Harry Geinett took a trip to Frostburg on Saturday.

Dr. Bruce Lichty went to Salisbury on Saturday. We presume he attended the "fair."

Will Sheats and Lou Winterberg, of Hyndman, Pa., arrived here on a visit, on Saturday.

A novel machine in the line of self-binders is steadily gaining in popularity, in this vicinity. It is the Low-down Light Advance machine, and it is constructed on an entirely different principle to any heretofore tested in this section, and bids fair to become the leader; and this, too, where the Champion, Osborne, Deering, Buckeye and Wood binders have been tried. SATTELLITE.
July 18th, 1892.

Mr. Van Pelt, Editor of the Craig, Mo., Meteor, went to a drug store at Hilldale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus and looseness of the bowels. He says: "I felt so much better the next morning that I concluded to call on the physician and get him to fix me up a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He said he prescribed it regularly in his practice and found it the best he could get or prepare. I can testify to its efficiency in my case at all events." For sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Boynton.
C. L. Walker purchased a new self-binder.

ercise of most of our housewives at present.

Wm. Donev will erect a new dwelling house this fall.

Miss Clara Shoemaker is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Baker at present.

The base ball team has cleared off a ball ground on the Frank Wagner farm, and from all appearances, they mean to get down to solid work.

Mrs. Jennie Rosensteel returned last week from Somerset, where she had been visiting for several weeks.

"Fatty" Fike is a hustler with a binder.
He has cut his father's wheat crop, also John Wright's crop, and is at present cutting for Chris Yoder, near Summit Mills.

Your Tub correspondent will give you facts and not fiction.

Harvesting is about over.
D. J. Otto had been running the mower and binder for some time, but will now return to the duties of his shop and postoffice again.

Jacob Kinsinger had a severe attack of liver and lung disease, last week, but is convalescing. Hope he will soon be out again.

Who is the Chestnut Springs itemizer?
He is surely full of attic salt. Who is he, anyhow? Is he nameless, or is he ashamed of his name, if it is fictitious?
Didn't he give old Jonas a good send-off?
Well, I guess it is all right, or would be, if there was a little discretion and considerable more truth connected with it.
I had an interview with Jonas and he gave me the history of his business, etc., which is as follows:

Engaged in tanning 23 years ago; did not tanning for the last two years.

Engaged in the bee business seven years ago and is still there.

Never regretted the magic lantern, as it was amusing, instructive and more explaining than scouring the country for contuse fiction.

Built an incubator between the holidays, which cost him about $1.50, and his hatches were as follows: First hatch, 21 eggs, 21 chicks. Second, 32 eggs, 28 chicks. Third, 62 eggs, 54 chicks.
Fourth, 84 eggs, 62 chicks. Fifth, 73 eggs, 65 chicks. Sixth, 62 chicken eggs and 28 duck eggs, 58 chicks and 23 ducks.
Sold a lot of the chicks at 5 cents apiece when hatched out, and three dozen of the others for $10.80, just before the 4th of July.

Started harness-making last August and is still at it, and if the quid nunc wishes to purchase patent medicines, he will have to call on some one who sells it, as old Jonas is a hustler and does not handle truck, but a standard article all the while.

Jonas thinks the Chestnut Springs correspondent is a rarracis indeed.

E. M. Miller has purchased a new bug gy. Strawberries the cause.

Mrs. Silas Tressler is very poorly with lung fever.

Charley King wears a broad smile. It's a boy.

Guess you did hear of the basket picnic, at the Big Spring, on the 4th.

A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious sprain of the wrist, which he cured with one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is worth $5 a bottle. It cost him 50 cents. For sale by

It is strange that business men will waste money on waste paper when they could put it where it would do some good for their trade, by advertising in a legiti-mate newspaper. It is the local newspaper that makes the town; it is the duty of the business men to sustain their home paper. It is where people naturally look for business signs. Every business man in a community should have at least his card in the local paper, the same as he places his sign over his door.—Connellsville Courier.
