Indian Names.

Ye say that they all have passed away,
That noble race and brave,
That their light canoes have vanish'd
From off the crested wave;
That, 'mid the forests where they roam'd,
There rings no hunter's shout;
But their name is on your waters,
Ye cannot wash it out.

'Tis where Ontario's billow Like ocean's surge is curl'd, Where strong Niagara's thunders wake The echo of the world; Where the Missouri bringeth

Rich tribute from the West. And Rappahannock sweetly sleeps On green Virginia's breast.

Ye say their conclike cabins, That clustered o'er the vale, Have fled away like withered leaves Before the Autumn's gale; But their memory liveth on your hills, Their baptism on your shore, Your everlasting rivers speak Their dialect of yore.

Old Massachusetts wears it
Within her lordy crown,
And broad Ohlo bears it
'Mid all her young renown;
Connecticut hath wreathed it.
Where her quiet foliage waves,
And bold Kentucky breathes it hoarse
Through all her ancient caves.

Wachuset hides its 'ingering voice
Within his rocky heart,
And Allegheny graves its tone
Throughout his lofty chart.
Monadnock on his forehead hoar
Doth seal the sacred trust;
Your mountains build their monuments,
Though ve destroy their dust.
