BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will, has worked his way up so as to sell far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked an ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

J. T. Shipley just received a carload

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grantville, Md.
As we did not have any items in last week's issue of Salisbury's luminary, we have considerably added to our list of correspondents to place before the public, hoping the editor will grant us space sufficient for our needs.

Rev. Joel Beatty. An aged and very highly respected citizen of this community, had been quite ill, but beyond the infirmities of old age, is nearly well again, we are glad to say. Our reliable and skillful young physician, Dr. Bruce Lieb-ty, was his medical attendant.

Rev. J. H. Knowl. is extraordinarily genial and cheerful at present. We presume the cause may be rightly assigned to the arrival of the vigorous, big, little son.

The infant son of E. S. Miller, north of town, is ill with brain fever.

E. S. Riley, editor of the Annapolis Capital, of that historical city, and family, are visiting this section for recreation and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Mellinger. Mr. Riley, we have been informed, is also a lawyer by profession, and is very well educated, and a fluent speaker.
He is very gentlemanly in manners and address.

Dr. Reed, of Annapolis, is here enjoying rest and our invigorating breezes, or fresh air. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Getty of Cumberland, are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Bertha Gietloff, of Accident, paid a visit to friends here, last Sunday.

Chas. Wegman attended services in the German Reformed church, at Salisbury, last Sunday.

A. L. Gnagey and Jno. Getty paid a flying visit to Salisbury, last Friday.

A bevy of Petersburg, Pa. lads and lassies made this city the terminus of their drive over the old National road, last Sunday. They were guests at the National.

C. M. Livingood purchased a pair of superior matched bay horses, of Joel Yutz, a prominent farmer of Pooleshott, Pa.

Rev. Zachariah is here enjoying a rest. He had been stationed here as an assistant pastor of the German Reformed church, several years ago.
He gave a very interesting address to the German Reformed Sunday school, last Sunday, in which he related accounts of some of his foreign travels.

John Folk & Co. sold their grain threshing outfit to Stibingham Bros., of Sunnyside, this county.
Mr. Folk immediately ordered two new threshing outfits and reserves the use of the old machine, until the new machines are received. Mr. Folk and his crew of men are at present on the Keystone side of the "Mason & Dixon," shelling out the grain in a manner entirely satisfactory to the "rosters of thunder," and have been operating two machines—the one recently sold, and an older machine, owned by Mr. Wm. S. Miller, of Meyersdale.

Miller, Baker and Glingerich are manipulating their new threshing machine on the "double-quick" and have been threshing as far west as nearly to Accident, this county. They report when yields of sixteen to thirty-two bushels per acre. Just keep your eye on the Grantville district lads, and see them "spread" themselves.
They are hustlers, and "don't you forget it!"

As a general liniment for sprains and bruises or for rheumatism, lame back, deep seated or muscular pains, Chamber-

State Line.
Weather nice and dry.

We had a good rain last Friday night, but not enough to help the plowing, and the farmers have a great deal of plowing to do yet for wheat.

Oats are about all stored away.

R. M. Beatty threshed nearly 1000 bushels of grain, last week—752 of wheat, the balance oats and barley.

Wheat yields from 30 bushels per acre down.
Oats are a heavy crop.

D. S. Beatty walks a straight line. It's a boy, D. J. Swartzendruber wears a big new straw hat since he has a new-born boy.

Harry Miller, son of E. S. Miller, is sick with brain fever. Allen Miller, son of S. S. Miller, also has some brain trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Beatty were sick, but are again about as well as usual.

John Ordorff, from Blittsburg, was in this section, last Sunday a week ago, with a bicycle.

Some farmers are digging their potatoes to keep them from rotting.

Lewis M. Beachy and Daniel J. Tice intend to go west before long.
Conrad Burkholder bought about four acres of land from R. M. Beachy and one acre from Elizah Livingood. He intends to build a house on this land in the near future. JAWN.

During the epidemic of flux in this county, in 1888, I had hard work to keep a supply of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand. People often came ten or twelve miles in the night to get a bottle of the remedy. I have been selling patent medicines for the past ten years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhea and flux than any other medicine I have ever handled.—J. H. BENHAM, Druggist, Golconda, Pope Co., Ill. Over five hundred bottles of this Remedy were sold in that county during the epidemic referred to. It was a perfect success and was the only remedy that did cure the worst cases. Dozens of persons there will certify that it saved their lives. In four other epidemics of bowel complaint this remedy has been equally successful.

land, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Southampton.
Quite a rain, Friday night.

Corn in this section of country won't be half a crop, on account of dry weather.

Joseph Walt, of Haddock, Pa., on last Tuesday removed his pigs from the farm in this township to a farm in Fayette county. He contemplated taking them to Pittsburg and have them sold at public sale, some time in the near future.

The lawsuit before Squire Long, at Wellersburg, last Monday, has not been decided yet. J.
A. Korns is plaintiff and J. L. Kennell defendant.

Hannah Martz, from Ottrard, Kansas, is at present visiting relatives in this part of the county.
She has passed her 88th year and is hale and hearty. She is giving glowing accounts of Kansas life and also relating glowing incidents that occurred 75 years ago in this, her native state.
Aug. 22nd, 1892. FRANK DONNA.

Mr. John Carpenter, of Goodland, Ind., says: "I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for diarrhea and severe cramps and pains in the stomach and bowels with the best results.
In the worst cases I never had to give more than the third dose to effect a cure.
In most cases one dose will do. Besides its other good qualities it is pleasant to take." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by
