BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

A Cure For Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better.
Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swell-ings and lameness. 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyers-dale, Pa.

Will He Answer This Workingman?

(An open letter to Mr. Cleveland.)
To the Hon. Grover Cleveland:

Sir—As you are again the standard bearer of that party which always professes friendship for the working people and now solicits their votes in return for that professed friendship, you may perhaps condescend to spare an hour from your present laborious occupation to enlighten some of them on the benefits to result from your pet plan of "tariff reform."

How their condition can be improved or even maintained by the adoption of a policy which will add to the surplus product of home industry by importing the surplus product of cheap-labor countries is incomprehensible to all but those anti-American statesmen—you among them—who have imbibed their ideas from the English school of cheap-labor economy.

As the standard bearer of your party you owe to the people whose votes you solicit a clear and comprehensive statement on the prospective results of your "tariff reform" policy, and as nether the leaders of your party nor the Democratic press have yet given any well-defined idea on a question of such import to American workmen, I herein appeal to you, as the leading exponent of your party, for an answer to the following questions:

1. Is not labor the only property which the working people have to exchange for the necessaries of life?

2. Are not their comforts measured and their opportunities limited by the demand for labor and the price which it will bring?

3. Is not the unused surplus now on hand the only obstacle which stands between the working people and constant employment?

4. Will not the demand for labor be lessened and its value reduced by adding to our town the surplus products of the world?

5. Will not your plan of buying from cheap-labor countries divert American capital from the employment of American workmen at home to the employment of cheap labor in all other countries?

6. Will not your plan of buying from other countries the product of cheap labor rob our working people of employment and our trades people of their custom to the amount of cash sent out of the country to pay for what we import?

7. Will not your plan of buying from abroad destroy confidence at home, discourage American enterprise, frighten capital out of business and disemploy labor to the amount required for the production of what we import?

8. If we adopt your plan of "tariff reform," how long can our employers continue to pay us $1 for labor that can be purchased anywhere else in the world for 50 cents?

9. If we open our market to cheap labor countries, will not our employers be obliged to suspend until we American workmen strike colors and come down to the European standard of living which our Democratic friends have designed for us?

10. If we send $1,000,000 to England, you know, for English goods, you know, and we get the goods in exchange, you know, and our Crisps, and our Cartlises, and our Clevelands wear them, and they are infinitely superior to anything made in America, you know, what will the country gain? What will labor profit by the transaction?

11. If we invest the above million in the employment of our own working people, to produce a substitute for the above, it would not bear an English trade-mark. But it would bear the stamp of American enterprise. Would it not be good enough for our shoddy aristocrats? Would not our working people be benefited? Would not the nation be $1,000,000 richer by the investment?

12. Is it not an insult to the skill and genius of American workmen that creatures whom their labor has lifted from nothing to wealth and independent means, or whom their votes have raised from obscurity to positions of national honor, should not find the product of an American loom good enough to cover their bloated carcasses?

13. Do you imagine that workmen cannot distinguish between democracy and sham, or that you leaders can mislead the intelligent workmen of the North to come down from the exalted station to which Protection has raised them, and take their place on a platform planned in England and adopted by the Democratic party as a means to destroy American industry, to depreciate the value of American labor and bring down American workmen to a level with the enslaved labor of other nations?

Your reply to length to the foregoing questions will be read with interest by many thousands of dissatisfied Democrats.

Sir, I have the honor to be an independent Democrat, above all party considerations, and subject only to the law of God and the constitutions American Democracy. Very respectfully,
JAMES JOHNSON,
145 Sackett street, Brooklyn.

DUTIES OF VOTERS.

An Abstract of the Requirements of the New Law.

The commissioners of Philadelphia have prepared the following regulation for the instruction and guidance of voters under the new election law, and as all these rules, except possibly the first, apply as well to Somerset county as to Philadelphia, we reproduce them here. Voters would do well to preserve them:

1. Number in Room—Only ten voters are allowed in the voting room at once, outside the enclosed space; and only four voters in excess of the number of compartments are allowed inside the enclosed space at once.

2. Giving Names, etc.—Voters must go first to the officers in charge of the ballots and state name and address. The right to vote must be proved and the voter allowed to pass the guard-rail before he can receive a ballot.

3. Preparing Ballots—Voters must prepare their ballots forthwith, and in compartments.

A cross (X) marked in the square at the right of a party name indicates a vote for all the candidates of that party.

of the name of the candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.

Crosses must be marked in the proper squares only.

If candidates of different parties are voted for, the square at the right of the party names must be left blank.

Names must not be crossed out.

Names must be inserted in the proper blank spaces only, and not in spaces where names are already printed.

Names can be inserted by writing, hand stamp, sticker or any other means not infringing the secrecy of the ballot.

Names inserted can be marked, but this is not necessary.

Names printed on the ballot must not be inserted.

[Note.—When a candidate has died or withdrawn and a substitute is nominated after the ballots are put out, the new name is to be printed on an official sticker. This should obviously be inserted over the name of the deceased or withdrawn candidate.]

4. Help in Preparing Ballots—Voters unable to prepare their own ballots can be helped to do so, but only in case of actual disability, which must be explicitly declared to the judge.

[Note.—To preserve order this should be done before the voters enter the enclosed space.]

A voter desiring help must himself select another voter of the district to help him.

The voter who receives such help without being unable to prepare his ballot will be liable to indictment for unlawfully showing his ballot.

A voter who is unable to prepare his ballot whom he is helping will be liable to indictment for unlawfully electioneering.

[Note.—A voter who is helping another prepares the ballot otherwise than as desired will be liable to indictment for forgery.]

5. Folding and Giving in Ballots, etc.—Ballots must be folded so as to show only the endorsement.

Where a ballot has been spoiled accidentally another can be obtained in its place on surrendering it.

No ballot, whether marked or not, can be taken from the room.

[Note.—As the constitution provides that every ballot "shall be numbered in the order in which it shall be received" each voter must give up each ballot to inspector to number and deposit it, as has been the rule heretofore. By the new law the inspector must, in the presence of the voter, fasten the corner securely down over the number, and voter should see that this is done and that the ballot is then placed in the box.]

6. Challenge—[Note.—Challenges should be made before a voter receives his ballot, if possible, but may be made at any time before he casts it.]

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says:
"At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life.
About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results."
