BUSINESS MENTION, WANTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Public Sale of Town Lots.
Beginning at one o'clock p. m., the undersigned will sell at public sale, on the premises in the borough of Salisbury, Pa., Tuesday, Sept. 20th, 1892, fourteen valuable town lots, formerly known as the Dr. Brookman property.

Four of these lots front on Grant street, the main street of the town, the other ten fronting on Gay street. One of those fronting on Grant street has erected there on a good two-story house, stable and out buildings. Size of lots, 50x181 feet. Some of them have an abundance of choice fruit.

These lots are all situated in one of the most desirable portions of the town and are in a high state of cultivation. This is an excellent opportunity to secure one of the best lots in the best all-round town in the county. There are many public works in the vicinity and many thousands of dollars are paid out annually for labor. This accounts for the town's prosperity, as plenty of work can always be had at good wages. The town is a very healthful and pleasant one to reside in and has very bright prospects for continued prosperity. It is growing rapidly and has now about 1000 inhabitants. Do not fail to attend this sale. Terms will be made known on day of sale.

Mrs. G. W. BRALLIER, Per J. M. SMITH, Auctioneer.

Autumn in the Mountains.
The important announcement is made that Deer Park will remain open until October 1st, and Oakland until September 22nd, thus affording an opportunity to spend September, the most delightful month, in the Alleghenies. The luxuriant foliage of the mountains is then in its autumnal glory, wild flowers abound, and game and fish are plentiful. All Vestibled Limited Express trains of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad between the East and West stop at both resorts. Pullman parlor or sleeping cars on all trains.

A Cure For Paralysis.
Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and lameness. 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of his Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, borne to an advertisement and come out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival and Hutton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Buy your Farm Wagons, Grain Drills, Hay Rakes, Mowers and Binders of J. T. Shipley.

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says: "At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life. About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results." For sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

J. T. Shipley just received a carload of Buggies.

OLD SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.
Low Rates and Great Preparations for Their Reunions at Baltimore and Washington.

The thousands of sailors and soldiers who participated in the late war feel an inspiring interest in the meeting of the Naval Veterans Association, at Baltimore, Sept. 16th to 19th, and in the National Encampment Grand Army of the Republic at Washington, D. C., commencing September 20th. They will be the most extensive and most distinguished military gatherings in America since the close of the war, and as the G. A. R. Encampment so closely follows the naval meeting, an opportunity will be afforded for all sailors and soldiers to participate in the festivities of each occasion. The scene of each gathering will be fraught with a thousand memories of the war—of deeds of valor and heroism, of victories and of the loss of loved comrades.

The President, his cabinet and other distinguished personages will review the Grand Army Parade on the 20th.

The White Squadron by its presence in the harbor of Baltimore will add an important feature to the naval veterans' meeting.

Interest in the reunions will not be confined to veterans alone, but also to thousands of appreciative citizens to whom the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. will offer the same low rates as to veterans.

Tickets sold by the B. & O. R. R. to both Baltimore and Washington ample provision will be made by local committees for the accommodation of all who may attend, and to all both cities extend a hearty welcome. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will add coaches to its regular trains, and will run special trains at frequent intervals.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rockwood.
In the course of Rockwood's rapidly increasing importance, it has become necessary that due and merited prominence be shown her through the columns of THE STAR. Notwithstanding Rockwood has and is very successfully represented through the columns of nearly every paper in the county, yet we feel duty-bound to ascribe to her greatness from time to time by contributing all the happenings worthy of notice. We hope thereby to be profited ourselves as well as add to the interest and entertainment of STAR readers generally.

Miss Lydia Holtzouer, of Meyersdale, spent several days visiting her brother, Geo. Holtzouer, Miss Clara Lane, of Broadforward, Pa., is visiting with her parents, and relatives at this place and Johnstown, Pa.
W. E. Baker, formerly of this place, but now of Pittsburg, is the guest of his parents. Mr. Baker is employed as a compositor on the Pittsburg Post.
Mr. Irvin Ream and wife are spending a few days with her parents.
Miss Jennie Brendel was attending the W. C. T. U. convention held at Salisbury.
Reunion day held by the Reformed congregation was one of the most pleasant occasions of the kind for a number of years. Unlike other reunion days observed here, it failed to rain. A better day could not have been selected. Not a cloud blurred the radiant blue sky and all was merriment and general satisfaction. S. A. and J. R. Haines, and W. H. H. Baker deserve special mention for preparing grounds. A large shed was erected for protection, in case it rained. Fortunately, it was not needed, but answered very well as a refreshment room. Among other improvements was the finding of a new spring of water, which is more conveniently situated than the old spring. J. R. Haines is generally credited as discoverer. A brass band is all that would have added to the interest and entertainment of the program. May the joys of this reunion day remain fresh in the minds of all who participated and may it be revived the coming season in a still greater degree of perfection.
Rev. Lichtler will preach his last sermon for this conference year, Sunday, Sept. 18th.
"We are on the verge of a cholera pestilence," is the language of many. Have we reasons to fear an introduction of the cholera scourge? We think not; at least I hope not. We think all necessary precautions are being taken to prevent it. It would be well, however, if we would investigate every sewer—well, in short everything that might invite this destructive visitor. We should profit by Hamburg's negligence. Let union of mind, hand and soul prevail in bringing about every possible result material to the non-invasion of this beautiful enemy, cholera.
Edward Bach, of Indiana, Pa., is visiting friends at this place. Ed used to be one of our boys and it affords us much pleasure to meet him once more. Hope he will have a good time and enjoy himself exceedingly.
Sept. 6th, 1892. OCCASIONAL.

State Line.

A good rain yesterday and last night. Farmers are now busy getting their wheat sowed. Some are done sowing, while others have most of their ground to plow yet.
Miller, Baker & Glingerich are threshing in this section at present.
A child of Simon Maust is sick with cholera infantum.
The Slaubaugh brothers started yesterday with their engine. John Folk went with them to start the machine.
Fred Gardner took the separator away, last Friday.
John Folk says that the J. Miller & Co. threshers jumped the fence and did some of his threshing. Not so slow, Miller.
Rev. John Gosho, Rev. Tzaer, one by the name of Stricher and a woman, from Canada, are here at present. Rev. Gosho preached a very good sermon, Sunday last, in the Elias Hershberger meeting-house. He also baptized some young folks. Tomorrow there will be council meeting at the said meeting-house. JANUARY.
Sept. 6th, 1892.

St. Paul.
Rain, welcome rain!
Zach Faldley returned from a visit to his father-in-law and reports having had a good time.
Charley Wagner has patched his buggy harness and is now ready to trot his blooded horse.
There are some sheep-killing dogs in this vicinity and we would advise all owners of such dogs to hire some good, law abiding citizen to kill them, or they may have to pay a bill for sheep not received.

The squirrels are "ripe," and by the way the guns crack, many of them are losing their lives. Boys, be careful and shoot nothing but squirrels, as pheasants and turkeys are not "ripe" yet, and they cost more than they are worth, when "green."
Zach Faldley is the proud owner of the famous gray horse, once the property of Boaz Trent, and imported to this community by J. J. Stalter. This is one of the finest horses in St. Paul, C. W.'s excepted.
J. J. Folk, passed through town, Tuesday, with a drove of fine sheep. Jerry knows where to find good sheep.
Stalter Bros. have their sawmill running and are turning out some fine lumber.
Channey Engle and Jake Mantel are at the carpenter trade. They are a credit to the community. They dig coal, blacksmith and work at almost every other trade you can mention, even down to horse-trading. No flies on Channey and Jake. DAN BOON, Sept. 6th, 1892.

Southampton.

Quite a rain today. We need not send for the rain-makers.
Rev. W. C. Garland will occupy the pulpit at the Kennell's Mill Union church, on the 3d Sunday in September.
John Troutman, of Pocahontas, wears a 12x14 smile, because it is a bran new boy. Set 'em up, John.
The Southampton school board met on the 27th inst. and employed teachers for three schools, as follows: Kennell's Mill, Miss Clara Fectic, of Wellersburg; Korn, Miss Lula Fectic, of the same place; Spruce Bank, Miss Annie Miller, of Bedford county.
Mrs. Daniel Boyer, who died near Comp's church, was born in 1808. She was one of the oldest and most respected women of this section. Her companion the choice of her youth, preceded her 27 years ago, since which time her home was with her sons and daughters, on her own farm, near the above named place. She was a church member for scores of years. Her house was ever a home for Christian people. She was the mother of seven children, five of whom survive. Hers was an active life, but her labors are over and she rests. We would not call her back to suffer again. The friends need not mourn as those who have no hope, for she has gone to rest. Peace to her ashes and rest to her soul. After the funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. Knepper, of Wellersburg, in Comp's church, a large concourse of relatives and friends followed her remains to their last resting place.
Sept. 6th, 1892. PRIMA DONNA.
