BUSINESS MENTION, WANTS AND Announcements.

Public Sale of Town Lots.

Beginning at one o'clock p. m., the undersigned will sell at public sale, on the premises in the borough of Salisbury, Pa., Tuesday, Sept. 20th, 1892, fourteen valuable town lots, formerly known as the Dr. Brookman property.
Four of these lots front on Grant street, the main street of the town, and the other ten fronting on Gay street. One of these fronting on Grant street has erected thereon a good two-story house, stable and foot buildings. Size of lots, 50x181 feet.
Some of them have an abundance of choice fruit.

These lots are all situated in one of the most desirable portions of the town and are in a high state of cultivation.

This is an excellent opportunity to secure one of the best lots in the best all-round town in the county. There are many public works in the vicinity and many thousands of dollars are paid out annually for labor. This accounts for the town's prosperity, as plenty of work can always be had at good wages. The town is a very beautiful and pleasant one to reside in and has very bright prospects for continued prosperity. It is growing rapidly and has now about 1000 inhabitants. Do not fail to attend this sale. Terms will be made known on day of sale.

A Cure For Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better.
Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swell-ings and lumbago. 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyers-dale, Pa.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dissuade him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival and Hatton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says:
"At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life.
About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results."

ersdale, Pa.

OLD SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.

Low Rates and Great Preparations for Their Reunions at Baltimore and Washington.

The thousands of sailors and soldiers who participated in the late war feel an inspiring interest in the meeting of the Naval Veterans Association, at Baltimore, Sept. 26th to 29th, and in the National Encampment Grand Army of the Republic at Washington, D. C., commencing September 30th. They will be the most extensive and most distinguished military gatherings in America since the close of the war, and as the G. A. R.
Encampment so closely follows the naval meeting, an opportunity will be afforded for all sailors and soldiers to participate in the festivities of each occasion. The scene of each gathering will be fraught with a thousand memories of the war—of deeds of valor and heroism, of victories and of the loss of loved comrades.
The President, his cabinet and other distinguished personages will review the Grand Army Parade on the 29th.

The White Squadron by its presence in the harbor of Baltimore will add an important feature to the naval veterans' meeting.

Interest in the reunions will not be confined to veterans alone, but also to thousands of appreciative citizens to whom the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. will offer the same low rates as to veterans.
At both Baltimore and Washington ample provision will be made by local committees for the accommodation of all who may attend, and to all both cities extend a hearty welcome. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will add coaches to its regular trains, and will run special trains at frequent intervals.

Tickets sold by the B. & O. R. R. to both Baltimore and Washington, will contain most liberal privileges. They will be on sale at all stations, from September 13th to 30th, inclusive, at rate of one lowest first-class fare for the round trip, and will be good for return journey until October 10th. They will be valid to stop off at all stations, from Cumberland to Baltimore—a region familiar to every veteran. During the encampment, excursions at low rates will be run daily from Washington to Annetam, Gettysburg, and other noted battlefields within access of Washington.

For time of regular and special trains, apply to nearest B. & O. Agent.
For round trip rates from your nearest station to Baltimore and Washington, consult appended table. All tickets to Baltimore good to stop off at Washington.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rockwood.

School opened on Monday with the following teachers at the helm: W. H. Baker, Principal; Ella Werner, Grammar room; Jennie Shaffer, Intermediate; Ida Shaff, Primary. The grounds about the school house have been cleared of stones, stumps, etc., and rooms have been made pleasant by repainting them throughout. Our school board, composed of S. A. Kendall, A. J.
Growth, W. H. Johnson, G. B. Masters and Solomon Snyder, should be congratulated for seriously discharging their whole duty in the way of having the grounds and building put in a presentable condition, also for employing a janitor.

D. Scott, of Johnstown, Pa., was in town on Saturday. Mr. Scott is a large contractor and was here in the interest of a contemplated taking of a contract on the S. & C. branch.

E. S. Wolfersberger, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., has been in town for some time; he has entered the employ of the B. & O. R. R. as a freeman and has been taking initiatory steps on the S. & C.
The Sullivan-Corbett fight had quite a sensational effect on those of our people who are nationally inclined. Much betting was indulged in and great consternation was noticeable among Sullivan backers when they learned that their gladiator had lost his hard-earned laurels. From a moral standpoint, nothing was gained or lost; therefore, there is no occasion for rejoicing with those who rejoice or weeping with those who weep. We believe prize-fighting is detrimental to all that denotes or promotes an enlightened race of people. It is far from being a civilizer.
Louisiana seems to be the only resort for the reception of this kind of sport and we hope the day is not far distant when it will become so much deprecated as to be entirely isolated beyond civilized borders.

Thomas Stockdale, of Bellevernon, Pa., is the guest of Ellwell Ash.

Our town is billed for a Prohibition oration on Thursday.

Hon. J. D. Miller has improved the appearance of his store building by having it painted.

Prof. Grant Kendall was in town on Sunday.

The Rockwood Feed Co. is doing a rushing business.

W. E. Baker, whom we reported last week, has since had a bad accident to befall him. While on his way up town, on Saturday night, he fell over a large stone on the corner of Market and Market street. The stone was placed there to protect the corner of the sidewalk.

Miss Belle Jones, of Pittsburg, is the guest of W. H. H. Baker.

Deputy Sheriff Barron was in town on Wednesday last, in the discharge of an official duty.

Rev. Wilkinson preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. The Rev. undoubtedly has diligently and unfeignedly applied "the sword of the spirit" to a good advantage and effect. He is held in high esteem by all who learned to know him. He will take a four-year course in college, which will more completely fit him for the great cause he has embraced. We tender him our best wishes in behalf of his future happiness and usefulness.

Our Burgess, John Stein, has received one of Gov. Pattison's proclamations, requesting him to investigate and remove everything detrimental to a pure sanitary condition. The Governor is right and his request should be executed.
"Occasional" called the people's attention to this last week, but lacked official capacity to enforce it.

Geo. W. Phillippi takes the lead in the furniture line. A choice stock of goods constantly on hand.

Geo. Holtzouer, our enterprising butcher, can always be found at the old stand. Geo. sells none but the best meats.

Frank Cunningham, an efficient engineer on the S. & C., is "laying off" with a sprained ankle, Sept. 13th, 1892.

St. Paul.

J. M. Hay has a very fine team of gray horses, which he traded for with Hiram Hay, of Brothersvalley.

Quite a number of St. Paul folks attended the funeral of Samuel Schrock, on Sunday, and report a large turnout.
Funeral conducted by Rev. Joel Gnagey, assisted by Rev. J. W. Peck. Text was taken from Revelations, 14th chapter and 13th verse. The deceased was aged 79 years and 4 months.

Boaz Trent has quit farming and has gone to mining. He thinks there is more money in mining.

Jerry Reinhart is "baching" at Statler's mill. You bet he makes things lively.

Wonder what has become of the electric road. Whoop her up, as we want it to pass through St. Paul. [Have patience; the electric road and Lou Smith have taken a lantern and are now in search of that inland sea known as Sand Spring—Ed.]

H. F. Snyder has secured the job of farming for Capt. Q. H. McClure. Wish him success.

Fred Wise is pleased all over, because it's a boy.

Charley Wagner thinks Joe Hay's horse would match his, all but the color and is probably not so fast. DAN BOONE.

An Original Prize Contest.

To the first person who by taking two letters from the word "Plague," can make the name of a disease that is common in portions of both Canada and the United States, will be given an elegant Bright Piano, (valued at $225, or its equivalent in cash, as preferred). To the second person will be given a Pony Cart and Harness complete, (valued at $200, or its equivalent in cash, if preferred). To the third person will be given an elegant Cold Watch valued at $75, or its equivalent in cash. Fifty other prizes, ranging in value from twenty-five dollars to five dollars will be awarded to the next fifty persons sending correct solutions strictly in order as received. If you have tried other so-called prize competitions without success you must not condemn these offered by this company, as they are perfectly reliable, and are carried on in good faith. Contestants must enclose U. S. Postal Note for thirty cents, (or fifteen two-cent U. S. stamps) for one month's trial subscription to the LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY, which is the handsomest and best illustrated weekly publication for ladies on this continent.

The only object in offering this competition is to introduce it into new homes, and we guarantee that no party will be shown in the awarding of prizes. Persons living at a distance, or in the United States, have as good an opportunity, as the date of postmark on letters will be given precedence, so answer early. Address, Ladies' Pictorial Co., "D," Toronto Canada.

Wonders of a Ton of Coal.
Besides gases, a ton of coal will yield 1,500 pounds of coke, twenty gallons of ammonia water and 140 pounds of coal tar. Destructive of the tar gives 68.9 pounds of pitch, 17 pounds of creosote, 14 pounds heavy oils, 9.5 pounds naphthalina yellow, 6.3 pounds of naphthalene, 4.75 pounds naphthalole, 2.25 pounds of alsarin, 2.4 pounds of solvent naphtha, 1.5 pounds of phenol, 1.2 pounds aurine, 1.1 pounds of aniline, 0.77 pounds toluene, 0.48 pounds of antiracine and 0.9 pounds toluene. From the last named product saccharine is obtained, which is 233 times sweeter than sugar.—Philadelphia Press.

CYCLONE
DIGGER

Universally conceded to be the best and only Digger that works to perfection in the softest of sand and the toughest of clay, and unequalled by all others to work in any kind of soil, as the blades are so arranged and made of spring steel, thus allowing them to dig and empty as they dig.

The handle is so arranged that it can be lengthened to any desired length by adding pipe to it in sections, so that any desired depth can be reached with these Diggers.

It is light, strong, durable and simple (nothing complicated about it), and does twice the work in less time than any other Digger made.
