BUSINESS MENTION, WANTS AND Announcements.

Holtz's Cider Mill!
I have been asked by some persons whether I would have my cider mill and apple-butter factory in operation, this fall. Will say that I will, providing there will be enough apples to justify me in starting up. All persons who want cider made and desire me to make it, will please report to me no later than next Wednesday, so that I can announce in the next issue of THE STAR what will be done in the matter.
H. H. RAYZ.

Notice to Tax Payers.
Notice is hereby given to the tax payers of Salisbury borough that all State, County and Borough taxes not paid by Nov. 1st, 1892, will be collected by process of law.

A Cure For Paralysis.
Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better.
Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swell-ings and lameness. 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the Druggist, Meyers-dale, Pa.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell for nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to deter him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival and Hatton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup."

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says:
"At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life.
About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results."

CORRESPONDENCE.

Southampton.
P. J. Lint, of near Pochontas, visited C. C.
Wartz, last week. He and Mr. Wartz had quite a good time, hunting.

A son of Wm. Cook was killed at Glenoco, last week, while trying to board a freight train. This occurrence ought to be a good lesson for the rest of the youngsters that place and elsewhere.

Rev. W. C. Garland, from Buffalo Mills, occupied the pulpit at the Kennell's mill Union church, last Sabbath, at 10:30 A. M., and will again preach for the same congregation on Saturday, Oct. 1st, at 8 P. M.

Last Thursday J. J. Wartz and Mrs. Wm. F.
Wartz arrived home from their trip to Iowa.
Mrs. F. J. Lint, of Iowa, is at present visiting her parents, at Gladdens, Pa.

Cloudy and cool this morning.

has any amount, and that a great many of them weigh two pounds.

Stalder Bros. have a new saw at their sawmill
It is a "dandy," but does not want to run right.
Capt. Q. A. McClure has (I am informed) purchased the Black team from Peter Wanzel. This team is a good team and a fancy one as well.
H. F. Snyder is the teamster.

Ed Dickey was "held up," Sunday evening, between Alex. Spelcher's and the Cross Roads, money or life was demanded, but Dickey, who is a plucky man, in handling the pocket-book gave his foot a swing, which landed in the pit of the would-be robber's stomach, landing him in a fence corner. Mr. Dickey then made his escape.

By the way Chesney's single puz Zaek Faidler's horse through, he must have him in training. He trots in three minutes, and will trot in two.
Chesney is done with him, he will trot in two.

Rumor has it that J. J. Folk bought the Bass-master property. Glad to hear it, for you seldom find a more kind and accommodating neighbor than Mr. Folk.
Alex. Spelcher is putting up a tool house for Q. A. McClure, on his farm. McClure believes in taking care of tools.
Last Saturday evening there was a shooting of slay pigeons and U. A. Newman came out behind. He says it is a pity to break the pigeons.

A remarkable story comes from Ohio-pyle regarding General Braddock's defeat and death. David Williams, an old soldier, who lives about a mile from there, has interesting reminiscences of Braddock's defeat, which he obtained from Thomas Fawcett, a soldier who was in that fight. Fawcett lived in that neighborhood for years before he died and his grave is on a little hill about a mile south of the falls. Fawcett told Williams that he himself shot Braddock; that when the Indian attack took place and the American riflemen took to cover to fight the Indians in frontier style, Braddock was furious, and with his sword cut down one of Fawcett's friends who got behind a tree. Fawcett said that he was so infuriated that he at once fired on Braddock, mortally wounding him.

One Man's Will.
The following is a copy of a will left by a man who chose to be his own lawyer:
"This is the last will and testament of me, John Jones; I give all my things to my relations, to be divided among them the best way they can. N. B.—If anybody kicks up a row or makes any fuss about it, he isn't to have anything.
Signed by me, JOHN JONES."

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT SOMERSET.
Special to THE STAR.
The opening of the Republican campaign, at Somerset, on Saturday night, Sept. 17th, was a big success. It is seldom that it is the privilege of the people of a county numerically so small as Somerset to have in their midst so distinguished a speaker as Gov. McKinley, of Ohio. Our court house, commodious as it is, was literally packed with people, representing all parties.

The applause that greeted the most able exponent of American tariff showed the admiration in which the author of the McKinley Bill is held.
He began his matchless argument by stating that the platforms of the respective parties represented their views and pledges. He then referred to the promise of the Democratic party to repeal the temper cent. tax law on State banks, passed in 1863, and spoke of the absurdity of flooding the country with worthless money—money that as soon as it passed out of the country in which it was issued sank away down below par value. He referred to our want of credit under this system and the fact that almost all business was carried on by barter of goods for goods, etc.

He then took up the subject of tariff.
The audience became mute and demonstrated by turns. We will not attempt to portray the unanswerable arguments used to sustain our present system of tarriff, its benefits the proofs of which are the superiority of the American wage earner.

Truly he is a great man and the Republican party a great party. Its mission is the freedom, the equality, the prosperity and the happiness of sixty-three millions of Americans. Vote the Republican ticket as an evidence of your intelligence.

J. D. Hicks, of Altoona, Andrey Stewart, of Fayette county, and Gen Koontz also addressed the meeting, following Gov. McKinley.

Columbus Day.
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, HARRISBURG, PA., Sept. 5th, 1892.
TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS, SUPERINTEN-DENTS AND TEACHERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS: —The President of the United States and the Governor of this commonwealth have recommended the celebration, in a fitting manner, of Friday, October 21st, of this year, the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America.

Appropriate exercises by the schools should be made a prominent feature of this celebration. This will not, therefore, be regarded as a legal school holiday.
The schools should open as usual. They may afterward unite in any of or all the exercises of the day. In addition to the exercises by the pupils, addresses by prominent citizens and choral and orchestral music will be appropriate.

A uniform program has been announced by the Executive Committee of the National Educational Association. It will contain a song, set to a well-known tune.

an address to be declaimed and an ode to be recited, all prepared especially for the celebration, by some of the best of American writers. This program in a complete form will be sent to all applicants who address the Chairman of the Executive Committee, Francis Bellamy, of The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass., and will be published throughout the country.

TREE PLANTING.
A prominent feature of the day should be the planting of Columbus trees.
Hardy, long lived trees are the most desirable. Where it is possible, let groves stand as memorials of the four hundredth Columbian Anniversary. No fall Arbor Day has compared in interest with this, let it be fully improved. The schools of Pittsburg have already arranged to plant upon a very extensive scale.

OTHER EXERCISES.
It is hoped that where there is a celebration by the general public it will be for the afternoon and that the schools may be recognized therein.
The educational value of the day cannot be over estimated. The memories revived, the information gained, the ideas presented, the achievements considered, will all unite to enlarge the mental horizon, to stimulate thought and ennoble character.

You are earnestly requested to observe the day, that pupils of schools of Pennsylvania may pay their homage to the hero, and to the spirit of enterprise commemorated. Let the day be observed everywhere throughout the state in such a spirit as to impress upon the minds of the children of this commonwealth, lessons of patriotism and loyalty, love of home and country that will insure to future generations the privileges and blessings which we now enjoy and awaken gratitude to God and a deep and lasting reverence for America and American institutions.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

CYCLONE
DIGGER

Universally conceded to be the best and only digger that works to perfection in the softest of sand and the toughest of clay, and unequalled by all others to work in any kind of soil, as the blades are so arranged and made of spring steel, thus allowing them to expand and contract when ill-ing and emptying same.

The handle is so arranged that it can be lengthened to any desired depth, so that any desired depth can be reached with these Diggers.

It is light, strong, durable and simple (nothing complicated about it), and does twice the work in less time than any other digger made.
