BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell now nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 each.
It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Southampton.
Nights decidedly cool.
Threshers report that grain, such as wheat, rye and oats, are not an average crop.

Squirrel hunters are quite numerous, now-a-days.
Rumor has it that a chicken thief was shot at by a Mr. Corns, some time since, but the villain escaped unhurt.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ken-nell died on last Tuesday and was buried on Wednesday, at the Comp's cemetery.

A Mr. Sturtz, from Illinois, is at present visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. Sturtz took in the G. A. R. encampment at Washington, and reports a grand time.

A mink entered Mr. C. C. Martz's hen house, last Sunday night, and killed 29 chickens. Quite a loss to Mr. Martz.

Democrats in this section of the country are feeling blue over the bomb shell that was thrown into the Democratic ranks in New York, by Mr. Peck, Commissioner of the New York Bureau of Labor Statistics, and are already making preparation to go up "Salt River" after the election. Hurray for McKinley!

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Martz celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage, last Tuesday, the 27th inst. All the children were present, eleven in number, of which seven are sons and four are daughters.
The sons' wives and daughters' husbands were also present. The occasion was a grand one and they all enjoyed themselves hugely. Mr. Martz also lived a consistent Christian for 40 years. May they live many more days and Heaven's choicest blessings rest upon them.

Oct. 3d, 1892. PRIMA DONNA.

There is no use of any one suffering with cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know. — W. H. Clinton, Hel-metta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Wm. E. Kuhns, of Waterloo, Iowa, has been the guest of his numerous relatives and friends. He returned home on Wednesday.

Chas. Shuck, an artist from Ohio, who spent part of the summer at Glade, painting for the World's Fair, passed through here on his way to Cumberland, Md.

A number of our young people gave a surprise party to Miss Cordie Koontz, at the residence of Geo. Ridenhour. Geo. figured as a prominent actor.

Rev. J. L. Lichliter, pastor of the U.
B. church at this place, for the space of four years, has been assigned a charge in Johnstown, Pa. Although young in the ministry as well as in years, he won the heartiest approbation of all his people in this charge, who desired his return for the 5th time; but Conference thought him entitled to a more responsible post of duty, therefore placed him at Moxham.

We do not feel at all solicitous as to how he will prove himself to merit this, a better charge, but we know that he will more than prove himself worthy at the end of the conference year.

A. J. Growall has sold his property on Broadway to Mrs. Geo. Cobanuch.

John Stein has purchased the residence

As we are just ready to mail our items, we learn of a bad wreck that happened at Casselman, owing to the negligence of a flagman. OCCASIONAL.

Oct. 4th, 1892.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Hel-metta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Copland, the druggist,

"One Star Differs From Another Star In Glory."

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 1st, 1892.
MR. P. L. LIVENGOOD AND WIFE.

DEAR COUSINS:—Please change my address to Logan, where I expect to go in a short time and prefer not to miss a copy of the paper. "For one star differs from another star in glory," so THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR adds new lustre to my life each week by bringing news from the land of my nativity. Very respectfully, ELEEN S. KEIM.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Card of Thanks.
We hereby tender our thanks to the to the band for the excellent music furnished and to all others who assisted in making the occasion pleasant and enjoyable. MR. AND MRS. JOHN J. KEIM.

Golden Wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Martz, of Southampton township, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage, Tuesday, Sept.
27th, 1892. On that day all of their descendants living in Pennsylvania, consisting of eleven children, thirty grand-children and one great-grand-child, treated them to a surprise party at the old homestead. All of them came with presents, many of them being very valuable.

Their first wedding was a very large one, yet there are only a few persons now living who witnessed that happy event.
Fifteen children blessed the union, of whom eleven are still living and residing in Westmoreland, Bedford and Somerset counties. N. H. MARTZ.
