BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, turn to an advertisement and come out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Boytton.
Drought still continues and water is getting very scarce.
C. J. Fike was honored several days last week with an epileptic attack.
C. L. Walker spent several weeks visiting in adjoining counties.
Wm. Doney's residence on North street is completed. It is quite an improvement to that end of town.
Mrs. Tinnhart is improving, but it will be some time before she will be able to be about again.
There are no new cases of fever here at present, and C. S. May and Mrs. Holler, who have had it, are able to be about again. Andrew Robertson is also improving.
Mrs. Samuel May, of Hindman, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ross Holler, this week.
Oct. 17th, 1892.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Rockwood.
W. E. Baker, of the Pittsburg Post, is at home nursing a sore knee.
Geo. W. Beck's sale took place on the 17th. Mr. Beck intends going west.
This is the quietest Presidential campaign experienced in this place for a number of years. As far as we can understand in a quiet way, Ben is away ahead. We sincerely sympathize with our Democratic friends, and for their sake, sorely regret Commissioner Peck's honesty.

Prof. O. O. Saylor returned from Pittsburg. He reports a pleasant time spent in the city.

S. A. Kendall made a brief visit to the "Iron City."

J. M. Miller, Jake Winters and J. O. Wolfberger may be met on the streets of Pittsburg, this week. They will take it all places of note.

The Chautauque Reading Circle will meet to organize, one evening this week. All persons literarily inclined will find this a profitable organization to connect themselves with.

John Short, our enterprising tinner and hardware dealer, is doing a "land office" business. Parties desiring to buy a new stove or pump will do well by writing to him for prices.

Rev. John McClay, the newly appointed pastor of the U. B. church, preached his first sermon on Sunday last. The Rev. promises to be an able man.

Oct. 19th, 1892. OCCASIONAL.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

There is no use of any one suffering with cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.
