F. L. LIVENGOOD, Editor and Publisher.
Mrs. F. L. LIVENGOOD, Associate Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at Elk Lick, Pa., as mail matter of the second class.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Star is published every Thursday, at Elk Lick, Pa., at the following rates:
One copy one year $1.50
One copy six months .75
One copy three months .40
One copy one month .15
Single copies .05

HOW TO REMIT.—Remit by postoffice money order, registered letter, or bank draft.
Otherwise remittances will be at sender's risk.
Never send your personal check, if your residence is far away from here. Make all drafts, orders, etc., payable to F. L. Livengood.

ADVERTISING.—TRANSIENT LOCAL NOTICES, 10 cents a line for first insertion; 5 cents a line for each additional insertion. To regular advertisers, 3 cents a line straight, except when inserted among local news or editorial matter.
No business locals will be mixed in with local news or editorial matter for less than 10 cents a line for each and every insertion.

EDITORIAL.—Puffs, when requested, invariably 10 cents per line.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.—Legal notices will be charged for at 5 cents a line, but all such notices as the editor sees fit to make concerning such events, without anyone's request, will be gratis.

CARDS OF THANKS will be published free for patrons of this paper, but non-patrons will be charged 10 cents a line.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT will be published for 5 cents a line.

RATES FOR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS will be made known on application.

No free advertising will be given to anything of a money-making character. Nothing will be advertised gratis in this paper, except free lectures, free sermons and all such things as are free to the public.

All advertisements will be run and charged for until ordered discontinued.

No advertisement will be taken for less than 25 cents.

JOB PRINTING.—The Star office has first-class job printing equipment, turns out all its work in the best style of the art, and at very reasonable prices. The Star does all kinds of commercial work, poster and bill printing, and on fact nearly every kind of printing belonging to the art. All job orders, whether by mail or otherwise, receive prompt attention.

Salisbury's wants are fast being supplied.

Prof. A. A. Streng orders his name placed on our subscription list.

Piles and Piles of elegant new goods can be found in all our stores.

A blind musician did the town, Tuesday evening, and gathered in $6.65.

John M. Olinger, of Meyersdale, is making a tour of the Western states.

Irving Shumaker, of Berkeley, made a business call at THE STAR office today.

Major Alex. Stutzman, of Somerset, was one of our hotel arrivals on Monday.

Eclipse of the sun today. No extra charges for reserved seats, says "old Sol."

Ground is broken for Dr. Speicher's drug store. The building will be 20x30 feet.

The Indianapolis News has flopped over to Harrison, and Reid and protection.

C. R. Haselbarth & Son are about the busiest men in town at this season of the year.

Daniel Barclay has returned from Hagerstown, where he had been for several weeks.

H. Loehel and wife, Mrs. M. J. Livengood and John Barclay all went to Frostburg today.

Mrs. M. Dively and Miss Mary Lichty went to Pittsburgh on Monday, to attend the exposition.

The liberties of the press and the liberties of the people must stand or fall together.—Hume.

Glencoe now has a Jr. O. U. A. M. council. That is a step in the right direction for Glencoe.

Frank Tedrow orders THE STAR sent to Peter Breig, of Meyersdale. Nothing mean about Frank.

Some of our people took in the camp-meet, last Sunday, at Meyersdale. All report a good time.

John Short, one of West Salisbury's best citizens, orders his name placed on our subscription list.

Salisbury's stores are among the best in the county. This is an excellent town to do your trading in.

Richard Jeffery and wife and Jesse Jeffery and wife were visiting friends at Lonsconing, last week.

Hon. Sam Mier has been suffering with rheumatism and lumbago, for some time, but is now on the mend.

Squire Lowry and Son, and John J.
Livengood, went to Johnstown to take in the 84 regiment reunion.

Richard Jeffery was on the sick list, last week, but is able to be about again.
This week his son Jesse is ill.

Commissioner Uhl was here this week and supplied the township and borough with election booths and ballot boxes.

Jack Collier has folded his tent and moved away from Boynton. He is now a resident of Salisbury, and we welcome him.

It seems that rain is out of the question.
Some of our mountain streams are so low that they could almost be dipped dry with a bucket.

Some time ago Frank Folk's pet racoon made his escape. It is supposed that he went on a tour to exterminate Democratic roosters.

Jim Skidmore, the great Frostburg coon hunter, was up this way on a hunt, last Saturday night. Don't know how he made out.

Mr. A. D. Johnson, of Uniontown, orders THE STAR sent to his wife, in order to keep her supplied with the news of her old home town.

Dr. G. C. Keller, of Grantsville, was in town this week with a force of men and erected some new telegraph poles, which were long needed.

Dr. Wm. Rupp will supply the pulpit of Rev. J. M. Evans, next Sunday, at 2:30 p. m., in the absence of the Pastor. No services at St. Paul.

A session of the Somerset County Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran church will be held at Berlin from November 1 to 3, inclusive.

Bennie Wagner has landed safely in New York. Dr. Speicher accompanied him. THE STAR hopes that the poor lad will be greatly benefited.

This is the best point in the county for a good clothing and gent's furnishing goods store. A lucrative business in that line is awaiting a good man.

If you want to buy some good horses, buggies, spring wagons, harness, etc., attend R. H. Koontz's livery sale in Berlin.

According to the Medical Record, castor oil has not failed in any case to remove warts to which it has been applied once a day for two to six weeks.

John R. Scott, of Somerset, was in this burg on Monday. Call again, John R., we can easily stand one lawyer at a time, and you are always welcome.

M. H. Hartzell, of Rockwood, the plumed knight of all the chaps known as good fellows, passed through here on Monday, on his way to Grantsville.

This state alone now has over 80,000 Jr. United American Mechanics. It will have 100,000 before this time next year.
No order is increasing more rapidly.

M. Bowser, the genial Grantsville merchant, was a pleasant caller at THE STAR office this week. He is a good fellow to be with and we invite him to call often.

Dan Miller, of Somerset, is helping Adam Fogle on a big brick and stone contract, at the Extract works. Two more boilers are to be added to the works.

The name of the post office at Griffin, on the S. & C. R. R., has been changed to Listie, in honor of the "Listie Mining Company" located at that place.—Herald.

John H. Pfahler, a former Salisbury boy, but now a rustling Meyersdale business man, was shaking hands with his numerous friends here, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Stoner, former residents of this town, but now of Fayette county, Pa., were the guests last Sunday of L. C. Boyer's and David Lichty's.

The Grand Jury found a true bill against Edward F. Goller, the Fort Hill postmaster, who was arrested some time ago for taking money from registered letters.

Vol. I, No. 1, of the Daily Frostburg Ledger, has reached our table. It is a good little paper and deserves a liberal patronage. It is just what Frostburg has long needed.

Linia Simpson, editor of the Gazette at Point Pleasant, W. Va., has taken the stump for the Republicans. Her father is a Democrat, and she has challenged him to a joint debate.

The first Harrison and Reid pole to be raised in this county, was raised last Saturday in Brothersvalley township. Several Democrats were converted to Republicanism on the occasion.

Mr. McClure, who recently bought what is known as the J. J. Folk farm, is said to have a small army of workmen employed, making fancy fences and otherwise improving the place.

Rev. Augustus Babb died at his home in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, last Tuesday, aged 83 years. Forty years or more ago Rev. Babb preached the Gospel to the Lutherans of Somerset.

If Geo. Collins beats Pete Livengood shooting, and Ed Billmeyer beats Collins, and Pete Livengood beats Billmeyer, who in blazes is the champion? Collins thinks he is, but there is room for dispute.

Next Tuesday C. S. Beal will have a shooting match for the purpose of disposing of a valuable cow. Three shots for 50 cents, and the best marksman gets the cow. For full particulars, see bills.

If you have chapped hands, face, or rough or red skin, from any cause, use Stewart's Almond Cream. It will please you and bring quick relief. Only 10 and 25 cents a bottle. Sold by J. L. Barclay.

The editor was treated to a royal oyster dinner, today, by Wm. J. Lichty, for which we turn our thanks. Nothing mean about "Soldier Billy," and when it comes to serving up oysters—well, he can't be beat.

Mr. Henry Brandler, of Elk Lick, Pa., spent several days in town. Mr. J. J.
Keim was piloting him around the town and country. Mr. Brandler knows a live town when he sees it and likes Elkins.— Elkins Inter-Mountain.

If any person thinks the Democrats here are napping, he is mistaken. A close observer can easily notice that they are very active, although very quiet. They are pretending to be indifferent about the election, and so they are—in a horn.

J. A. Berkey, Esq., the popular young attorney, will participate in the grand parade of the Knights of the Golden Eagle at Conneville on October 21, and will marshal the members of the order from Cambria, Bedford and Somerset counties.
—Standard.

Geo. Collins, the Byington champion, did as we advised him—went to the woods and practiced shooting until he again took the championship from THE STAR. But that's nothing, for we will soon win it back again, although we have got to admit that Geo. shoots a great deal like the editor, and that's hard to beat.

In a neighboring town last week a little girl on her way home from school, picked up a piece of lime from the sidewalk and thinking it was chalk placed it in her mouth. The moment the saliva touched it the lime began to slack, aided by the child's hot breath, soon filled her mouth, choking her to death in a few minutes.— Somerset Herald.

The Maust & Newman men seem to have been in bad luck last week. Norman Maust accidentally got cut on the head with an ax, while J. B. Cross came near getting the life knocked out of him by a rolling log. Neither one was seriously hurt, we are glad to say, but both had narrow escapes. Lumbering is dangerous work, as we know by experience.

Life Livengood is on the war path and threatens to make somebody some trouble. He says some one dropped a red hot Democratic supplement of the Baltimore Sun, near his place, which his dog got hold of and chewed into shreds.
As a result the dog is very sick, says Life, and may die. Well, just let him die.
Life, and keep cool, for he ought to have known better than to fool with such pernicious literature.

A serious accident occurred at the hardwood factory on Tuesday. Mr. Peter A.
Breig, who has charge of the saw, was struck between the eyes by a flying piece of wood and a section of the forehead, two inches long, laid bare to the bone.
A moment after the accident he fell to the floor stunned, but soon recovered and was taken home after having the wound dressed. He is doing well, but it was a fortunate escape.—Register.

It is said that Al Kidner and Irv Hay went out hunting, some time ago, and that each of them fired at a large turkey that was sitting on a rail fence, but missed every time. At last they found out that it was a tame fowl, and they sneaked away, glad that they missed it, but ashamed of their poor shooting. It does beat the mischief that some fellows can't hit a turkey when it sits on the fence, quietly, and allows itself to be shot at the after time.

The Postmaster General has decided to issue what will be known as the Columbian series of postage stamps. The stamps will be of the same width as the present series, but twice as long, the increased size being thought necessary in order to properly display the illustrations.
They are intended to commemorate the discovery of America by Columbus. It is expected that the entire series will be put on sale January 1, 1893, and next year will entirely supersede the present series.

Mrs. Henrietta Brubaker and Miss Sarah Collins will soon start for Jamaica Island where they will make their future home, for three or four years at least.
Miss Collins will make her home with her brother, Rev. M. A. Collins, who is a missionary in Jamaica. She will leave Berlin Thursday and go to Meyersdale, where she will spend a few days with her brother, Rev. B. B. Collins, before proceeding further. The many friends of these ladies wish them a successful voyage and a happy future in their new home.—Berlin Record.

No wonder John J. Livengood's old dog "Piper" lost his life, recently, while out "coon hunting." One of the fellows who was out with "old Johnny" that night says that there were three pounds of crackers, 3 boxes of sardines, one can of salmon, about 50 tobies and a whole quart of 40 rod whisky in the crowd. As we have said before, it's no wonder that old "Piper" was killed; in fact it's strange that old "Tige" got back alive. John will doubtless refuse to hunt, hereafter, if the fellows who go with him insist on carrying whisky with them.

We had the pleasure on Sunday evening of having a chat with our old and respected friend, Hon. B. Welfey, who is a veritable storehouse of knowledge, especially concerning the early history of Salisbury and Elk Lick. He told us many interesting things concerning the old pioneers, which we enjoyed very much, and we can assure him that the readers of THE STAR would greatly appreciate an occasional article from his able pen. Mr.
Welfey's father was the first postmaster of Elk Lick, and his holding said office exempted him from the war of 1812.

There are a great many people in this town who have a mania for fencing up public ground. This does not look right, and our borough officers ought to make a tour of the whole town, note every place where streets and alleys are fenced up, and make every mother's son who has public ground fenced up put his fence where it ought to be. The first thing the borough knows some of these land grabbers will have this land fenced up so long that the borough can not take it from them. Now is the time to make every mother's son of them disgorge.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARIES.—G. & C.
Merriam Co. having won their suit against the Texas Siftings Co. of New York, for offering a 40 years old reprint of the edition of Webster's Unabridged as premium for subscribers for their paper, are devoting their attention to several other suits of a like nature now in the courts.—The Topeka Capital Co. of Topeka, Kansas, being one of the latest. They claim they are compelled to do this in justice, alike to the public and to themselves and have therefore given directions to their attorney to prosecute in every case where a publisher makes use of misleading announcements.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, while threshers were engaged at Winfield S. Walker's farm, in Shade township, a young son of Mr. Walker met with a horrible accident by which he received injuries which will leave him a cripple for life.
The young boy was standing close to the threshing machine and in some way his left arm was caught in the belt of the machine in such a manner that the member was torn out of the shoulder socket before the engine could be stopped. The young sufferer, who is 13 years old, was attended by Dr. Barlow, of Hooversville, and Reid, of New Baltimore. He is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.—Somerset Standard.

The State Farmers' Alliance of Pennsylvania held its second annual convention at Johnstown, last week. Owing to Chairman Potts being absent, Secretary E. H. Werner, clerk to the Somerset county Commissioners, presided. The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, John D. Baker, of Somerset county; Vice President, Ira Bloom, Cambria county; Lecturer, John Wright, Cambria county; Secretary, E. H. Werner, Somerset; Treasurer, D. H. Rhoads, Bedford county; and Business Agent, W. A.
Weaver, Somerset county. Executive Committee, Levi Berkey, A. W. Knepper, Somerset county, and J. S. Yoder, of Elton, Legislative Committee, James J.
Kaylor, Cambria county, and E. H. Werner and A. W. Knepper, Somerset county.

Meager details have reached here of a fatal accident near Trent postoffice, in Middlecreek township, Saturday afternoon, 8th inst. A son of Noah Hem-minger, in his twenty-first year, was driving a team of heavy farm horses hitched to a loaded wagon, and when near Trent the horses took fright at some object in the road and ran away. In his efforts to check the horses young Hemminger was dragged forward over the dash board and fell beneath their feet. The wheels of the wagon ran over his body, breaking a number of his ribs and crushing his kidneys.
The unfortunate young man was discovered by persons passing along the road a half-hour later, when he was carried to the home of a neighbor and a physician sent for. Nothing could be done to relieve his suffering and he lingered for several hours in the greatest agony before death came to his relief. The funeral occurred Tuesday.—Herald.

The Fight in Meyersdale.
There was a big fight in Meyersdale, last Saturday night, in which Charles Crossen, of West Salisbury, came very near being killed by Peter Albright, Meyersdale's policeman, and several other citizens of that town. A good many people from here saw the fight and all say that Crossen was in no way to blame for the trouble. Albright and several others have been arrested for assault and battery with intent to kill. Mr. Crossen informs us, and if all reports are true, it will be apt to go hard with them. Of course there are always two sides to a question, but all the reports we have yet heard concerning this matter, are to the effect that Albright had a spite against Crossen and started the whole trouble.
If this is correct, he should be severely punished.

Harrison and Reid Club.
A Harrison and Reid club was organized, Tuesday evening, in the K. of L. hall, officers as follows: President, P. L.
Livengood; Vice President, J. P. Vogel; Secretary, Prof. C. E. Dickey; Treasurer, M. Welfey. The meeting was pretty well attended and considerable enthusiasm was manifested. Arrangements were made for a large torch light procession, to be held some time before the election.
The club already has a large enrollment, but we want it much larger. There will be another meeting of the club, next Tuesday evening, at the same place, and we want every Republican to attend who can possibly do so. Come and have your name enrolled and take an active interest in the campaign. Come and help us to get up the biggest Republican parade ever seen in Salisbury. Be sure to be with us at the next meeting and bring as many other Republicans with you as possible. Now is the time to work, and much depends on the attendance at the next meeting, so let every Republican turn out.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 3,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
