BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS. Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years, he intends to sell 300,000 more of his make, that means a business of $30,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

The Raving.

The Raving. Once upon a May-day dreary
She was working, weak and weary,
Down upon her marrows, mopping,
Mopping up the parlor floor.
While the mop went flapping, flapping,
Suddenly she heard a tapping.
As of some one gently rapping,
Rapping at the parlor door.
"Tis some visitor," she muttered,
"Tapping at the parlor door—
Gracious Peter, what a bore."

Up she jumped, and, nearly swearing.

Up she jumped, and, nearly swearing
Hastily began preparing
To appear as women wish to
When their callers look them o'er;
Yanked her apron off and slung it
Snatched her headgear off and flung it
Grabbed a doorman up and hung it
O'er the greasy gown she wore.
Then she found a plaguesy peddler
Standing at the parlor door—
Only that and nothing more.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. "One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up the gathering in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave her the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merit of this wonderful medicine." CHARLES A. THOMPSON, Des Moines, Iowa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

The Lightning Age.

What's the world a-coming to, a feller'd like to know.
When they're makin' tea to order an manufacturer's snow?
The cities—they're gone out o' sight; it 'pears jes' like a dream,
For when they have a cloudy night they run the stars by steam!

An here's the lightning, with a song, proclaimin' man is boss,
An all the street cars 'skimmin' long without a mule or horse!

An here's that ringin' telephone, which never seems to tire,
But takes a man's voice, free of charge, across six miles o' wire.

An here's the blessed phonygraf, which makes your memory vain,
An, like a woman, when you talk, keeps talkin' back again!

Lord! how the world is movin' on beneath the sun an' moon!

I can't help thinkin' I was born a hundred years too soon!

But when I go—praise be to God!—it won't be in the night,
For my grave will shine like glory in a bright electric light!

—Frank L. Stanton.

Many old soldiers, who contracted chronic diarrhoea while in service, have since been permanently cured of it by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Until Death.

Make me no vows of coontry, my friend,
To love me, though I die, the whole life long,
And love no other till thy days shall end—
Nay, it were rash and wrong.

It would not make me sleep more peacefully
That thou were wasting all thy life in woe
For my poor sake. What love thou hast for me
Bestow it ere I go!

Carve not upon a stone when I am dead
The praises which remorseful mourners give
To women's graves—a tardy recompense—
But speak them while I live.

Heap not the heavy marble on my head
To shut away the sunshine and the dew;
Let small blooms grow there, and let grasses wave,
And raindrops filter through.

Thou wilt meet many fairer and more gay
Than I; but trust me, thou can't never find
One who will love and serve thee night and day
With a more single mind.

Forget me when I die! The violets
Above my rest will blossom just as blue,
Nor miss thy tears—e'en Nature's self forgets—
But while I live, be true!

For lame back there is nothing better than to saturate a flannel cloth with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the affected parts. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The same treatment will cure rheumatism. For sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

The mother who permits her daughter to grow up into womanhood without teaching her the ordinary duties of house-keeping, is making a sad mistake. No matter if the daughter is never called upon to perform such labor, she only knows how to direct such matters when she knows how to do it. It is an accomplishment to any girl to be familiar with cooking, sewing and general housework. And then if the time comes when it is absolutely necessary to perform her own work, she will be prepared to do so. The task is to face such requirements while ignorant of the work. The great mistake many mothers make—and we see it every day—is the idleness in which they keep their daughters. Half of the unhappy homes to-day arise principally from ignorance of house-keeping. There is no blame for this state of affairs but the mothers themselves.—Ex.

The Allegany County (N. Y.) Publishers' Association has adopted three rules which are commended to publishers everywhere. They are, first, that five cents per line shall be charged for resolutions of respect, and for all local notices of entertainments from which a revenue is to be derived; second, that cards of thanks are to be charged for at the rate of $1; third, that ordinary obituary notices and lists of wedding presents be charged for at not less than five cents per line. The Steuben County (N. Y.) Press Association has passed resolutions somewhat similar, although it goes further, and has decided to charge five cents per line for all notices of fairs, horse shows, and other exhibitions of that character, provided they are not local. The Steuben association also agreed to classify caucus and convention calls as legal notices, and charge accordingly.

In our last issue we stated that Tom Jordan, proprietor of the Bald Eagle saloon, had to leave Montana for gouging Bill White's right eye out in a saloon row. Mr. Jordan called at the office next day and brought abundance of proof that he was mistaken. It was not with Bill White, but with Jim Davis, that he had a row, and it was not Davis' right eye, but his left, which was left sparkling in the sawdust after the fight was over. It has always been the policy of the Kicker to state facts and facts only. Being satisfied that we did Mr. Jordan an injustice in our statement, we hereby make the amende honorable, as the New York dailies call it. Mr. Jordan not only subscribed to the Kicker, paying a year in advance, but his attractive advertisement will be found under the head of "Saloons" on another page.—Arizona Kicker.

6TH HALF-YEARLY COMPETITION

The most interesting Contest ever offered by The Canadian Agriculturist.

One Thousand Dollars in Cash, a Pair of Hand-some Sheffield Plates, Carriage and Harness, and over two thousand other valuable prizes for the Agriculturists of the Dominion. Who will have them? According to the usual custom for many years past the proprietors of THE AGRICULTURIST have a office their Sixth Half-Yearly Literary Competition. This grand competition will, no doubt, be the most successful and successful one ever presented to the people of the United States and Canada.

One Thousand Dollars in cash will be paid to the person sending in the largest list of English words constructed from letters in the words "The Canadian Agriculturist."

Five Hundred Dollars in cash will be given to the second largest list. A Half-time Pair of Hand-some Carriage and Harness, will be given for the third largest list. Over one thousand additional prizes awarded in order of merit: One Grand Piano; $200 Organ; $500 Piano; Grand Sets; Ladies' Gold Watches; Silk Dress Patterns; Pure Tea Caddies; Silver Tea Services; Ten-year's Pianos, bound in cloth; Dickens in 12 volumes, bound in cloth, etc.

As there are more than 1000 prizes, any one who takes the trouble to prepare a "dictionary" list will not fail to receive a valuable prize. This is the largest thing in the competition list that has ever been offered before the public, and all who do not take part will miss an opportunity of a life time.

Rules.—1. A letter cannot be used oftener than it appears in the words "The Canadian Agriculturist." For instance, the word "egg" could not be used, as there is but one "g" in the three words. 2. Words having more than one definition, or more than one meaning, are not to be introduced or popular in general, into new homes, in extra parts of the American continent.

Every competitor receiving 50 cents in stamps extra, will receive free, by mail, one of THE AGRICULTURIST'S Beautiful Souvenir Report of Canada.

Prizes awarded in persons residing in the United States shall be shipped to their New York office free of duty. All money letters should be registered.
