LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Read Copland's new "ad" in this issue.

Skating, coasting and sleighing is the rage at present.

The Meyersdale opera house is now heated by steam.

Joe Hooker has another interesting article in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McDowell have been blessed with a young daughter.

R. M. Beachy orders THE STAR sent to Benjamin Schrock, at Aurora, W. Va.

Mrs. A. L. Gnagey, of Grantsville, was visiting friends in this town on Wednesday.

A. P. Benchy last week killed a spring pig that dressed 320 pounds. Who can beat that?

Dr. Scott, father of Mrs. President Harrison, died in the White House, Tuesday afternoon.

Wm. McKinley, Sr., father of Gov. McKinley, of Ohio, died on Thanksgiving day, aged 85 years.

Meyersdale now has a Chinese laundry in full operation. Wonder if the Commercial is the cause of it?

We acknowledge receipt of $1.00 from John T. Lee, of Arthur, Ill., to apply on subscription to THE STAR.

W. W. Grove, of Boynton, and Chancy Meese, of Elk Lick, order their names enrolled on our subscription list.

A special term of court will be held, in Somerset, beginning the second Monday in January, for the trial of civil cases.

San D. Glatofely last week killed a hog that dressed 567 pounds. That is the largest one yet reported for this season.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Catalogues write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Berkley, also Mr. Berkley's mother, of Meyersdale, came to Salisbury today to visit friends.

Harvey Farmer is now employed at the Montgomery house, in Chambersburg, and orders THE STAR sent to him at that place.

Now that winter is here, you will want a sleigh. Call on Beachy Bros. and examine their full line of the best manufactured.

It has been observed, that every paper-hanger, no matter how lucrative his business may seem to be, invariably goes to the wall.

John Murry, formerly of this vicinity, but now of Elk Garden, W. Va., was renewing old acquaintance in this place, last week.

Lyman Smith, of Bedford county, Pa., enjoys the distinction of being the swiftest telegraph operator in America. He can send 53 words in a minute.

Harvey Fogle shot a screech owl, Monday night, that was sitting on a tree in front of Herman Gardner's house. His owlship had a sparrow in his talons.

Remember that Salisbury is the best place in which to purchase your Christmas goods. Our stores will be piled from ceiling to floor with all manner of goodies.

Lambertsville, this county, is in a sad plight. There isn't one Democrat in the town, and as a consequence there is no postoffice fight. Poor old Lambertsville!

Mrs. Adam Fogle and Mrs. John Hartline, in company with Mrs. Herbst, of Ohio, who has been visiting here, went to Berlin, yesterday, to visit relatives in that town.

To the Herald and Commercial: The Democrats of this county do not need the advice of defunct would-be bosses. We believe they are capable of managing their own affairs.

The Meyersdale Democratic headquarters is now occupied by a Chinese Laundry. This doubtless forecasts the good old Chinese times that the Democrats will be apt to give us.

Miss Lydia Meager, came home from Southampton, the other day, in order to attend the County Teachers' Institute. Miss Meager is teaching a very successful term of school in Southampton.

If you have chapped hands, face, or rough or red skin, from any cause, use Stewart's Almond Cream. It will please you and bring quick relief. Only 10 and 25 cents a bottle. Sold by J. L. Barclus, of Mr. D. L. Stanton, of Grantsville, Md., spent an hour or so, last Saturday evening, at THE STAR office. Doug. is always in a merry mood and is one of those jovial sort of fellows that we always like to converse with.

A petition is circulating for a postoffice in West Salisbury, this county. If what it prays for is conceded by the department, two small salaried offices will be created, where one fairly paying one now exists.—Somerset Vedette.

The corpse that went through town, last week, enroute for Meyersdale, was that of Miss Maggie Hogan, of Confluence, who died of diphtheria. The deceased was buried in the Catholic cemetery. Her age was 17 years.

Dr. Speicher says he is under obligations to Simon Glatofely for a very fine fish from his fish pond. Simon has the "dandy" fish, and don't you forget it. The doctor enjoyed the gift very much and thanks Simon for his liberality.

Dr. Bruce Lichty, of Grantsville, spent a few minutes in conversation with the editor, at THE STAR office, last Sunday. The doctor has a good practice at Grantsville and reports everything serene and rosy in and about that enterprising town.

Miss Katie Smith, a young daughter of Stewart Smith, seems to be rather unfortunate. Not long ago she broke one of her thumbs, and Tuesday evening, while out coasting with some other children, had the misfortune to break a leg.

The shrewd business man will now prepare his Holiday advertisement. People have a habit of going to the heaviest advertisers to do their buying. The merchant who is close-fisted with the printer is usually close-fisted with his customers.

As usual, Jim Matheny wears the rabbit belt. Talk about killing rabbits! Why, Jim Matheny can kill more rabbits in one day than other fellows who think they are great rabbit hunters can kill in a month. We have money to bet on this.

P. S. Hay went to Baltimore, Monday morning, to buy his Christmas goods. As usual, he will have one of the finest Christmas displays to be seen in Somerset county, and the prices—well, they will be all right, and don't you forget it.

Dr. A. M. Lichty, of Salisbury, was among the Register's visitors this week. In reply to a question as to the general health of the community, he observed that it was uncomfortably good—from the physician's standpoint.—Meyersdale Register.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beachy start today for Carleton, Neb., where they will remain for some time. It is whispered around, however, that they will return and that Mr. Beachy will engage in the clothing, boot and shoe business in this town.

THE STAR hired an able reporter to report the Teachers' Institute, but we are sorry to inform our readers that his first article arrived too late to be published in this issue. The full and completed report will appear in these columns, next week.

Last Friday Miss Alpha Mitchell, of Hooversville, this county, had E. W. Bossert, of Johnstown, arrested for committing a criminal assault upon her person. The girl was residing with a friend in Johnstown when the crime was committed.

The Somerset Standard has it that our friend Johnson Purdy, the popular Frostburg barber, may sell out and locate in Somerset, where his brothers have just erected a handsome brick block and have the finest barber shop and bath rooms in this part of the state.

Hon. Louis E. McComas, the ablest representative Maryland ever had in Congress, has been appointed to an associate judgeship to the United States Supreme Court, by President Harrison. It is an honor well earned by Mr. McComas and he will fill the office creditably.

We are under obligations to the Berlin Record for the following compliment: "THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR has adorned itself with a new head containing a scintillating five-pointed star in the center. The new head lends to the appearance of what was already a very nearly gotten up paper."

Mr. Marks, of Frostburg, has made arrangements to put a stock of clothing into the Lowry building. He will be ready for business in a week or so. His success will depend on his stock of goods and his prices. There is a bonanza here for a good clothing store, but it must be one that can compete with Meyersdale.

It is said that Lou Brown, while out hunting, last week, had a desperate encounter with a wounded rabbit. The struggle was long and fierce, but Brown finally came out victorious. A rabbit is a dangerous thing to monkey with, and our big, good-natured colored friend is to be congratulated on not losing his life.

Monday F. B. Black, W. H. Dill and M. Carey, three of Meyersdale's best hunters, left for the wilds of West Virginia, equipped and armed with enough ammunition, rifles and shotguns, to do battle with an army of bears, catamounts, etc., for a few days hunt, after deer, turkeys, pheasant, quails and rabbits.—Commercial.

The Meyersdale Register has THIS STAR's thanks for the following kind and complimentary notice: "A new heading distinguishes Brother Livengood's paper this week. The text is smaller and neater than the old and it is adorned with a vignette of a five pointed star. May this particular STAR grow in brilliance as it grows in years."

Messrs. John, J. M. and W. F. Muddock, J. C. Duncan, Samuel Fox, Josiah Woy, E. B. McColly and S. F. Gill, are the incorporators of the Bare Rock R. R. Company, which has been built from the quarries of the Somerset Stone Company, to a point on the S. & C. R. R., near Millford station. Capital $25,000.—Somerset Vedette.

Samuel Garlitz, of Kansas, is visiting in this county at present. Mr. Garlitz was a former resident of this county and enlisted in the army with Ed Durst and others of this vicinity. After the war he went to Ohio, but for the past seven years has been a resident of Kansas. He was married to a sister of Mr. Durst, but his wife died some years ago.

SHARPTOWN, Md., Nov. 19.—John Masten and Mrs. Martin Wooley kissed and hugged each other in the town hall, before 500 people, Thursday night. This was the outcome of an election bet, between Masten and Mrs. Wooley's husband. Masten kissed and hugged each other, the women having made a similar wager.

Miss Hattie Stutzman, who for some time had been in Canada with her cousin, Mrs. Lucy Kade, has returned and is now at this place, with her uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Beachy. Miss Stutzman informs THE STAR that she had a pleasant visit in Canada, but says the people there are nearly all Democratic sympathizers, which did not suit her, politically.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has contracted with the Pullman Company for the construction of a large number of passenger coaches, to be used at first for World's Fair travel. These will be the equal of any coaches in use on any of the great railway lines in the United States, and will be greatly superior to most of the coaches in the regular service of any line.—Ex.

The Pennsylvania railroad management at an early date will test the system of lighting the tracks by electricity. The plan will be placed in operation between Philadelphia and Bryn Mawr, 20 miles out. If it proves a success the main line will be equipped with electric lights for the entire distance between Jersey City and Pittsburgh. The system may also be extended to the Western lines.—Ex.

Press dispatches say that Frederick C. Brant, a farmer living near Somerset, was recently arrested in Jersey City, whither he had gone to buy counterfeit money. A stranger there got $75 from Brant, for which he gave him nothing. However, the sharper finally handed Brant $20 to purchase a ticket to return home on, but before boarding the train, both men were arrested as suspicious characters.

We will now take time by the forelock and announce that Christmas will be the next holiday. The Meyersdale Commercial usually has a half column or so of important announcements of this kind, something that few editors think of, but we believe we have a scoop on the old man, this time. We are determined that the Commercial shall not always be the first to make these highly important and newsy announcements.

About 4 o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, a flock of ten or twelve wild turkeys was seen flying over town from the southwest. Several of them attempted to light on the belfry of the Disciples' church, but it was so icy, or they were so heavy, that they could not hold on, and flew away. The flock became scattered, and one or two of them were shot; one by Grant Yoder and one by Chas. Weimer.—Somerset Vedette.

Isalah Hoover, of near Garrett, was recently arrested on a charge of Sodomy. The information was made by Jonas Long, a neighbor of Hoovers. The charge was so far sustained that Hoover was bound over in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at the next session of court. If all reports are true, an arrest for a crime nearly as bad as Sodomy is liable to be made at any time in Salisbury. A certain man has had to buy a lock for his stable in order to protect his cow.

The following from the Elkins (W. Va.) Inter-Mountain, is a fair sample of the numerous compliments that are frequently showered upon this great moral and political headlight and the editor thereof: "Our friend 'Pete' Livengood is editor of THE SOMERSET COUNTY (PA.) STAR, which is one of the neatest printed and best all-round newspapers among our exchanges. He is a celebrated crack-shot with a rifle and we may add with the quill as well."

A great many of our subscribers have already voted on the obituary and resolutions of respect question, and up to the hour of going to press every vote received is in favor of the paper maintaining its present attitude toward that kind of matter. We want every one of our subscribers to vote on this question, and vote his sentiments, but the obituary side will have to rustle or be gloriously snowed under. Let every one vote before Jan. 1st, after which date the result will be made known.

Talk about newspaper rows! Down in Allegany county, Md., is where the boys of the quill make the fur fly at least 52 weeks in the year. The editor of the Lonaconing Star has just been jailed for criminal libel, but still there are enough of the editors out of jail to make things lively, and the scrap at Frostburg goes merrily on. "The uncaged curiosity of the Allegheny mountains," and other pet names that do not sound even as well as that are now being hurled at the Mining Journal by the Ledger.

They tell a good one on Gen. Mull. He brought a fine turkey to town last week, which he told the people was a wild one; but as the tips of the tail feathers were white, suspicion was aroused that the bird was a tame one, and it has since been learned that George bought the turkey from one of John J. Engle's boys, then shot it and brought it to town for a wild one.—The average sportsman would have shot it without paying for it, so there is more honor in Mr. Mull than in most hunters, anyway.

Wm. Doney is worthy of having his village near Boynton named after himself and the name should be Doneyville. He now has four buildings erected on his town site and is doing good work in building up the place. He is a very industrious man and a good citizen. Mr. Doney says it is not a joke that he intends to apply for the Boynton postoffice and move to his town, near by, and adds that while he is an uneducated man, it will be an easy matter to hire a competent clerk to run the office.

Geo. Hay is a great slayer of pheasants, but when it comes to rabbits, he isn't "in it." Last week George and his brog dog, Bob, went out on a rabbit chase, but came home footsore and glum, and never a bit of a rabbit did they catch. Jake Glatofely and Adam Fogle followed in their tracks and found a nice, fat rabbit in a hollow log, which George and his dog passed within a few feet and never saw it. Jake just pulled off his blouse, tied a sleeve shut at one end, held the other end against the log and bagged the game. That's a bad one on George and Bob.

A. L. Gnagey, of Grantsville, called at our sanctum on Monday, squared accounts with THE STAR and ordered his next paper sent to San Francisco. Mr. Gnagey recently failed in business, and since the failure a great deal of sensational talk is being indulged in. Mr. Gnagey informs us, however, that no matter what they say concerning his integrity, that he intends to do the square thing with all his creditors, which we believe he will do in course of time. In all the dealings THE STAR has ever had with him, we have always found him honest and upright. We feel sorry for his failure, for which we believe his excessive liberality is largely responsible.

The Somerset Democrat thinks THE STAR should get the opinion of its subscribers on using "patented" pages and plate matter. What's the matter with the Democrat getting the opinion of its subscribers on not using "patented" pages and plate matter? Out of the eight weekly papers in this county, the Herald and Democrat are the only ones that do not use either, and that is the reason that those two journals never have any state and telegraphic news worth mentioning, while the other county papers all have an abundance of that kind of news that is just as fresh as it can be given by any weekly, in the city or country. The Democrat should come in out of the wet and use "patented" pages also, for its readers, like those of other county papers, are mostly people who do not take daily papers.

Visitors to the World's Fair will have an opportunity to judge of the merits of some of the inventions of Tobias Hudson, a prisoner in the Maryland penitentiary. Hudson was convicted of horse stealing in Washington county, and has two years yet to serve. His being crippled makes it impossible for him to do the regular prison work, and he has perfected a number of inventions in his spare time. Three of these—a lock which is used in the prison, an electric lamp and an electric socket—have been patented for Hudson by Mr. Robert S. Wiesenfeld, who has also secured space at the Columbian Exposition for a display of Hudson's electric lamps, which will be entered in competition with the others on exhibition. Hudson says he has twenty-two inventions that he will patent from time to time, and he hopes to derive a revenue from them that will keep him in easy circumstances after his term expires. He asserts that he would not sell his electric socket patent for his liberty and $10,000.—Ex.

Sixteen years ago Adam Deitz left this county for Carrollton, Ill. After living there for some time he went to Iowa, where he became intimate with another man's wife. Shortly after, this man died—was poisoned, it was believed, and his wife and Deitz were charged with his murder. We have no further information concerning the woman, but Deitz was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of twenty years. He has been there 11 years, and the time is evidently bearing heavily upon him, as he has appealed to acquaintances in this

Did you ever use Copland's Horse and Cattle Powder? This is no ground up buckwheat hulls, such as is sometimes sold by hardware and grocery stores, but is composed of Fenugreek, Cream of Tartar, Gentian, Saltpetre, Anthony's Glycerine, Romaine, Cayenne Pepper, Gamboge, Coppers and Flaxseed. Made fresh every week, at only 30 cents, full pound. Copland's Horse and Cattle Powder is the best, 40 cents a pound. Made only by

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and you style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 3,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
