A GREAT GERMAN SCANDAL. The Great Army of the Kaiser Provided With Worthless Loewe Rifles.

Germany has a sensational scandal concerning the equipment of its great army. It appears that the Loewe Rifles, with which her 425,000 soldiers are armed, are worthless for actual service, and that some officers or officers-high in rank have betrayed the secret. There is likely to be an upheaval.

The whole thing came out in the trial Saturday of Rector Ahlwardt at Berlin, in the Reichstag. Ahlwardt, a member of the Reichstag, who was assigned to the Mosbitt criminal court on a charge of slandering Mr. Loewe, after having been indicted for the lack of veracity, Ahlwardt produced five official documents which proved to be reports made by colonels to their general advisers to the Loewe guns. These must have been stolen, probably by an officer, who, if found out, is liable to 10 years' penal servitude.

A Grity Chicago Woman. Mrs. Berzer, while cleaning her husband's sloop at Chicago, was suddenly confronted by three masked burglars. Similar apparitions have been numerous recently, and the gritty woman who had thought out beforehand what to do in such a case, quickly pulled a revolver and commenced shooting. One of the trio was wounded, but all escaped.

A Meteoric Stone. At New Castle, Cal., about 9 o'clock Thursday morning a stone, weighing probably 10 tons, fell from the sky, striking the earth a mile northeast of the town. It sunk deep into the earth and was in a heated condition when discovered. The stone is slate-colored and the people are convinced that it dropped from the much-talked-of comet.
