> The editor of the Somerset Standard imforms us that the price of his paper is $1.50 per annum, if paid in advance, and $2.00 per annum, if not paid in advance. He informs us that the Vedette was in error when it stated that the price of the Standard was reduced to $1.00 per annum. It seems that the Vedette is in error when it assumes that its birth and Chinese subscription price will have any effect upon the price of other county papers. Chinese competition never wins in the newspaper field.

Statler is one of our enterprising n. He has good business foresight and every investment he makes turns out well. He made a good investment when he bought the M. F. Smithfarm, and alao when he bought the Samuel Glotfelty tract of land fronting on Grant street. Besides the buildings already erected on the Glotfelty tract, Mr. Statler will erect two more dwellings thereon in the spring. two more dwellings thereon in the spring. One of them, we are informed, will be a handsome brick residence, which he will occupy himself. If we had a few more men in this town like Mr. Statler, we would soon have all the houses we need. Let the building go on, for the houses are

There are two newspapers in this county that do not publish resolutions of respect and lengthy oblituary notices free of charge. These two papers are The Soursest Coursy Stan and the Somerset Heraid. We do not know how it is with the Heraid, but the principal reason that The Sorts will contain, and which will common the paper, as we believe that the majority of our readers prefer to see our pages filled with live news and editorial matter in preference to dreary oblituary notices and resolutions of respect. We notice that some of our exchanges that print such matter fare of charge are so burdened with such matter fare of charge are so burdened with such matter are to make them present a very doleful appearance, something which we believe newspaper readers in general do not sanction. Or course we always make mention of deaths, etc., as a matter of news, but only so far as we believe the well-we have prepared the exclusive right to say or leave unsaid whatever we deem beat re lating to deaths, or of the life and character of the persons deceased. We believe we have the right view of it, but we are willing to let it to our patrons and do that which the greatest number of them destre in the matter. Therefore, we have prepared the following blank, which will be kept in the paper up to Jan. is, and which we desire every one of our patrons to cut from the paper, fill out and forward to The Stan.
