

THE SUNSHINE OF RELIGION

REV. DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON

Rejoicing the Child of the Most High Sheds Glory Into Human Hearts, Drives Away and Makes a Glad Pathway.

TEXT: "Her ways are ways of pleasantness."—Proverbs iii., 17. You have all heard of God's only begotten Son. Have you heard of God's daughter?

She was born in a lowly manger. She came down over the hills of our world. She had a babe's cry. On her brow was celestial radiance. Her voice was music. Her name is Religion. My text introduces her. "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

But what is religion? The fact is that theological study has had a different effect upon man from the effect sometimes produced. Every year I tear out another leaf from my theology until I have only three or four leaves left—in other words, a very brief and plain statement of Christian belief.

An aged Christian minister said: "When I was a young man, my mother died. I was only a child. She was thirty-five years of age, and I had only ten doctrines of religion, and I now am dying at seventy-five years, and that is only one-third of what she knew."

There are many in this house this morning who are disposed to hold on to their melancholy gloom. They are in the gloom, but they are in the gloom of the gloom. They are in the gloom of the gloom. They are in the gloom of the gloom. They are in the gloom of the gloom.

I do not know of anything more doleful than the companionship of a man who is a pessimist. Thomas Hood, the Charles Lamb, the Charles Matthews of the world—the men whose entire business it is to make soap of the gloom.

There is a terrible reaction from all sinfulness and sinful merriment. Such men are the next day. They snap at you on exchange, and you snap at them. You long ago quit mere worldly society for the reason it was so dull, so insane and so stupid.

AFTER all the talk about flutes, coronets and Greek parts, and so on over it, I will state a fact that the girl to whom the bang is distinctly becoming is always well-behaved, as one always has been, a very pretty kind of girl.

The woman with long heavy hair had better cut the lengths off. Shoulder length is the most convenient. It knots on the top easily and is easy to keep curled and clean. Then, too, you are much more apt to have nice heavy hair when you get old, and need a few charms to help you to live.

There are many who wear bangs, and no side bang at all. We who wear bangs may congratulate ourselves that the present vogue is such and all examples of the bang are such. If your hair is very thick, fringe. Curve it down in the center, for now the bang is over cut convex.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON FOR SUNDAY, FEB. 12

"Nehemiah's Prayer." Neh. i., 1-11. Gold. Text: Psalm xxx., 10. Commentary.

1. "The words of Nehemiah, the son of Hachabiah." Nehemiah (comforted of Jehovah) was one of the Jewish captives selected by Artaxerxes, the Persian monarch, to fill the offices of cupbearer. He was in Jerusalem about thirteen years after Ezra was governor of Judea, remaining about twelve years, and then returning to Artaxerxes, and he was again to Jerusalem and ruled there for another twenty-two years, B. C. 445-423.

2. "At that time when the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and who were come unto Jerusalem, I thought upon me." Nehemiah was a great patriot, courage, humanity and earnest devotion to God and to His service. One of the most interesting things in the book is the edict to rebuild the city (chapter ii., 5, 8, from which begins Dante's seventh canto).

New Styles of Dressing That are Coming Into Vogue. Illustrations Which Point the Moral.

AFTER all the talk about flutes, coronets and Greek parts, and so on over it, I will state a fact that the girl to whom the bang is distinctly becoming is always well-behaved, as one always has been, a very pretty kind of girl.

The woman with long heavy hair had better cut the lengths off. Shoulder length is the most convenient. It knots on the top easily and is easy to keep curled and clean. Then, too, you are much more apt to have nice heavy hair when you get old, and need a few charms to help you to live.

There are many who wear bangs, and no side bang at all. We who wear bangs may congratulate ourselves that the present vogue is such and all examples of the bang are such. If your hair is very thick, fringe.

NATIONAL DEBT STATEMENT.

Amount of Gold in the Treasury Less Than For Many Years.

The net gold in the national treasury January 31, as shown by the debt statement issued at Washington, was $108,181,713, the lowest figure reached in many years. This amount includes the $100,000,000 gold reserve. In the month of January there was a net increase of the public debt of $3,105,800. The non-interest-bearing debt was decreased $722,290, the interest-bearing debt showed an increase of $580, while the net cash was $3,877,520 less than at the close of the year 1892.

Certificates and treasury notes offset by equal amount of cash in treasury, $907,498, aggregate debt, including certificates and treasury notes, $1,571,301,615. The balance in the treasury, including the $100,000,000 gold reserve, was $125,288,983. The statement of receipts and disbursements for the month show that the payments made by the treasury exceeded its income by over $1,000,000.

Amber Is Scarce, and Nobody Cares. Genuine amber is becoming scarce every year, and it will not be long before a real amber choker or holder or pipe-smoker's will be a rarity, and a luxury. The true amber is a fossil gum, which was produced in large quantities by trees having a resinous sap, which flowed down the trunks and gathered in masses at the roots. It is found in the ground of marshes and other places, and is also secured by dredging. The Baltic and Black Seas and the German Ocean formerly produced it in considerable quantities, but their supplies are now pretty much exhausted. There is a little stock on hand, however, knowing that the imitation amber is just as good as the real.

Fullman's Gift to Chicago. George M. Fullman will build and endow a home and school for destitute children on the site of the Old Hyde Park Hotel at Chicago. It is to be a model institution and bear the name of its founder.

Great Britain leads in the number of foreign vessels arriving at New York for the month of January, with a total of 180. America comes next, with 78, and Germany third, with 34.

Rev. T. E. Irvine, a Niagara Falls evangelist, was expelled from the Baker street Methodist mission, Baltimore, for denouncing church fairs.

James Bordley, of Chester, lost his life in a strange manner at the Wellman Iron and Steel Works. The company has an apparatus for loading coal into cars through chutes. Bordley was on top of a 100-ton pile of coal, and when the chute was opened he was sucked into the chute and seventy tons of coal covered him over. Twenty men worked for an hour to move the coal pile, but when Bordley's body was recovered life was extinct.—Philadelphia Times.

The Age of Turtles. The age of turtles, like the age of some excellent wren, will never be known. In many parts of the country boys cut their initials on the shell of the tortoise, with the date, and then watch for them in later years. At Hattboro, in Pennsylvania, one was found with L. W., 1833, cut on the shell. Mr. Levi Walton, who cut the lettering, is still living, but the slow going turtle will probably outdo him in the race of life.—Mechanics Monthly.
