THE SENATE SPECIAL SESSION.

THE SENATE SPECIAL SESSION.

THE CARINET CONFIRMED.

The Senate was in session Monday for only 35 minutes, but within that brief period it received a message from the President, submitting for confirmation the names of the members of his Cabinet, went into executivession, passed upon and confirmed the first of the appointments, directed a notification of its action to be communicated to the President, came again into open cased to the President, and a resolution offered by Mr. Call, Democrat, of Florda, in reference of railroad companies with Senatorial elections, and had a joint resolution introduced by Mr. Sherman, Republican, of Ohio, proposing an amendment to the Constitution.

The amendment proposed is to fix the time for the beginning and termination of the term of office of President and Vice President and Congress, at noon on April 30. The change is to go into effect in 1897, and to continue thereafter. Mr. Sherman's joint resolution was laid on the table at his request, he signifying his intention to have it referred hereafter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Then the Senate adjourned until Thursday.

"Huusapay."—The Senate special session reconvened to-day. The president sent the following nominations to the senate:

Josiah Quincy, of Massachusetts, to be assistant secretary of State,

Robert A. Maxwell of New York, to be fourth assistant promaster-general.

The senate discussed to-day for nearly an hour the question as to the reception at the present extraordinary session of any business of a legislative character.

The feature of the day's proceeding was the presentation in executive session of the president's message withdrawing the Hawaiian treaty.

The first starier of the discussion was a joint resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell Republican, Oregon, to amend the Constitution so as to provide for the election off United States starters by the votes of the qualified electors of the States. The next was by Mr. Dolph calling upon the president of the United States to take such measures as he may deen necessary to consummate the agreement between the government of Spain and the United States.

No discussion ensued upon the merits of the Tenature of the United States, and the merits of the resolutions themselves, but only over the matter of considering them at all. Celebrated Washington's Birthday in Style. Six Big Warships at Anchor in Honolulu Harbor.

The past week has witnessed scenes of entausiasm in Honolulu, with a display of the stars and stripes probably more general than at time in Hawaiians history. The arrival of the steamship China from San Francisco on February 20, followed by that of the Australia on February 22, brought intelligence that caused great satisfaction to the provisional government and the American party in the islands.

On the first named date when it became known that President Harrison and his cabinet had decided upon a favorable course in regard to the disposition of the Islands, excited throngs rathered about the mail dock, the postoffice and the news stands, and discussed the information received.

The prompt action of the administration in the matter was warmly commended by Americans, irrespective of party affihations, as well as by many of the German residents and of the mover, was nothing like that of February 22, when the Australia brought news that the message of President Harrison, providing for a treaty of annexation of the islands might be a part of the islands might be a part of the limits had gone to the senate, and that as far as the American government was concerned the islands might be a part of the United States when the Australia arrived.
