prisoners and all the guns and supplies were surrendered to the Union forces. This was the first great Union victory, and opened up the way to still greater achievements of the Union army, and sent a thrill of joy throughout the entire North and made Gen. Grant the hero of the hour. E. T. Lee, in National Tribune.

The First Great Union Victory of the War for the Union.

This Man Was a Tinker.

Speaking of the remarkable feats of marine engineers, the Marine Journal recails the achievement of Richard Peck, who at one time had charge of the single engine of the old city of Vera Cruz coming up from Havana. South of Hatteras the piston rod went to smash, breaking into three pieces. But Peck, after twenty-four hours of continuous labor, actually mended that piston so that it was strong and true enought to do its acros and other southern begin to the Boston Journal, quite eclipses exist the Union army accessed the Tennessee and Comberland the Union army accessed to the historic fields of Shiloh, Nashville, and other Southern begin to the Union at this time. Gen. Grant had been placed in command at Cairo and had urged Gen. Halleck to let him and Commander Foote undertake the reduction of Forts Henry and Donelson on the Tennessee and Cumberland fivers. Halleck did not approve of the plans, and Commodore Foote also urged him to allow the movement to be made. Finally consent was given, and on Feb. 2. 1862, the movement began.

There was 17,000 infantry and cavalry and the gunboats. The river was very high a

An Awful Method of Revenge.

A miner named Boehm purposely exploded 10 pounds of dynamite in an iron mine in the Herz district, Germany. He and six other miners were torn to atoms. His motive is supposed to have been revenge, as he had had trouble recently with the superintendent of the mine and was constantly quarreling with his iellow workmen.

Sleeping Cars on Cheap Tickets.

The passenger agents of the trunk lines and their connections to Chicago have decided that tickets for the World's Fair sold as a discount of 20 per cent. would not deprive holders of any right in sleeping or parlor cars.
