March 25th, beginning at 2 p. m., Samuel C. Livengood's lot sale will take place. Five town lots in Salisbury borough.

ALL THE YEAR ROUND. The greatest success hitherto attained in the Magazine field must be accorded to the Cosmopolitan, jumping as it has from 16,000 copies in 1889 to an edition of 150,000 copies for January, 1893. That there is cause for this success goes without saying. No other publication, of any description, before the public makes the effort to give its readers the best of everything, and succeeds in doing it as does this monthly. Its illustrations lead the world; its literary merit is certainly of the highest order that money can buy or brains produce. Each month, from year's end to year's end, can be found in side its covers something to instruct and side its covers something to instruct and side its covers something to instruct and inside its covers something to instruct and side its covers something to an expectation, so the side its in this place lately and I made a great it with Chamberlain's Colic. This we are able to do through a special contract nade in behalf of our readers with the Magazine publishers. The price of the Cosmopolitan alone is $3.00, at which price it is the cheapest of monthlies, giving as it does 1536 pages of reading matter, with over 1200 illustrations for a single year's subscription.
