VOLUME II.

SALISBURY, ELK LICK POSTOFFICE, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1893.

NUMBER 19.

Established 1852.
P. S. HAY,
 -DEALER IN-GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

The pioneer and leading general store in Salisbury for nearly a half century.
 For this Columbian year, 1893, special efforts will be made for a largely increased trade. Unremitting and active in anticipating the wants of the people, my stock will be replenished from time to time and found complete, and sold at prices as low as possible, consistent with a reasonable business profit. Thanking you for past favors, and soliciting your very valued patronage, I remain yours truly,
P. S. HAY,
Salisbury, Pa., Jan. 2d, 1893.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.
 The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease CONSUMPTION, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS and all throat and lung MALADIES. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address,
REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Brooklyn, New York.

TOPICS AND COMMENT.
 If talk will keep the cholera away, the country is safe; but it is just as well to do a little cleaning up, just for appearance sake.
 If Blalop Perry is right in his assertion that we owe nothing to Columbus, what an awful lot of trouble we are taking for nothing.

ACCORDING to Spanish writers, the cost of discovering America was only about $7,500. Bargains such as that was are seldom put on sale.
 THERE is one consolation for the Georgia Majors at present sojourning in Washington. The man who loses his hat cannot talk through it.
 WITH potatoes a half-dollar each and tobacco $16 a plug, it is not to be wondered at that miners are hard to get even at $10 a day, in Alaska.

"ONE million old-fashioned mothers are wanted," says a prominent preacher. Aren't old-fashioned fathers wanted just in exactly the same proportion?
 THE spring elections indicate—well, we are not certain what, except that the way of the transgressor is hard, particularly if he voted the wrong ticket.

If the fellows who write the financial articles would always follow the statement "money is easy," with "to get rid of," they would hit the bullseye of truth.
 JUDGE SPEER holds that corporations are just as amenable to the law as are labor unions. This may be startling to the corporations, but it will strike most people as correct.

THERE have been more lynchings than legal hangings, for murder, in the United States during the last ten years. Perhaps if the last were not so infrequent the first would not be so frequent.

It is always claimed by those who go into trusts that prices are not to be advanced, and just as regularly prices of trust-controlled articles are advanced. It is about time the people get up a credulity trust.

The Earl of Craven, the latest English nobleman to marry an American heiress, is said to be tattooed from his neck to his ankles. Perhaps he intends exhibiting himself for a living, after he has spent all of his wife's money.

THE locked-out printers of a Paris newspaper lynched the foreman, who had been instrumental in bringing about the trouble. Over here they would have started an opposition paper, which is peaceable, if not always profitable.

If the killing of two men by a Kansas bridegroom shall put an end to the barbaric custom, prevalent in some sections, of giving newly wedded couples a tin pan sirenade, the death of the two unfortunates will have served a good purpose.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND recently wrote for the New York Press Club Souvenir Book, to be sold at the club's fair. "The people must be educated, for the people rule." Wonder if he did not softly say to himself as he signed his name, "I am the people!"

THE only female locomotive engineer in the world, Miss Ida Hewitt of Cairo, W. Va., will run the first train over the World's Fair grounds at the opening of the exposition. This fair throatter of the iron horse is said to be a pretty girl of the pronounced brunette type, as modest and maidenly as one could wish to meet. She has had an elaborate and unique wardrobe prepared for her use at the fair and she will be one of the attractive features of the big show.—Ex.

THE famous old Liberty Bell, of Independence Hall, Philadelphia, which proclaimed liberty in 1776, will be taken to Chicago over the P. R. R., leaving Philadelphia on April 23rd and stopping briefly at all principal stations along the road. A nickel-plated fence of 18 posts, supported by 44 rails, will surround the esteemed relic, which will be in a special car, guarded by four policemen who will remain with it all the time, in relays, while absent from Philadelphia.
