TOPICS AND COMMENT.

THOSE AMERICANS WHO BELIEVE IN THE GOD-GIVEN RIGHTS OF CLASSES, MAY SAFELY BE CLASSED AS ASSSES.

The change of politics in the U. S. Senate did not interfere with the summer trips of committees.

RECIPROCIITY doesn't seem to stand very well with the present administration, which is said to be preparing to shelve it.

THE public should be thankful that the newspaper competitions for free tickets to the World's Fair have about all closed.

IT is very human to measure other people's grain in your own bushel measure. Miss Susan B. Anthony says marriage is declining.

WHEN a man qualifies a statement by saying that it is bound to come sooner or later, it is usually safe to count on his thinking that it will be later.

IF a royal crown is to be put on those World's Fair silver souvenir quarters, they would better be disposed of in Europe, where crowns are more popular than over here.

SENATOR HANSBROUGH, of North Dakota, says: "If the money brokers continue their operations in gold, by the time Congress meets there will be votes enough to pass a free coinage bill over Cleveland's veto."

THE dear old ladies of the U. S. Supreme Court must not be blamed for refusing to attend the naval review, because a steamer was not placed at their sole disposal. They couldn't be expected to take their new spring robes, all crinolined, into a crowd composed of such common people as Congressmen and newspaper men.

PROF. PRITTS, Principal of the Somerset schools, is a candidate for County Superintendent. He will likely be the only opponent Prof. Berkey will have. Mr. Pritts is said to be a most excellent man for the office, and if all reports are true, he should be elected by a big majority. It is poor policy to keep one man in office too long.

THE first of the international congresses to be held in connection with the World's Fair will be that of the women, which will meet May 15. The rumor that the stenographers had made a demand for double pay for reporting the proceedings of this congress had no foundation. It doubtless originated with some men who had been rejected by a dozen women.

ALTHOUGH we occasionally have a little spit with the Somerset Vedette, we do not wish it understood that we have any bad feeling toward that paper. The fact of the matter is, newspaper men do not always mean just everything they say about each other. The Vedette is one of our most welcome exchanges, not on account of the bad breaks it makes sometimes, but because of the timely suggestions and remarks it makes at other times.

The following, which we clip from its columns, is sensible and to the point. We heartily endorse every word of it:

A stranger in town several weeks ago, passing the Court house park, noticed a structure composed of a lot of timbers, levers, wheels, etc., that stands at the northwest corner of the Capitol building of the county, and asked whether that was the scaffold on which the Neclyns had been executed. Many other persons have puzzled their wits to know what this strange structure is. A little examination will show that it is a patent farm gate. But what is a patent farm gate doing in the public grounds that belong to the people of the county? Who has "pull" enough on the County Commissioners to get the use of these grounds for advertising a private enterprise, and disturbing what ought to be a bond some like public park? We are ashamed to say that our investigation resulted in the discovery that this hideous red structure belongs to one of the Commissioners of the county, and that while he is drawing his salary, he is making the county furnish him ground on which to advertise his gate!

JUDGE BRUBAKER, of Lancaster county, Pa., has instituted an inquiry and appointed a committee of prominent attorneys to investigate the truth as to allegations that the county officials are charging exorbitant fees beyond the proper allowance by law. Assertions have been made by some prominent attorneys of the Somerset bar, and frequent allegations are made by tax payers, that the county officials of Somerset county have been grossly violating, in like manner, by overcharging for official services, fees, etc. Would it not be well for Judge

Longenecker to appoint a like committee of prominent attorneys of the Bedford and Somerset county bars to investigate the conduct of these officials, and if the practices alleged are practiced be true, proceed to prosecute the offenders to the full extent of the law?—Berlin Record.

You bet it would, Bro. Marshall; let the investigation be made. We are finding no fault with any of our county officers, for we know but little concerning their conduct; but we would like to see an investigation made in order to see whether there is any ground for complaint. If the county officers are doing their duty, an investigation will do no harm; if they are not doing what is right, an investigation will remedy the evil.

A FUNNY postmaster recently sent to the Postoffice Department a new set of postoffice rules. They were:

A pair of onions will go for two cents. Ink bottles must be corked when sent by mail.

Persons are compelled to lick their own postage stamps and envelopes, the postmaster cannot be compelled to do this.

Persons are earnestly requested not to send postal cards with money orders inclosed, as large sums are lost in that way.

Nitro-glycerine must be forwarded at the risk of the sender. If it should blow up in the postmaster's hand he cannot be held responsible.

When letters are received bearing no direction, the persons for whom they are intended will please signify the fact to the postmaster that they may at once be forwarded.

As all postmasters are expert linguists, the address may be written in Chinese or Choctaw.

It is unsafe to mail apple or fruit trees with the fruit on them.

It is earnestly requested that lovers writing to their girls will please confine their gushing rhapsodies to the inside of the envelope.

Ducks cannot be sent through the mail when alive. The quacking would disturb the slumbers of the clerks on the postal cars.

When watches are sent through the mail, if the sender will put a notice on the outside, the postmaster will wind and keep in running order.

John Smith gets his mail from 673,269 post-offices, hence a letter directed to John Smith, United States, will reach him.

When you send a money order in a letter, always write full and explicit directions in the same letter, so that any person getting the letter can draw the money.

Alligators over ten feet in length are not allowed to be transmitted by mail.

The placing of stamps upside down on letters is prohibited. Several postmasters have recently been seriously injured while trying to stand on their heads to cancel stamps placed in this manner.

READ THIS! COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.
SITTING.

ITS PRESIDENT TO THE PEOPLE.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The following address to the public has been issued by President Higginbotham:

Because of many misrepresentations and misstatements relative to Exposition management and affairs being in circulation through the press and otherwise, both in this country and abroad, and in reply to many letters of inquiry or complaint touching the same matters, it seems advisable that some official statement regarding them should be made to the public. Therefore, I respectfully ask that the widest publicity be given to the following facts:

1. The Exposition will be open in readiness for visitors, May 1.

2. An abundance of drinking water, the best supplied to any great city in the world, will be provided free to all. The report that a charge would be made for drinking water probably arose from the fact that Hygenia water can also be had by those who desire it at one cent a glass.

3. Ample provision for seating will be made without charge.

4. About 1500 toilet rooms and closets will be located at convenient points in the buildings and about the grounds, and they will be absolutely free to the public. This is as large a number in proportion to the estimated attendance as has ever been provided in any exposition. In addition to these, there will also be nearly an equal number of lavatories and toilet rooms of a costly and handsome character, as exhibits, for the use of which a charge of 5 cents will be made.

5. The admission fee of 50 cents will entitle the visitor to see and enter all the Exposition buildings, inspect the exhibits, and, in short, to see everything within the Exposition grounds, except the Esplanade village and the reproduction of the Colorado cliff dwellings. For these, as well as for the special attractions on Midway Plaisance, a small fee will be charged.

6. Imposition or extortion of any description will not be tolerated.

7. Free medical and emergency hospital service is provided on the grounds by the Exposition management.

8. The Bureau of Public Comfort will provide commodious free waiting rooms, including spacious ladies' parlors and toilet rooms, in various parts of the grounds.
