CORRESPONDENCE.

Weather is very unpleasant.

THE STAR enters the house like a letter from home.

Jerry J. Shoemaker has taken a five-dollar job from Jonas Boyd. Hope he will make a success of it.

A. J. Folk has cleared about thirty acres of land and has given it to farm on shares, to Norman Christner, the well known buckwheat farmer, who raised, two years ago, 450 bushels. He expects 800 bushels this year. Norman is a hustler at plowing new-ground. Give him a steady team and a strong plow, and he will make the roots fly.

Jonas Boyd has now taken a lay-off from turning the crank of Holliday's engine. He is now dabbling the cracks shut in his house.

We understand that our home physician is going to protect his last year's corn crop by putting lightning rods on his crib to keep lightning from striking it; also by propping it with locust posts to keep the storm from blowing it over. We are also informed that he is going to have his house furnished with electric lights.

Norman Christner has erected a luggy shed. The sides and floor are made with the finest pine boards that can be gotten, and the roof is the best slate roof in this vicinity.

It's Joel Staubangi's delight to be in company with members of the fair sex, and it is supposed that he will in the near future take out himself a better half.

That is right, Joel, let everybody know that you have the girl.

Albert Peck has for the last year been in the peacock business, but recently sold out to his brother Charles. Albert is now running the farm for his father and is pushing things along very rapidly.

April 24th, 1893. UNCLE JOE.

ITEMS FROM SAVAGE BY ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

The weather is very blustery.

An indictment for fishing out of season, took place last week. Jerry Shoemaker was plaintiff; Simon Livengood, defendant. The case was given a hearing on Saturday, April 22nd, before Squire McMillen, at Listonburg. Mr. Shoemaker had the best two lawyers in the county, viz: Davis and Christner. The trial is postponed until May 1st. Mr. Shoemaker gave bail for the costs. Lawyer Christner says he is going to handle this case to his own heart's content. Davis is quiet about it, but he seems familiar with the fish laws. That is right, Will, keep quiet; you will gain the case. Mr. Shoemaker says the fish business must be whetted up right, and he expects $200 out of this case. Jerry was out fox-hunting, last Sunday, (so it is said) so that he will have money enough to pay the costs. He says: "By gosh! when Lawyer Christner opened his law book it made him tremble until the pegs in his boots rattled." He says it starts the chills on a man. I glory in your spunk, Jerry. HARRY COLUMBUS.

Speech Restored.

For five years I suffered with pain and discharge of the throat, hacking cough, frontal headache, weak eyes, &c., at times; could not talk above a whisper; lost weight continually, and not able to work. I was treated by the best physicians in the county, but received no relief. After giving up all hopes I was recommended to use a bottle of Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure. After using it for four weeks my speech returned. All symptoms of Catarrh have disappeared and I feel like a different person."

Mrs. ELIAS HANDWERK.

Elk Lick, Somerset Co., Pa.

The above is one of the many testimonials we have received this week, and we will publish every two weeks additional persons having been cured by our marvelous medicine. Try a bottle and be cured at once.

Boynton.

Jesse Livengood will move into the old school house, it is said.

C. M. May makes frequent visits to Meyersdale, lately. What is the unusual attraction, Charley?

Eld. Silas Hoover and family moved to a place near Somerset, last week.

C. L. Walker will move into the house that Eld. Hoover vacated.

Ross Holler and family spent several days at Hyndman, with Mrs. H.'s parents.

Jere Rihnhart shook the Boynton dust off his feet and took up his abode at Coal Run.

Wm. Doney is building an addition to his mansion, which will greatly improve it.

Miss Cora Grove is attending the Salisbury normal school.

April 24th, 1893. NOW AND THEN.

Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure is the only medicine used by vapor inhalation, and is guaranteed by your druggist.

Confucius.

The Salisbury cornet band gave one of its fine entertainments, in City hall, Saturday evening, the 15th inst. The entertainment was indeed a very good one, and all seemed to be well pleased. Some of the pieces were rendered exquisitely fine. The entire program was well executed. The band deserves much credit for the manner in which it performed its work. Prof. Beals did some very good singing. Upon the whole it was a success beyond expectation. The boys made many friends among the people here, and they would be welcomed back. Prof. Beals knows how to advance a band; besides, he knows how to conduct an entertainment. Welcome, boys! Dick.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

The Return of the Georgian.

Atlanta Constitution.

"Hello, Colonel, just back from Washington?"

"Oh, yes."

"Did you get an office?"

"No, not exactly."

"Didn't you get anything at all?"

"That's what! I got drunk seven times, got fined twice in the police court, and got strapped! I'm en route home in a side door sleeper."

"What's that?"

"A box-car!"

For years the editor of the Burlington Junction (Mo.) Post has been subject to cramp colic or fits of indigestion, which prostrated him for several hours and unfitted him for business for two or three days. For the past year he has been using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy whenever occasion required, and it has invariably given him prompt relief. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Costly Eye Troubles.

"Eye troubles cost a heap of money, George."

"Yes, I should say they did. Last year my wife was struck in the eye with the tip of a coachman's whip, and it cost me $5 to pay the doctor's bill."

"That's nothing to my experience."

"How so?"

"Why, two weeks ago I was walking past a jeweler's shop with my wife, when a diamond bracelet in the window struck her eye, and it cost me $25 to pay the jeweler's bill."

For a number of years I have been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism, which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore most cheerfully recommend it to those who are similarly afflicted, everywhere.—R. D. WHITLEY, Martindale, N. C., Feb., 1888. Mr. Whitley is a very prominent man in this place and his disease was very widely known, as he suffered such severe pain. W. M. HOUTROX & Co., Merchants, Martindale, N. C. 50 cent bottles for sale by Copland, the druggist, Meyersdale, Pa.

Denies the Allegation.

Irwin Standard.

Some newspaper wag got off a good joke about an Irwin man coming home drunk, and his wife trying to scare him by donning a hideous disguise and saying she was the devil, when the husband knocked her silly by saying: "All right, old fellow, I'm married to your sister."

Now that is a confounded libel on your town. We do not have a man in the place who gets in that condition, nor a woman who could be compared to the sister of the evil one. It must have occurred at Jeannette or Latrobe.

ELIGIBLE.

An Application Which is Bound to Find Favor With the President.

HON. GROVER CLEVELAND.

High Boss, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR:—I respectfully beg hereby to inform you that—

First, I oppose your election with all my might.

Second, I am not a relative of yours—thanks to a noble line of ancestry.

Third, I held no position of honor or trust under your previous administration.

As the above facts constitute all the qualifications requisite for an appointment under your present ruling, and as my thorough competency as above outlined may draw "the lightning" in this direction, I hasten to notify you that I am not a candidate for any office now at your disposal, and that under no circumstances or conditions, known or unknown, would I accept the same.

GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

THE BIG LIMITED

BEST LINE TO THE WEST

Superb Dining Car Service

1852 — 1892.

As long as time as David reigned, so long has the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway run trains westward from Chicago.

The Rock Island is foremost in adopting any advantage calculated to improve speed and give that luxury, safety and comfort that popular patronage demands. Its equipment is thoroughly complete with vestibuled trains, magnificent dining cars, sleepers and chair coaches, all the most elegant, and of recently improved patterns.

Faithful and capable management, and polite, honest service from employees are important items. They are a double duty—to the Company and to travelers—and it is sometimes a task difficult of accomplishment. Passengers on this line will find little cause for complaint on that ground.

The importance of this line can be better understood if a short lesson in geography be now recited.

What is the great Eastern terminus of the Rock Island Route?—Chicago. What other sub-Eastern terminal has it?—Peoria. To what important points does it run trains to the Northwest?—St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Waterbury and Sioux Falls, Dakota. To what important Iowa and Nebraska points?—Des Moines, Davenport, Iowa; Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska.

Does it touch other Missouri River points?—Yes; St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth and Kansas City. Does it run trains to the foothills of the Rocky Mountains?—Yes; to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, solid vestibuled from Chicago. Can important cities of Kansas be reached by the Rock Island Route?—Yes; its capital city, Topeka, and a full hundred others in all directions in the State, and it is the only road running to and into the new lands opened for settlement in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Reservations.

It will thus be seen that a line tapping, as the Rock Island does, such a varied territory, has much in that regard to commend it to travelers, as all connections are sure on the Rock Island, and passengers can rely on a speedy journey, as over a bulk of the system through trains are run, and it has become, and rightly too, the popular line.

A very popular train on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway leaves Chicago, daily, at 10 p. m. It is called "The Big Five," is only one day out, and passengers arrive at Denver, Pueblo or Colorado Springs early the second morning.

The Rock Island has become a popular Colorado Line, and the train above referred to is vestibuled and carries the Rock Island's excellent Dining Car Service.
