LOCAL AND GENERAL.

New Baltimore is said to have a literary society with over 70 members.

We regret to learn that County Supt. Berkeley is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

The Hoffman & Da Lou Comedy Co. has been re-enforced this week by several good actors.

Genial Fred Anspach, of Philadelphia, is in this vicinity, this week, looking after his mineral interests.

The annual session of the Somerset Classis of the Reformed church will convene at Berlin, Thursday, May 4th.

Charles Berkeley, of Paint township, this county, was recently arrested in Bedford county, on numerous charges of forgery.

P. A. Johns has taken possession of the Merchants' hotel, in Rockwood, and our genial friend Buckman has retired from business.

Miss Ella L. Ballett, one of Salisbury's most popular young ladies, is at Milton, Pa., taking a special course in book-keeping and short hand.

Charles Vanevar, of the Park hotel, of Somerset, will erect a new three-story brick hotel on the site formerly occupied by the Glade house. He proposes to make it the finest hotel in the county.

There hasn't been a day since THE STAR was established that we have had no job printing to do. Everybody seems to know that THE STAR office is headquarters for artistic work at reasonable prices.

The fifty new coal cars of the Chapman-Hocking Coal Co. are expected this week. Should these prove inadequate to handle the traffic the number will be increased to one hundred.—Meyersdale Register.

The McShane Bell Foundry, of Baltimore, is preparing drawings for the largest bell on the American continent. It will be named "The Great Bell of America," and will weigh 44,000 pounds, 1,000 for each state of the Union.

Father McDonald, the Catholic priest at New Baltimore, this county, has a cow that recently gave birth to triplets. The same cow had twins, last year. That cow should be dressed in the richest silk and fed upon the best of hay.

Sneak thieves last Thursday evening entered D. R. Sheppard's barber shop, in Meyersdale, and took all the contents of the till, amounting to $21.10. We hope Davie will find out who they are and make it very warm for them.

Whatever else may be said of the Somerset Vedette, it cannot be accused of cowardice. It speaks right out in meetings and is not afraid to express its opinions. That's a quality that we admire in any paper or individual, friend or foe.

The Markleton Sanitarium is looking up. The directors have just decided to bond the corporation to the amount of $33,000 for needed improvements. Major Washington, treasurer of the B. O., has been elected a director.—Somerset Vedette.

Efforts are being made to secure a pardon for "Squire" Cummins, who is serving out a 10-year sentence in the penitentiary for setting fire to the Glade house, in Somerset. It is believed by many that Cummins is innocent of the crime.

Senator Critchfield has been endorsed by the members of the Senate for appointment to a judgeship in the Bureau of Awards of the World's Columbian Exposition. The Senator is also being urged as a candidate for State Treasurer.—Berlin Record.

Several of the county papers have it that the infant son of Peter S. and Annie Hay, of Salisbury, died April 14th, at the age of five weeks. The only Peter S. Hay we have here has been a widower for the past six years or more. The child meant was that of Peter S. and Annie Maust.

The Pottery Company at Hooversville has broken ground for its plant. They have one large building, 30 by 80 feet, and will erect another for the machinery. The engine and presses were purchased at Erie. They expect to be in operation in a couple months, we are told.—Somerset Vedette.

A terrible accident happened, last week, in the Shoo Fly mines, at Garrett. A young man by the name of Saylor was blown almost into eternity, by the explosion of a keg of powder. The unfortunate lad was terribly burned about the face and body and is in a critical condition. However, it is believed that he will recover.

Harry Kifer, the gentlemanly young representative of Chas. H. Fisher's book store, of Somerset, was in town on business this week. Mr. Fisher is one of the most reliable and trustworthy business men of Somerset county, and in Mr. Kifer he has a representative that is very popular and one with whom it is a great pleasure to do business.

Daniel Shoupe, who is now serving time in jail at Uniontown for non-payment of costs, has an interesting history. He served as a soldier during the whole of the War of the Rebellion, and was one of the men who acted as death-watch over Mrs. Suratt for three days before she was executed. He sprang the trap that hurled her into eternity.—Ex.

Married, Friday evening April 21st, by Rev. J. H. Enlow, at his residence in Grantsville, Md., Mr. Harry Hoffman to Miss Emma Livezey. The contracting parties both belong to the Hoffman & Da Lou Comedy Co., the company that for the past week has been giving some good entertainments in this town. THE STAR extends its most hearty congratulations to the newly wedded couple.

A few days ago Squire Garlitz handed us an old legal document that was given under the hand and seal of Hiram Findlay, in 1842. Mr. Findlay at that time was a justice of the peace in Greenville township. The old document presents a very time worn appearance, and by referring to it one can see how they used to jail a man to satisfy a debt. Mr. Garlitz has many old relics in his possession, some of which he values highly.

Salisbury's new hotel, the Valley house has been completely fitted for the proper entertainment of guests. Its landlord, Henry Loechel, who was recently granted a license by the court to retail liquor, has spared neither effort nor expense in making his home all that could be desired in the way of a place of public entertainment, and his patrons will no doubt put him on the shoulder in approval.—Somerset Standard.

A Meyersdale printer recently became the possessor of a whole new suit of clothes. A good many people at once accused the poor fellow of stealing it. The Register, however, comes to his rescue and attempts to show that he came by it honestly. Well, we hope he did, but we have been in the "profess" long enough to know that there is always room for suspicion when you see a printer with a $5 bill or a new suit of clothes.

An exchange tells a story of two young men who had a wager that they would prevail on a clergyman to drink until he became intoxicated. He agreed to drink with them, and to their undisguised joy announced that he would drink like a beast. Imagine their surprise when he fulfilled his promise by taking nothing but water and of that only a moderate quantity. He said a beast not only drinks water, but he knows when to stop drinking.

A Johnstown paper thinks the development of the coal fields traversed by the Somerset & Cambria branch will result in the double-tracking of that road and the opening up of a vast coke traffic. The same paper adds: "There is every indication that petroleum exists in these districts. Years ago a well was sunk in one of these districts; traces of it yet may be found a distance of several thousand feet below, and it is claimed that the drill passed through a rich vein of copper, salt and large veins of coal."

Simon Glotfelty, one of Greenville's substantial citizens, spent Saturday in the metropolis. Simon and the editor of the Register were schoolmates along about the '60, when the late Wilson C. Hicks wielded the birch in the old Spruce-dahl school house. His visit was a pleasant reminder of a period that was full of hard knocks and some genuine pleasures. The appearance of a good many gray hairs in our old friend's head is a forcible reminder that time is the best sprinter on the turf.—Meyersdale Register.

Samuel Glotfelty, one of our oldest citizens, died last Sunday, after a long siege of sickness and suffering. The funeral took place on Tuesday. Mr. Glotfelty was nearly 85 years old. His life was truly one of industry and usefulness. He was kind-hearted, honest, peaceable, quiet and in every respect a model Christian. He has well earned a reward in the next world. May he rest in peace. He was the father of Mrs. O. W. Boyer, Mrs. M. Hay and Miss Harriet Glotfelty, who have the sympathy of the community.

Dr. W. J. Craigen, of Cumberland, who gained an unenviable notoriety a year ago, by cutting the stitches in a wound because the injured man could not pay, has been smarting under the newspaper criticisms ever since, and on Tuesday last assaulted Col. Averitt, of the Times, on the street, with a heavy cane. Spectators interfered, but not until Averitt was injured to such an extent as to require the attentions of a surgeon. The assault is said to have been a most cowardly one, and Craigen will undoubtedly pay for his folly.—Ex.

Within the next 30 days five or six powerful, swift and handsome new passenger locomotives will be added to the equipment of the Baltimore & Ohio's Pittsburg division. They will come direct from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, at Philadelphia, and will be used in hauling through trains. They will be duplicates of the powerful machines used on the Baltimore and Philadelphia divisions, and will weigh about 114,000 pounds each, exclusive of the tender. They will cost not less than $10,000 each. With the inauguration of its next schedule, the Baltimore & Ohio through trains will run over the Pittsburg division, and the new engines will lead them.

The publishing of the long list of wedding presents is not "a rigger" or "a nigger," as we say it in French, but some people still have a vulgar and unhealthy desire to see the inventory in print. This style of listing gifts of all sorts, a la vendue bill, was in the mind of an exchange when it gave the following: From father and mother of bride, one Jersey calf; from bride to groom, one hair wreath made from hair of the entire family, and also six white shirts; from brother Elias, one book of poems, one dream book, one polite letter writer and a dog; from Aunt Harriet, six hens and a rooster, also a jar of tomato catsup; from Cousin Sarah, one poem made by herself on the bride and bridegroom, 15 verses in all.—Somerset Herald.

We are glad to note that the people of Confluence are manifesting such a good feeling toward our band. That is what we like to see, and we are sorry that so much unpleasantness grew out of the Berlin band contest, last year. It all grew out of certain things that were alleged to have been said by some of the Confluence band boys while on their way to Berlin. But we believe now that some unreliable information was given us at that time and we are all willing here to bury the hatchet. Life is too short to harbor grudges against our neighbors, and we say, let harmony prevail. Should the Confluence band ever make our town a visit, THE STAR and the Salisbury band will guarantee them the most courteous of treatment. In behalf of our band, we thank the Confluence people and their band most heartily for their kind expressions of good will.

A good many of our citizens are up in arms, because some of the bills announcing the shows to be given by the Hoffman & Da Lou Comedy Co., for the benefit of our band, were printed in Meyersdale. Some of them argue that if the band wants to be kept up by the people here, that the boys should get all their printing done here. In justice to the band boys, we wish to state that they had nothing to do with the printing referred to. Don't stay away from the show on that account, because the show people had all the printing done and they gave THE STAR all of it that we cared for. We had plenty of other work on hand that there was more money in for us, and we couldn't very well do all the printing they wanted done here without delaying more valuable orders that we had on file ahead of theirs. Attend the show, because it will be very good, and besides that, you can in that way help the band along.

Great is Lou Smith on writing obituaries. In that of Samuel Folk he had the old gentleman born in 1810, yet only gave his age as 75 years. We fail to understand how that could be. In Samuel Glotfelty's obituary, the Commercial named the wife of the deceased as one of the mourning relatives. How could that be, when his wife died several years ago? It is said that Smith has a large box of ready-written obituaries, and that when anybody dies, the office devil is blind-folded and then compelled to thrust his hand in the box and make a draw. Smith then fills the name in the document drawn and "lets her go Gallagher" hit, miss or go crazy. The Commercial should waken up and print something true, once in a while, just for luck.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of Stomach, Liver or Kidneys.—It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by A. F. Speicher Drug-gist.

Horrible Railroad Wreck Near Somerset.

On Tuesday evening a terrible wreck occurred on the Bar-ock railroad, a short stub road near Somerset, running from the S. & C. branch to the quarries of the Somerset Stone Co. The road is about two miles long and ascends the hill to the quarries at a grade of about 150 feet to the mile. The wreck occurred while the train was making the downward trip, the engine being unable to control the train. It dashed down the hill at a frightful speed and collided with several cars of rock at the bottom. Three persons were killed outright, viz: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pile and daughter, who had been at the quarry and were invited by Engineer Jacob Neff to ride down the grade in the cab of the engine. Russell Neff, a young son of the engineer, was scalded so severely that he died in terrible agony shortly after the accident happened. One or two of the quarry hands, Italians, are also reported to have died since from injuries received. A half dozen or more of the quarry hands who were on the ill-fated train were severely injured, and it is believed that several of them at least can not recover. Engineer Neff was badly scalded and bruised, but it is said that he will recover.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction, every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Sold by A. F. Speicher Drug-gist.

RATES.

Monday at 10:15 a. m. we received an order from Messrs. Hoffman and Da Lou to print 500 posters—sixes—assorted colors, and send up by non-electric at noon. The bills were for the benefit of the Salisbury Cornet Band. At 11:30 the package came down stairs for delivery. There is a pointer in this for our friends in "eye and work, prompt delivery, entire satisfaction and low rates." See—Meyersdale Register.

Yes, it meets their views—in a horn. The printers here care not where the Hoffman & Da Lou Comedy Co. get their printing done. There are lots of instances when a printer is money ahead by letting certain orders be filled by such little insignificant blacksmith shops as the Commercial is. But Bro. Smith would have it appear that Salisbury is just worshipping him and that the band here had something to do with the job of blacksmith work he did for Hoffman & Da Lou. But the printers here know better. Our erring brother wanted to locate here shortly before THE STAR was established, but the people wouldn't bite at his bait; they knew him too well. Now, since some of the citizens in Meyersdale purchased a little "Jim Crow" outfit and leased it to him, he imagines that he has the greatest printing establishment in the world. But he hasn't; all he can do is blacksmith work and send a thing around through the country to run down printers. But as he can't hurt anybody, anyway, and as THE STAR keeps right on gaining patronage in the very heart of the Commercial's own territory, it is of no use to pay much attention to the braggadocio. Lou Smith always was given to blowing about his prosperous business, but what is his business record? Well, he prospered a la crawfish and dwindled down from a good steam printing plant of his own to a little one-horse blacksmith shop that is owned by other people. The Register office is the only first-class printing office that Meyersdale has, and it is owned by a printer, too. But let the Commercial blow, for it is all it can do.

Gravel Hill.

Mr. Editor, it seems to me that "Gravel Hill" is about the most important part of Salisbury borough, and for that reason I think an occasional news budget from this thriving corner of the city would not be amiss. The fact is, nearly all of the prominent people of the borough reside here, and we believe that the public is much interested in our doings, so I send you the following personals:

Copland's 10-cent Condition Powder is equally adopted for Horses, Cows, Hogs and Poultry. A teaspoonful night and morning to a horse will give him an appetite and a smooth coat. A teaspoonful spoonful night and morning to a Cow will make her give more and richer milk. A teaspoonful in soft food, to each ten Fowls, will prevent sickness and produce eggs. This excellent powder is composed only of Flaxseed Meal, Capsicum, Foinucreek Soda, Gentian Root, Coppars, Saltpetre, Antimony, Sulphur, Epsom Salts, Licorice and Alum.

Floral Guide.

For 1893 we have combined a most novel and charming feature in the way of hundreds of beautiful and appropriate poetical quotations from the best authors, making THE Poets' Number of VICK'S Floral Guide a source of interest and pleasure the whole year. The practical part contains Colored Plates of Alpine Aster, Begonia, Dahlias, Dutchman's Pipe, Clematis, Pansies, Carnas, Corn and Pottedoses, hundreds of Engravings: descriptions of the sweetest and most precious flowers of the season, and a new Chrysanthemum, and scores of other grand and good things. Names and prices of everything one could desire in way of Flowers, Vegetables, Plants, Bulbs, etc.

Sent for only 10 cents, which can be deducted from the first order, thus it costs nothing. Cash prices.
