Don't Forget This.

Watch the man that wants to sell you goods or Marble at 40 per cent. below price. He must have something in view in the future to catch up to a living price; so watch him and his work, and then you will place your orders with the old, reliable firm of J. B. Williams, Frostburg, Md., for first-class work.

S. F. WILSON,
Salesman for J. B. Williams.

Read This. Don't Spend Your Money Foolishly.

Buy your Monuments and Tombstones from the man that does his own work, and not from the man that sits in his office and has to pay large wages and pay his agents fifty dollars a month to sell his work. You are the one that has to pay for all that. Don't forget this. Buy from Geo. W. Grose & Co. They do their own work and will save you money.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We are glad to see Geo. K. Walker out again.

Somerfield has taken steps to become a borough.

WANTED! To borrow $500 on good mortgage security. Enquire at STAR office.

Mrs. J. W. Beachy and M. C. Berkley went west, last week, with J. D. Livengood.

Samuel Fox, a prominent citizen of Somerset township, died last Friday night.

Mrs. J. W. Boyer, an aged and respected lady of Accident, Md., died recently.

P. S. Hay is having a very fine stable erected. Israel Schrock is the architect and builder.

Dick Newman has just completed a very handsome new picket fence in front of his residence.

The photograph gallery that Dr. Speicher is rigging up for Mr. Conrad, will be the finest in the county.

A hog was marketed in Somerset, last week, that weighed 740 pounds. Hard to beat and too fat to eat.

Louis Harvey, of Cumberland, and Mrs. Bell, of Meyersdale, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sheppard, this week.

The devil loves a church member who sponges his preaching, but pays full price for his cigars and tobacco.—EX.

The Wm. M. Brown tracts of land in West Salisbury, were recently bought by Peter S. Hay, at sheriff's sale, for $650.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has just ordered 100 new passenger engines to be built at its shops in Altoona.

It is reported that Frank John, of Meyersdale, is a candidate for the office of Collector of Internal Revenue of this district.

Mr. Lint, an aged citizen of Meyersdale, died a few days ago. He was about 86 years old, being the oldest citizen of that town.

Keep Memorial day uppermost in your mind. Get all your friends to turn out and assist in the exercises in Salisbury on that day.

James Winter is carrying his arm in a sling, on account of having it broken, recently, by a fall of slate, while working in the mines.

Mr. Samuel Philson has sold his Excelsior Mills, at Philson's station, to Charles Raupach, of Glencoe, terms and price private.—Berlin Record.

A large building for a clothing store will be erected in Salisbury, this summer, and as soon as the building is completed it will be filled with an immense stock.

LOST! Between P. S. Hay's corner and residence of Mrs. Geo. Robison, a silver thimble. Finder will confer a favor by leaving same at THE STAR office.

Jesse Cook, Sr., of Northampton township, died last week at an advanced age. He was an uncle of C. T. Hay. Mr. Hay and part of his family attended the funeral.

Mrs. Samuel Kretzman is the newly appointed postmistress at Keim P. O., Elk Lick township. She is a lady of intelligence and is well suited for the position.

Supt. Cutter, of the Pittsburg division of the B. & O., recently informed one of our citizens that the Salisbury branch will have regular passenger service in the near future. Amen!

Urias D. Yoder, the noted hog raiser, says he has one hog that has a litter of seventeen pigs, sixteen of which are very fine ones. This is the largest pig family we have ever heard of.

Leonard Kurtz and Chas. Wegman, of Grantsville, are in Salisbury, this week, putting a slate roof on Mrs. Broadwater's new house. These two young men are experts at their business.

John H. Getty, the W. Va. Cen. Ry. agent at Westport, has been promoted to the important agency of that company at Davis, W. Va., and will take charge on June 1st.—Oakland Democrat.

With thanks we acknowledge receipt of an invitation from the trustees and faculty of the Pennsylvania State College to be present at the commencement exercises to be held there, June 11th to 14th.

The Salisbury STAR man says he has been fishing and brought in twenty fine trout, but he didn't say how much he paid the little bare-footed boy with the pin-hook who caught them.—Somerset Vedette.

The Somerset Herald is authority for it that J. M. Berkey has received documents from the department of Public Instruction, notifying him of his election to the office of County Supt. of Public Schools.

W. J. Purdy, who has long been one of the most popular barbers in western Maryland, has moved to Somerset, where he will manipulate the razor in the future. Glad to get Purdy back to our county again.

John E. Gnagey, of Accident, sent us a spear of orchard grass 29 1/2 inches long and a spear of clover 20 inches long, pulled from his lot. He wants to know whether any one in the county can beat this at the present date.—Oakland Republican.

In the case of the Hocking Coal Company vs. S. M. Hamilton, the finding of H. L. Baer, Esq., Referee, was confirmed, and the Prothonotary was directed to enter judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $5,287.51, with interest thereon from April 2nd, 1892.

We have been shown a fine new guitar made by Clarence Livengood, and we must say that Clarence knows how to make a guitar as well as to play one. He is good at both. The fact is, he is rather handy in many things that are a great credit to him.

Mrs. S. C. Keim and daughter and Mrs. S. A. Beachy and daughter went west, last Friday. They will visit the German Baptist annual meeting at Muncie, Ind., also other western places. Mrs. Keim and daughter will remain in Indiana several months, we are informed.

Berlin has a thief that has for some time been stealing everything he can get his hands on. The latest theft he committed was stealing a quarter of veal from Will Fogle. Better move back to Salisbury again, Will, where moth and rust do not corrupt, nor thieves break through and steal veal.

A colored lad, Lawson Brown, gained access to the house of August Rosenberger, Sunday evening last, when the family were absent at church, and stole some clothing, trinkets, sugar, tea and meat. He was arrested on Monday and taken before Justice Cook, who sent him up for trial.—Commercial.

The colored people of Meyersdale had a huge ball and banquet, Monday evening. Many of their friends from other towns joined in the sport and festivities, and a grand time is reported. The colored people of Meyersdale have the reputation of getting up the best conducted balls given in the county.

We call attention to the political announcements of M. H. Hartzell for Sheriff and John S. Shafer for Register and Recorder, both of which appear in this issue. Mr. Hartzell and Mr. Shafer are both very popular, honorable and competent men, and both stand a good show of being elected. Both are deserving and worthy men.

We call special attention to the advertisement of the Henry Bill Publishing Co., which appears in this issue. This company publishes the only authorized biography of James G. Blaine. It is published by the authority of the Blaine family. Those wishing the genuine Blaine book can get it only from this company or its agents.

W. J. Davis, Norman B. Christner, Harvey S. Tressler and L. L. Folk went to a rattle-snake den, on Ascension day, and killed nine rattlers. They heard about 100 more in the rocks, but could not get at them. This den is about 2 1/2 miles from the residence of J. N. Davis, and we are told by one of the snake hunters that by visiting the place earlier in the season, one can often see coils of rattle-snakes as large as a man's body.

John Vogel's ghost case, which has been in court for several years, has at last been decided. It will be remembered that Vogel and another young man, while teaching school in Allegheny township, played ghost and frightened Miss Josie Shafer, daughter of M. P. Shafer, a former resident of this town. Suit was brought against the boys for $2,000 damages, it being alleged that Miss Shafer's health was impaired by the fright. The case was decided in favor of the defendants and of course they are happy.

For some time past several of our correspondents have been using Jonas Boyd's name pretty freely and getting off a good many jokes at his expense. Mr. Boyd objects to having his name used in that way, and the said correspondents will please keep quiet about him hereafter. While nothing has been published that would in any way be an injury to Mr. Boyd, we nevertheless do not want his name to appear in any correspondence whatever, even if it has only been used in a few harmless jokes. We aim to publish nothing that will give offense to anyone, and as we stated last week, we will publish nothing that we have reason to believe will incur any person's ill will.

On Monday afternoon Dr. W. H. Gardner, of New Centerville, met with an accident from which he fortunately escaped without very serious injury. He was driving in his buggy on a professional trip and was about to cross the railroad at the west end of Rockwood, when a train came dashing along. The Doctor's ponies became frightened, and making a sudden turn upset the buggy, throwing him and a gentleman who was with him out. The Doctor was dragged about ten rods and he received some ugly cuts about the face. The sudden turning of the team averted a horrible accident, as otherwise the train would probably have struck the buggy and killed its occupants.—Somerset Standard.

The other day a STAR reporter overheard the following conversation between two Irishmen: "Moike, what do ye think is the best ting at the Wurruld's Fair?" "Bejabbers," said Mike, "I should judge it's that Pader whasky we reads so dishful much in the newspapers about; but it must be mighty fine if it bates that auld Shamrock brand of whasky we had in the auld country." "Oh, you jabberin' fool, what are ye after talkin' about; don't you know that Paderwaski is the great Rooshun piano player?" "The great Rooshun—the devil! Who ever heard of a brand of whasky that could play a piano? It's devil the brand of whasky that I ever knew that could play anything but the devil." And Mike walked away disgusted at his friends' ignorance.

A Literary Sensation.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has certainly "broke loose!" The copyright on this most famous of American novels, by Mrs. Stowe, has recently expired, which frees its publication from the monopoly of the high-priced publishers, and though in anticipation of this fact they have within a few months greatly reduced its price, now that it is really "unshackled" the consequences are something surprising. John B. Alden, Publisher, of New York, issues several editions, selling them only direct (not through agents or book sellers); one in good type, paper covers, for 5 cents, sent post-paid, or the same bound in cloth for 10 cents, with postage 7 cents extra; also an excellent large-type edition, on fine paper, handsomely bound in cloth for the price of 25 cents, postage 10 cents. Surely a copy of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will soon be found in every home where it is not already. Mr. Alden sends a 32-page pamphlet describing many of his publications free, or a catalogue of 128 pages of choice books, a veritable "literary gold mine" for book-lovers, for 2 cents. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 37 Rose St., New York.
