SOME BUSINESS TROUBLES.

State and Savings Institutions Suffer Most. National Banks All Right. No Cause for General Alarm.

A dispatch from Chicago says.—That the seeming panic that has seized the savings banks is entirely without cause or foundation.

The Chicago savings banks, have made no mistake it is that of being to generous and too prompt in paying depositors on demand.

The Grant locomotive works made a voluntary assignment Tuesday. The assignees, Messrs. Ackerman & Wilson, have taken charge of the extensive plant of the company.

On April 30, 1893, the assets of the company were $1,151,023 and liabilities $1,101,850.

The cause of the company's embarrassment is that it has invested all of its capital stock in its plant. The company has been injured by the strike going on at its works for the past three months.

During the time when the run on the Illinois Trust and Savings bank was most severe, Mr. Armour sent out some clerks to bring into his office a hundred or more of the most excited depositors.

Mr. Armour met a short speech, telling them that they stood in no danger of losing any of their money.

Two women said they would like their money, one of them having over $1,300 in the bank. They were immediately paid in gold and the balance of the depositors went away satisfied.

THE OLD TICKET CHOSEN.

Ohio Republican Stand By the Victors of Two Years Ago.

The Ohio State Republican Convention met at Columbus, on Thursday, renominated the old ticket and adopted a platform by acclamation, heard the issues defined by Governor McKinley, and then adjourned.

Following is the ticket: Governor—William McKinley. Lieutenant Governor—Col. Andrew Harris. State Treasurer—William K. Cope.

Attorney General—John K. Richards. Supreme Judge—Joseph P. Bradley. Member Board Public Works—Frank J. McCaulloch.

Food and Dairy Commissioner—Dr. F. B. McNeil. The convention was harmonious throughout.

An eagle was adopted as the party emblem to be placed at the head of the ballots. During the session the Duke of Veragua entered by side door and was shown to a box decorated with Spanish flags.

The National Democratic Administration has done nothing thus far, except to create a party of its own.

The financial situation which for the most part has prevailed since the 4th of March, has not been improved, nor has the financial situation of the country improved.

The Democratic victory of 1892 has not been able to bring the better times promised. It has not been able to maintain the good times which it had commenced in this country on the day of the victory.

Business failures have increased, banks have suspended, money is harder to borrow, and the general feeling of the country is one of depression.

War is to be waged upon the pensioners of the country. No honest man will object to the reduction of the roll of all who are unworthy there.

The platform adopted includes the principles of the Minneapolis convention, the administration of President Harrison and Governor McKinley's previous business sessions of the State Legislature and says:

"We favor the policy of full and adequate reparation to American labor and industries which has been the result of the McKinley act. We cordially declare our adhesion to the doctrine of that great measure, and favor such amendments there to for protection as, time and experience may show to be advisable.

"We adhere to the Republican policy of granting pensions to the wounded and disabled Union soldiers and sailors of the late war, and the widows and orphans of such soldiers and sailors.

"We favor the policy of full and adequate reparation to American labor and industries which has been the result of the McKinley act. We cordially declare our adhesion to the doctrine of that great measure, and favor such amendments there to for protection as, time and experience may show to be advisable.

PENNSYLVANIA'S PROHIBITION TICKET.

H. T. Ames Named for Supreme Judge and James Kent For State Treasurer.

The Prohibition State Convention which met at Harrisburg, Pa., to nominate candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court and State Treasurer was a marked success.

The Credential Committee reported 325 delegates present. The convention recognized in its organization the young element in selecting a Temporary Chairman, Lee Grubb, of Lebanon, who informed his hearers on opening his duties that the success of the Prohibition party could only come through its representatives elected to controlling positions in the Government.

He declared that the late State legislature was the creation of Senator Quay, and that such men as he were made possible by the power exerted by the saloon element, Tammany Hall got its power by the same influence.

The daily press was subjected to adverse criticism because, in his opinion, it had failed to array itself against the liquor traffic. "There isn't a man," he added "from Grover Cleveland down, who dares to lift his voice against the license system." Mr. Grubbine was vigorously applauded.

W. A. Stewart, of Cambria, was made chairman of the Committee on Credentials; E. D. Nichols, of Erie, was elected permanent organization, and W. W. Hague, of Warren, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions.

Dr. Samuel Dagg, of Philadelphia, who was chosen permanent chairman, referred with evident gratification to the comparatively large vote cast for prohibitionists at the last presidential election.

On the list of vice presidents of the convention were placed many old and active workers in the prohibition cause, including James Black and H. D. Patton, of Lancaster; Dr. C. Irish, Lawrence, W. W. Hague, Warren; Agib Ricketts, Luzerne, and A. A. Stevens, of Luzerne.

The Resolutions were about to be read by the Rev. Mr. Viven, of Philadelphia, suggested that the platform be made as brief as possible. He said it might receive recognition in the daily press.

This proposition took with the convention, which refused to table a resolution to instruct the Committee on Resolutions to condense its work, and adopted a proposition to delegate Viven to inform the committee of the desire of the convention for a short platform.

Chairman Patton gladdened the hearts of the delegates by telling them that the changes in the ballot law would benefit the prohibition party.

About $1,500 was subscribed of the $3,000 wanted for campaign purposes. Mr. Bennett, who is known as the "Kansas Cyclone," amused his hearers by stating that Harrisburg was the only city in which he had seen the Rogues Gallery, meaning the pictures of members of the Legislature, displayed in a business man's window.

H. T. Ames, of Williamsport, was nominated for Supreme Court Judge, and James Kent, of Delaware county, for State Treasurer.
