COMMENT.
 The Somerset Herald and Somerset Democrat give 1,533 votes to Mr. Barnett's total and 1,388 to Mr. Fogle's total; but we find by adding the vote of each election district as published in those papers that Barnett's total vote is but 1,513 and Mr. Fogle's 1,385. We therefore give the correct returns, which show that Fogle was beaten by 128 votes instead of 165, as stated by the Herald and Democrat. But the defeat is still too large as it is. Mr. Fogle was treated very badly by his party, and there is a general feeling of indignation all over the south of the county. For years Adam Fogle has been one of the most influential and hard-working Republicans in the south of the county, and besides that, he is a man of fine qualifications and good business judgment. Moreover, he is a good citizen and an honorable man. He went out of the southern election districts with an overwhelming majority, but as is the case with all candidates from this part of the county, he was slaughtered in the north. But 'twas ever thus, and the south can never gain its just dues until the people here unite, lay politics aside and run some good men independent. The south of the county has far a greater population than the north, but politically it is not so one-sided. Therefore, we ought to lay politics aside in order to get our just dues.

The north pays far more taxes than the south, but the north gets the offices and the improvements. No wonder Mr. Fogle is being urged by Republicans, Democrats and everybody else in the south of the county to run independent. Should he comply with the wishes of the people and announce himself as an independent candidate, he will be elected by a sweeping majority. There is a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and when a man is slandered and lied about as Mr. Fogle was by some of his northern opponents who were running for the same nomination, we believe it is time to call a halt. Mr. Fogle's home vote shows what kind of a man he is. There were ten Fogle votes thrown out in Elk Lick township and four in Salisbury borough. This was owing to the fact that the voters of those fourteen tickets voted for three Commissioners instead of two. Could those have been counted, Fogle would have received nearly every vote in his two home districts. But some of the northern candidates fearing that the south might get part of its dues by electing a Commissioner, spread the news all over the north of the county that Fogle is a noted drunkard. Such lies, together with the trading process, accomplished his defeat where he was not known. However, his home vote is all the vindication he needs to prove that the reports circulated were lies.

Outside of Commissioner we have little to say. Part of the result suits us and part does not; but Fogle's defeat was accomplished by tactics that any political party ought to discountenance and be ashamed of. We hope enough people will prevail on him to induce him to come out independent. If he does so, he will be elected, and don't you forget it.

THE British battleship, Camperdown, ought to have its name changed to "knock-em-down."

DIGNITY, like a "hand-me-down" coat, does not set well upon every individual who tries to wear it.

MR. CLEVELAND is finding fat to be even more troublesome than the office-seekers, and harder to get rid of.

A RECENT newspaper cablegram was headed, "Mr. Bayard sees the queen." It is to be hoped that he had the best hand.

"COME, join me in paying my taxes," is the present South Carolina style of asking a man to take a little "poison" into his system.

A PRAYING band has come over from London to convert Bob Ingersoll. If they will make effort in public, 'twill be worth seeing.

ONE Alabama man has refused a $2,000 Federal office. He hasn't had a monument erected to him yet, but he ought to have, and it should be a big one, too.

THE present administration, is reported to be opposed to negligence shirts. Well, that will make it hotter for the administration and will not hurt the shirts.

Up to date Europe is drawing more Americans than the World's Fair is Europeans. This isn't pleasing, nor is it what was expected; but there's no use whimpering about it.

THE canals of the country will experience a boom if the project of propelling canal boats by the trolley electric system can be successfully worked, and it is believed that it can be.

HAD Emperor William been slower in appealing to his people he might now be less sorry. He would better hire Bismarck again; it is dangerous for some men to try to do their own thinking.

GREAT is Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital service! Extract what happiness you can out of his latest official utterance—"We have an even chance of escaping the cholera." Just suppose the chance was odd.

THE number of people who say they always favored opening the World's Fair on Sunday is surprisingly large. Whether this is the influence of the court decision or merely the desire to be on the winning side is not for us to say.

"DON'T lock up your cash," is the substance of the composite opinion of the country's press, and it's good advice. Keep your money in circulation; if you can't find anything better to do with it, pay your newspaper subscription. Then it will be certain not to get locked up.

WHERE will the increasing anarchy and toadism stop? The other day Mr. Cleveland bought a summer suit of clothes and a straw hat, and straightway full descriptions of those seasonable and necessary articles were telegraphed all over the country, and perhaps to Europe.

It may now fairly be assumed that Mayor Carter Harrison has entered the Presidential field; he has begun to kiss the school girls who visit the World's Fair. This is rather ticklish campaigning. A man is liable to get himself filled with lead for mistaking some fellow's best girl for a school miss.

If President Cleveland were not afraid of congress and congress were not afraid of the coinage and tariff questions, and the business interests of the country were not afraid of both President Cleveland and his Democratic congress, there would be no financial stringency or business depression in the United States at the present time. Probably the best way of restoring confidence will be to roll up rousing Republican majorities in all the state elections, next fall.—St Joseph Herald.

At the opening of the World's Fair, on Sunday, the booth of the National Temperance Association was veiled and a card displayed announcing: "Closed on the Lord's day." Seeing this, a citizen wrote the following on a scrap of paper and pinned it below the card: "All days are the Lord's days. Only the hypocritical and narrow-minded, who do wickedly on other days, distinguish one day as the Lord's. If you have anything truly good, truly beautiful, truly religious to exhibit, why conceal and cover it from God's people, who are all men and mostly poor, who have to work six days every week?"

ON few subjects is there more nonsense talked than on love. A girl begins life with a dose of unattached affection. Some one asks her to marry him, on which she concentrates this affection on him. If some one else had asked her, the concentration would have taken place on the some one else. Having become betrothed, she considers she is in that peculiar condition which is called being in love. The best guarantee, however, for a happy marriage is not so much being in love as a certain fitness of things and a reasonable liking between the contracting parties. If both are pleasant in their relations to each other, the mere fact of living together and having identical interests, develops affection. I know that this view of matrimony is contrary to the ideas accredited in novels. It is, however, true. In France where marriages are generally arranged between two families, they turn out well; better in fact, as a rule, than in English love matches.—Ex.
