LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Who said "Danny" Horner is a dead duck?
Services in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Dr. Brallier, of Berlin, is visiting in this vicinity.

Gee whiz! Didn't "Danny" and Saylor get there, though?

Horace Livengood, of Elizabeth, N. J., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. W. A. Glatfelter is still very ill, as is also the editor's wife.

Our job department is at present crowded to its utmost capacity.

Lots of large suckers are being caught in old "Flog Pond," these days.

Attorney L. C. Colborn, of Somerset, was doing some surveying, this week, for J. M. Hay.

Hartzell, while being defeated by 173 votes, carried 22 election districts to Hoover's 19.

Bert Ryland, of Grantsville, has accepted a clerkship in Copland's drug store, in Meyersdale.

L. C. Boyer and wife and some of the Maust boys have returned from the west. They report a pleasant time.

The apple crop will not be as large as expected, yet there will be plenty of apples, pears, peaches and plums.

Dr. G. C. Keller, the popular Grantsville dentist, was a welcome caller at THE STAR office, last Saturday.

Rev. B. C. Moomaw is the new Brethren minister at Berlin. He is said to be one of the ablest men in the church.

Well, one of the old Commissioners is knocked out, anyway, which partly covers the sin of nominating the other one.

Meyersdale and Summit stood nobly by Adam Fogle, for which they will be kindly remembered by Salisbury and Elk Lick.

Less than one-eighth of the free passes to the World's Fair are held by newspaper men. This may surprise some people, but it's true.

Misses Flora and Sadie Smutz, of New Haven, Fayette county, Pa., are this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Lepley, of this place.

There will be a big picnic in Durr's grove, at Pocahontas, July 4th. A good time is anticipated. Pocahontas is noted for its good picnics.

The stable recently built by Israel Schrock for P. S. Hay, is the best and most conveniently arranged building of the kind in this vicinity.

Edward Hoover, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, is in town today receiving congratulations from his friends. Mr. Hoover seems to be in a happy mood.

Maust & Newman's sawmill dam was drained this week. A great many fine specimens of the finny tribe were taken therefrom, consisting of suckers, bass, catfish and sunfish.

Will H. Keim and S. A. Kimmel have both quit conducting street cars in Pittsburgh. Will now has charge of a stationary engine in that city, while Sam has gone to Washington, Pa.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Rev. J. M. Evans is very ill in Meyersdale. We are informed that she will be taken to the Mirkleton sanitarium as soon as her condition will permit moving her.

The recent law which increases the fees of Pennsylvania constables and justices, will do none of them now in office any good. The law will not go into effect until the next set of said officers are elected.

It is wonderful how public sentiment can be changed. There is Elk Lick township, which three years ago gave a snug majority for Hoover, this year gave Hartzell almost twice as many votes as it did to Hoover.

Advertising pays. For about three weeks the editor of this paper was scouring the country for a girl to do general house work, but found none. Then he thought of advertising, and a few lines in THE STAR brought a girl in a very short time.

A New Jersey Enoch Arden has invoked the aid of the courts to regain possession of the wife he deserted twelve years ago, and who during his absence married another man. How human! When he had her he didn't want her, when he couldn't get her he wanted her.

THE STAR has a subscriber that insists on paying a year's subscription every time he gets drunk. He has already paid for his paper, in advance, up to Jan. 1st, 1940. If he will inform us what brand of whisky he drinks, we will make an effort to have it placed more generally on the market.

J. M. Hay, of Elk Lick, was down yesterday. Although a Democrat, he was interested in Saturday's primary, and was offering some cold comfort to Mike Smith on the defeat of his favorite candidate for Sheriff. Mike looks like a man who didn't know what struck him.—Register.

Rev. A. D. Gnagey and Rev. Dr. Young have in contemplation a visit to Montreal in July to attend the sessions of the Christian Endeavor Conference. On the return trip they will stop at New York, where Dr. Deems' school of Christian Philosophy will be in session. Going the trip will include a visit to Niagara; also probably the Thousand Isles.—Register.

Fowls, when allowed their liberty, find many articles of a spicy nature upon which they feed. In confinement they cannot furnish themselves with such articles, but must be provided with them by their keeper. By the use of them their health is promoted—and healthy fowls are equivalent to profitable fowls. Prolific Poultry Food supplies just this need and is easy to get and convenient to use; also not expensive. L. B. Lord, Proprietor, Burlington, Vt. For sale by Mrs. S. A. Lichliter.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK. THE STAR, the Meyersdale Register and the Meyersdale Commercial will not be issued next week. Printers and editors being hard-worked men, seldom having an opportunity for rest and recreation, it is getting to be a custom among them to take a lay-off during 4th of July week. Therefore, do not look for a STAR next week. Our office will be open for business negotiations, etc., but no paper will be issued until the week following, when we will again fall to work with renewed vigor.

Wm. McFadden, who had been sick for the past few months, died last Saturday, at the home of Alfred Wagner. He was about 60 years of age. Funeral services were conducted by Father McKenna, of Meyersdale. Mr. McFadden had been a soldier in the Confederate army. His remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, by the side of his brother Charles, who had been a Union soldier and died several years ago. While these two brothers fought on opposite sides during the war, both were, nevertheless, staunch Republicans in politics.

Wednesday afternoon Dr. Lichty received a telegram from Lanark, Ill., announcing the illness of his wife, who went west a week or more ago. The doctor immediately started west to administer to her needs; but the town is not left without a doctor, even though Drs. Speicher and Lichty are both absent. Dr. W. Potter Shaw is here and here to stay, having recently graduated and decided to hang out his shingle in Salisbury. We hope, however, that our other doctors will also be with us soon, as there seems to be sickness enough in the vicinity to keep three doctors busy. We also hope that Mrs. Lichty will speedily recover.

Death will follow the use of Liquor, Morphine or Tobacco with the same certainty that night follows day. If you are addicted to the use of any of them, you can cure yourself in a few days and not experience the least discomfort. Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets are guaranteed to cure Drunkenness, Morphine and Tobacco Habit without requiring the least effort on the part of the patient. The price is but $1.00 per package, and a cure of any of these habits is worth a thousand times that amount. Don't delay; get a package of the Tablets from your druggist. If he don't keep them and refuses to order them for you, send direct to the Ohio Chemical Co., Lima, Ohio. They will send you full particulars, free.

THE STAR is in receipt of four communications denouncing the School Board in the most bitter terms for electing Milton Phillips principal of our schools. The writers of the same contend that A. A. Streg was the man wanted in that position by at least four-fifths of our citizens. This may be true, for all we know about it, but we cannot publish the communications referred to, for the reason that by so doing we would only open the way for a long, bitter and useless controversy that would do no one any good. As for THE STAR, we have this to say: What has been done is done, and it is the duty of every good citizen to stand by the principal and give him every possible encouragement to make our schools a success. We can not all be pleased at all times, but no matter who is principal, of our schools, let us get up no fight on school matters, for this town has had enough experience in that line to know that such fights always make matters worse instead of better. Encourage the principal elect, whether he is your choice or not.

The long looked-for event has at last taken place—the collapse of the Salisbury cornet band. For some time the boys have been quarreling among themselves, and it is as the Bible says, a house divided against itself can not stand. It is bad enough that the boys couldn't pull together, especially since the citizens contributed so liberally, of late, toward the band's support. But as the band is now bursted, the citizens should demand the instruments and other property that they paid for and which belongs to them. The members of the defunct band have no right to said property and should be required to surrender possession of the same. These instruments could be used to good advantage by the new band which organized a few months ago, and which is making good headway under the instruction of S. L. Livengood. The new band is determined to stick to it, but is badly in need of better instruments. The citizens should demand their property now in the hands of the defunct band and turn it over to the new band. Will they do it? If not, why not?

Bill Pritts Captured and Rescued.
Bill Pritts, the noted Somerset county moonshiner and murderer of old "Yoney" Hochstetler, was captured at his home, on Monday, by Constable Allen Fore-spring and two of Hochstetler's sons. When Pritts saw the Constable and his assistants approaching, he started on a run for the woods. He was called on to stop, but refused to do so until Rol Hochstetler shot him through the arm with his rifle. He then surrendered and was removed to the house, but before he could be taken to Somerset, some of his friends arrived and drove the officer and his posse away. The affair was immediately reported in Somerset, but as yet we have learned of no plans to recapture the crafty old moonshiner. His arm was badly lacerated by the bullet that pierced it, and it is believed that he could be easily captured, but it is dangerous to attempt it and will hardly be tried unless there is a heavy reward offered.

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at A. F. Speicher's drug store.

A Country Editor Honored.
It affords us much pleasure to acknowledge receipt of a fine photograph of Col. E. M. Correll, editor of the Hebron (Neb.) Journal; but it gives us still more pleasure to note the fact that he is now the acting Governor of Nebraska. Both of us used to publish country papers in Thayer county, Neb., and it is with the keenest sense of pleasure that we learn of our friend Correll's good fortune. Last fall Mr. Correll was elected to the State Senate, and being a man of fine ability, (you know all country editors are able men) he was chosen President of that honorable body. Not long ago Mr. Correll was called upon to fill the Executive chair, the Governor and Lieut. Governor being absent. Thus did he become the acting Governor of the great state of Nebraska; and THE STAR will vouch for it that he has been filling his high office with credit to himself and to the state.
In the meantime, Mrs. Correll is editing the Acting Governor's paper and is doing credit to herself and to the country press. She is an idol of fine ability, and the Hebron Journal is one of the best country papers in America.

In Greene county the Democratic nomination for a county office is equivalent to an election. The whole vote of the county is only about 6000 and a little more than two-thirds is Democratic. It is the only county in the state where the constitutional provision for minority representation on the Board of County Commissioners has been regularly defeated by the election of three Democrats.—Somerset Herald.
