when he came to the door, here stood his famous old horse, waiting to hear the clock strike, in order to find out when meal time arrived.

Miss Annie Wise was at home, Sunday last. Glad to see Annie again.
Samuel McClure has left our burg and has gone to the World's Fair.

Our friend H. McClintock went to Cumberland on the 13th to see his better half. W. H. Sipple accompanied him.
Aug. 21st, 1893. OLD DOG.

Do these Questions Apply to You?
They are sure to interest hundreds of readers of this paper. Nine out of every ten people are troubled with these symptoms, and really don't know what's the matter with them. Here are the questions:

Are you nervous?
Have you a cough?
Is your throat sore?
Is your appetite poor?
Do you hawk and spit?
Do you take cold easily?
Is your nose stopped up?
Is it always full of scabs?
Is your breath offensive?
Is your hearing affected?
Is your tongue frequently coated?
Is your mouth full of slime upon rising?

If you have, you have, or are getting, a bad case of Catarrh. One bottle of Mayer's Magnetic Catarrh Cure is guaranteed to cure any case of Catarrh, and will last for a three months' treatment.

Ask your druggist, who will give you an absolute guarantee. For sale by druggists. Remember one bottle to cure, and guaranteed by our agents. For sale by A. F. Speicher, Elk Lick, Pa., also by G. E. Pearce & Co. and A. F. Parker, Frostburg, Md.

ST. PAUL.

High winds and dry weather prevail.
Samuel McClure left for his home at McKeesport, Pa., on Monday. He will remain there a short time and then take a trip to the World's Fair. We wish him a safe and happy journey.

Wm. Sipple took in the picnic at Meyersdale, Saturday last, and reports having had a good time.

St. Paul boys have organized a base ball club and are doing first-class playing for beginners. They want a little more practice, then they will be ready for a match game. We also have a sporting club, which embraces foot ball, croquet, boxing, etc. We have some first-class pauilists.

Do not forget the picnic here at St.
Paul, Sept. 2nd. THE STAR must have been misinformed as to the postponement of the picnic, as it will be held on Sept. 2nd instead of Aug. 26th. Do not forget the date. A match game of base ball will be played on that day, and there will be amusements of all kinds. Everybody invited. BUFFALO BILL.
Aug. 21st, 1893.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation. A. F. SPEICHER.

TAB AND VICINITY.

We had a good shower of rain, last Thursday.
Horse trading is all the "go" at West Salisbury.

Last Saturday evening two young gentlemen went groundhog hunting, but failing to see any, they began to shoot at a mark on a wild cherry tree in John D.
Yoder's field. While engaged in this sport one of their guns burst, but fortunately none of them were hurt. However, they were terribly scared and ran home to tell of their accident. Now, boys, before this take warning; don't fool with old guns.

Jonas Keim and S. S. Folk are at present sawing shingles for S. S. Folk's house.

Our noted groundhog hunter says: "I have killed 23 groundhogs and 50 meal ow mice, the skins of which I will tan and make a baggy out thereof." Lincoln Folk is trying to raise a mustache. He has started it in the new potato sign and his efforts will doubtless be crowned with success. OLD SILE.
Aug. 21st, 1893.

If you can afford to be annoyed by sick headache and constipation, don't use De Witt's Little Early Risers for these little pills will cure them. A. F. SPEICHER.

Savage.
All the farmers of this vicinity are plowing wheat ground, but owing to the dry weather it goes very hard.

H. S. McClintock is an applicant for the Peck school.
Zenith Holliday recently had a big fire.
He burned the brush and logs on the site for his sawmill and fish dam, but he could not control the fire and it spread to his laurel scrub and burned all his pretty laurel. He mourns his loss very much.

C. B. Durst has purchased H. W.
Holliday's farm down in "Spruce Hollow," where the onion farmer lives. Now, lookout, onion farmer, and seek for a new home.

Jesse Holliday is putting out 40 acres of wheat on shares, at W. A. Bird's.
J. A. has a patch of corn on the Hutzel farm that beats any other corn in Somerset county. The only way he can reach the ears is by means of a balloon.

W. Wiseman and S. Schlaubaugh were out building the Buchanan portable and stationary fence, last week.

W. A. Bird has found his cow that was lost for the past two months. She was found in a place that had been hunted over a half-dozen times by 60 men, who could not find her. Wm. Peck says he saw a pair of horns on the ground, but had no idea that they were the horns of the lost cow. He says if he ever hunts for a cow after this and sees the horns stick out of the ground, he will look at once for the balance of the cow. She was mired in the Wilhelm glade, one mile west of Savage postoffice.

Harvey Ringler has sent to Philadelphia for a pair of tweezers to pull up his Canada thistles with. He thinks he can also use the same tool to pull up his buckwheat.

Wm. Shoemaker has his new house done, all except finishing.
PEACH BLOSSOM JOHN.

Little vegetable health producers: De Witt's Little Early Risers cure malarious disorders and regulate the stomach and bowels, which prevents headache and dizziness. A. F. SPEICHER.

Character in the Eyebrows.

Highly arched eyebrows are said to denote vivacity and brilliancy, level brows, strength of intellect; regularly curved eyebrows express cheerfulness; square ones, deep thought; irregular, fickleness, versatility; raising at the inner corner, melancholy; joined over the nose, an unsettled mind; thick and bushy eyebrows denote physical strength.—Philadelphia Ledger.

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles.
A. F. SPEICHER.

CLEVELAND'S PANIC.

Which Caused the President's Pulp Mill in Wisconsin to Shut Down with the Rest.

"'Tis extraordinary and alarming," the way the things now go:
At least so says great Grover, and he surely ought to know:
For despite evasive blather he cannot help but frown—
As he feels it for himself,
When

His Mill Shut Down!

We must have fibre paper to print our news upon,
So Grover with some others into that trade has gone:
But distrust about the tariff has settled on the town—
And he knows it now himself,
When

His Mill Shut Down!

O! partner of great Adlai, old rags are cheap abroad,
You know that import taxes are a swindle and a fraud:
So let them send their paper here and turn the tariff down—
You'll learn some more about it
When

Your Mill Shuts Down!

It snowed the very next day, for the patriots wanted change,
They got it and the way that storm still rages is quite strange:
If it snows for four years steady in the country and in town—
'Twill make no dif to you at least,
When

Your Mill's Shuts Down!—Ex.

One word describes it—"perfection."
We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles. A. F. SPEICHER.

A flat car costs about $380, a flat bottom coal car, $475; a gondola drop-bottom coal car, $500; a double-hopper-bottom coal car, $540; a box car, $500; a stock car, $550; a fruit car, ventilated, $700; a refrigerator car, $800. A four-wheeled caboose costs $150 and an eight-wheeled one $700. A fifty-foot mail and baggage car costs $3,500; a second-class coach, $4,800; a first-class coach $5,500; a first class Pullman car, $15,000.

Ignorance of the merits of De Witt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune.
These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, bad breath, constipation and biliousness. A. F. SPEICHER.

An authority on domestic economy advises the housekeeper of limited means to save her fire and strength and do as much ironing as possible with the clotheswringer. Plain pieces, like towels, pillow-cases, sheets, merinos and stockings, put through the wringer will be smooth enough for all practical purposes, if the rollers are tight. Life is too short and fresh and blood are too precious to be wasted sprinkling, folding, unfolding, ironing, refolding and ironing a lot of white clothes.

De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures burns.
De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures sores.
De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures
ulcers. A. F. SPEICHER.

Golden Road to Prosperity.
The judicious advertisement is a silent, ceaseless worker for the prosperity of its projector.

The connecting link between purchaser and wide-awake merchants.

The modern necessity for mutual benefit.

Persistent advertising is the most reliable fructifier of trade.

The publisher's king and the merchant's prime minister.

The Guideboard of business success.
A merchant's best friend and key to success.

The medium of communication between the merchant and the masses.

The most successful testimonial of a man's business ability.

A notice to the public of enterprising people concerning business.

A safe investment with sure returns.
A ripple in the ocean of business that ever widens.

A business man's sure success if sensibly adhered to.

A remedy for dull trade, a specific for falling business.—EX.
