Watch the man that wants to sell you goods or Marble at 40 per cent. below price. LOCAL AND GENERAL.

S. C. Loechel is recovering from a severe spell of quinsy.

Sheriff Good was a business visitor in this city, on Monday.

Russell Hay was on the sick list, this week, but is improving.

Burgess Welley, of Somerset, is visiting his mother, in this city, this week.

Rev. Enlow and Dr. Bruce Lichty, both of Grantsville, were seen on our streets today.

Salisbury needs a new name, electric light, a board of trade and fire protection just as badly as ever.

Genial Mart Hartzell and his little son, of Rockwood, made THE STAR a short but pleasant call, on Wednesday.

There will be Harvest services at the St. Paul Reformed church, Sunday next, at 10 a. m., conducted by E. S. Hassler, the new pastor of that church.

Last Thursday a quartet of our Nimrods went out beyond Bitinger, Md., on a hunting expedition. They returned on Saturday, bringing 68 squirrels with them, 41 of which were of the gray variety.

There is not one empty residence or business house in Salisbury, which is the best kind of evidence that it is a thriving town. However, we know of a so-called metropolis where there are a good many empty houses.

The people of this community are under obligations to Congressman Hicks, for the substantial aid he extended to us in the matter of getting two daily mails from Meyersdale. Our congressman is the right man in the right place.

Mr. and Mrs. Letsworth's little babe died in Meyersdale, last Sunday, where its mother had been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Gipe. The remains were brought to Salisbury, on Tuesday, for burial. THE STAR extends its sympathy to the bereaved parents.

If Salisbury had electric light, it is not likely that Beachy's glass front would have been battered in with a club. Deviltry and darkness are twins. Let us have electric light. It may make promoting less pleasant for the young folks, but it will also cause less deviling.

Mr. H. C. White, of Messrs. A. J. White & Son, tailors and clothiers, Chambersburg, Pa., will visit Salisbury about Sept. 13th, with samples of suits and overcoatings. Orders filled satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

A. J. WHITE & SON.

The contract to put a steam heating plant into the Salisbury school building, has been awarded to Mr. Bolden, of Meyersdale, for $575. We believe the Board did a wise piece of business by deciding on steam heat. Old-fogy notions have got to give way to modern improvements.

There will be another mammoth picnic at the Big Spring, on Negro mountain, Saturday, Sept. 16th. It promises to be a greater affair than the picnic held there a few weeks ago, which is saying a great deal; but we do not think we are over-estimating it. Nobody can afford to miss this picnic, as it will likely be the last as well as the best of the season.

Mr. Hiller will be at Hay's hotel, Saturday, Sept. 9th, and Monday, Sept. 11th, with a complete line of fall and winter samples, and will take orders for suits and trousers. Our prices are lower than the lowest and we guarantee a perfect fit. Call and see him, examine his samples and get his prices.

The band boys report a most excellent time at the big wedding, down at S. P. Maust's, Tuesday evening. They say they were never better treated in all their lives. They also report the wedding a very nicely arranged affair and wish the happy couple a long and prosperous life. The contracting parties were Mr. Daniel Meyers, of near Berlin, and Mr. Maust's accomplished daughter Lizzie.

Some few months ago, two men visited our town, putting lightning rods on different houses with the following terms: No pay for one year, and if the parties who received them did not want to keep them at the expiration of a year, they would be taken down without any cost whatever. And if not taken down, the sum of $30.00 was to be paid, which included a $500 insurance policy. Shortly after the departure of our two friends, the victims of said two, each received a bill for $54, which they had to pay. When making a deal of any kind, always be sure you have a properly drawn agreement, and avoid being "roped in."—Lonaconing Review.

THE STAR is not up to its usual standard, this week, owing to the fact that we have been engaged in moving our office hold effects. We are also preparing to move our office outfit into new quarters, and it will be several weeks until the task of tearing up and moving is completed. THE STAR's new home will be in Henry Loechel's handsome new business block, second floor, where we will be pleased to have all our friends call on us and inspect the snuggest printing office in Somerset county. Everything will be equipped in fine style and our plant greatly improved. We will then begin to do business in "dead earnest" and boom things as they never were boomed before.

Mr. Samuel Philson, who has been an active member of a committee of Berlin citizens appointed last year to throw out inducements to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to reach out for Berlin with a branch road, received a letter last week from a prominent official of that company in which the Berlin people find much ground for hope. The official points to the probability that coal operators will soon begin to develop mineral resources lying along the foot of the Allegheny mountain in this county and that such a move would certainly be speedily followed by a branch of the Pennsylvania road reaching out for the business that would then be offered.—Somerset Standard.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the Grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troubles, some after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of La Grippe, but in all Diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, and has cured cases of Asthma and Hay Fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free Trial Bottles at A. F. Speicher's drug store.

An Act of Vandalism.

Last night some person or persons broke one of the large plate glass windows of Beachy's hardware store and took three guns from a rack inside the window. Nothing else is missed, but the loss as it amounts to about $110. It is plain to see that whoever did the low-lived deed had no other object in view than to take guns, as a heavy cudgel was found outside the window, and the same was sticking full of small pieces of glass, showing at a glance that it was the instrument used to make the opening. The cudgel was a large piece of an old wooden sled sole, which was shaved round at one end, evidently to enable the user of it to get a firm grasp on the same.

Nearly everybody in the vicinity heard the broken glass jingle, and those who rushed hastily to their windows and doors saw two men running north, turn west at the next corner, run down Union street and disappear in the darkness.

The general opinion is that the deed was committed by two strangers that were seen loitering about town during the afternoon and evening. We hope the identity of the vagabonds will be discovered and that justice will be dealt out to them.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "La Grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with Sick Headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c, at A. F. Speicher's drug store.

Garrett.

This is our first attempt in contributing a few items for the newsy SOMERSET COUNTY STAR, and should our first issue escape the cruel waste basket, we may muster up sufficient courage to continue the same. It will not be necessary to describe our already well-known, thrifty and popular little burg. To those not familiar with our town, we will simply say she is a "snorter," and don't you forget it.

The good, refreshing rain, of late, has been a God-send to our town as well as all over the land. The sultriness and overwhelming heat, so prevalent a week ago, has subsided, and instead, we have the pure, unadulterated air, which cannot be excelled anywhere for its purity, surrounded as we are by the bright glistening mountains, which can only be excelled for grandeur by the snow-capped Pikes Peak. And talk about health! I believe we can proudly say what no other town in the county dare say, and that is, that there is not one single case of sickness in our town at present, to our knowledge; but of course we have the same trouble to contend with that lurks in every hamlet in our glorious union, the cause of which can be better conjectured than explained—so at least say the Democrats, while with the Republicans it's quite different.

The sad accident, last Tuesday, which caused the death of one of our most honorable and prominent men of Somerset county, has no doubt been one of the saddest and most shocking that this town has ever experienced. Mr. S. J. McKenzie left his home in the morning, in the vigor of health, to perform his duties at the Casselman coal mines, where he was employed as check-weighman. On his return home at noon he was run over by the local freight train and instantly killed. The family had dinner prepared and were ready to eat as soon as he came. A few minutes later the sad news was made known to the family. This was a very hard blow to his wife and ten children, all of whom were at home but one, A. J., who is married and lives not far from his father's residence. The entire community mourns the loss and sympathizes with the grief-stricken family. The B. & O. R. Co. has shown its generosity by running a special train from Garrett to Meyersdale and return, passing the funeral party gratis.

Mrs. Maus, Baughman met with a very painful and serious accident, while out driving, last week, with her husband. The horse became unmanageable going down a very steep grade, upsetting the vehicle and throwing Mrs. Baughman on a barbed wire fence, cutting a deep and dangerous gash under her right arm and bruising her otherwise. Our efficient Dr. Pollard is in attendance.

Mr. Kimmel's new house is completed. It is certainly a very neat and suitable building for hotel purposes and adds a very important feature to our town.

Our genial mining boss at Casselman mine, and his wife, will start for the World's Fair, today, Sept. 6th.

Talking about hard times—well, don't mention it. We ask no whys and wherefors. It is entirely unnecessary—a plain case. Our Democratic friends dare not kick, and the Republicans, who were so smitten, last fall, will not kick, but just quietly chuckle to themselves and "let her go calico."

Garrett was well represented at the picnics at Berlin and Pine Hill, last Saturday. Although a special train was run from Berlin to Garrett, leaving at 10 o'clock p. m., it appears that some few were left and brought in by private conveyance, the next day. One young man in particular, who apparently had imbibed too freely in the use of "iced tea," and becoming very exhausted after attempting very faithfully in the "stripping of the fantastic toe," took refuge in some farmer's two-horse wagon. The farmer in the dark overlooked this piece of human freight and journeyed homeward, while "Hons" imagined himself tucked away snugly in the Berlin buffet sleeper; but to his surprise he woke up at half past nine, the next morning, in a very rickety looking wagon shed, in New Baltimore. This looks very suspicious, "Hons." BROTHER NYE, Sept. 6th, 1893.

"UNCLE SAM'S" last balance sheet seems to indicate that he has been sending his family to the World's Fair. He spent during July and August about $17,000, 000 more than his income during the same period.

Non-pull-out

is an arbitrary word used to designate the only bow (ring) which cannot be pulled off the watch.

Here's the idea

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping.

What Slang Cost.
Slang is no good, remarked the book agent, and a man is clean off his base when he monkeys with it.

As to how? enquired the hotel clerk. Well, this is how, continued the book agent. Two weeks ago I went into Boston with a traveler from Chicago who couldn't speak ten words of English pure and undefiled. At the railroad station he tackled a hack driver.

Say, hackie, what's the damage to take me to Parker's.

No damage at all, sir, replied the hackman, with a Harvard accent.

Sure? Quite sure, sir, if you go with me. Then I'll go with you, and he piled in and I took a street car.

At Parker's the driver opened the door politely and handed him out.

Are you all right, sir? he enquired.

You bet I am. Never was finer. Had a pleasant drive? Bang up.

Arrived here in good condition? A I, thanks, and he started into the hotel.

Two dollars, please, said the driver, detaining him.

I thought you said there was no damage, he said in surprise.

There wasn't, sir. Haven't you just said that everything was all right and you were in excellent condition? Yes, but—

I understand perfectly, sir, interrupted the driver. If you had asked the fare I should have informed you, but you did not. I presumed that was quite immaterial to you so long as you were delivered at your destination safely and without damage.

The slangy man didn't discuss the point. He handed over the $2, and has since been more careful of his lingo.—EX.
