CORRESPONDENCE.

Rockwood.

W. H. H. Baker returned from Bedford Springs, after spending a few days of pleasure with friends and relatives there.

Mrs. Rev. Settlemyer, formerly of this place, but now of Bedford, is visiting friends here. She is at present staying at the Rockwood house.

Chas. Holtzner, of Dixon, Ill., is visiting his brother George, at this place.

P. A. Johns, proprietor of the Merchants' hotel, left here last Thursday with his family, for a few weeks vacation.
They intend to visit the World's Fair and other points of interest along the road.

John W. Porter returned last week, after having spent a few weeks very pleasantly at the great exposition.

S. A. Kendall and family, after viewing all the sights at the World's Fair and other points of interest in the west, returned home last week. Mr. Kendall reports a very interesting and pleasant journey.

We wish to rectify an erroneous statement made in last week's correspondence concerning the wedding trip of the newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper. We reported them leaving on Wednesday last week, but this is incorrect, as they are unavoidably delayed until some future time.

Lincoln Knopsnyder and wife are visiting at the home of their parents, at this place.

The merry-go-round, owned by Knapp & Co., after spending a few weeks here left last week for Hyndman, from where they will go to Bedford to visit the County fair.

Among the visitors that returned recently from the World's Fair are J. O.
Wolfsberger, C. H. Wolfsberger and wife, Miss Lizzie Wolfsberger and Miss Tillie Klinefelter.

U. S. Werner left here on Saturday evening for Meyersdale, in discharge of official duties as a member of a committee appointed by the Advisory Council Jr. O. U. A. M. He and two Meyersdale members of the same committee had a conference at the place named.

The postmaster for this place has not yet been appointed. The Democratic authorities believe that the postoffice at Rockwood, under Republican jurisdiction, is very satisfactory.

Miss Jennie Smith, the evangelist, delivered a lecture in the Lutheran church, Monday night, which was both interesting and instructive. Miss Jennie is well known throughout the country and has many friends here.

Penrose Wolf and wife, A. J. Growall and wife, and Rollin Haines, started for the World's Fair, Tuesday evening. We wish them a happy time.

We are all happy to see the familiar face of Phillip Smith, who has just recovered from a long illness. He will soon be able to resume his usual duties.
Sept. 12th, 1893.

It's Used Different From Any Other Medicine.

Our advertised agents and all druggists are instructed to return the money to any one who fails to be cured by Mayers' Magnetic Catarah Cure. Price one dollar for 3 months' treatment. This is saving a great deal, but it has never failed.
For sale by druggists, or address
THE MAYERS DRUG CO.,
Oakland, Md.

Gebharts.

One evening last week quite a crowd of young fellows conceived the idea that it would be the proper thing to organize a band; the place of meeting agreed upon for their first exercise being on the street in front of the Knable residence.
When all was in readiness the band opened up on their first "piece," which did not prove to be as lengthy as discordant, for the instruments handled did not seem to be in strict harmony, nor did the performers seem to observe the very important feature so necessary to the rendering of good music, viz: time. But they played the piece as though each member of the band were trying to excel his neighbor in running the chromatic scale up and down the greatest number of times in the least number of seconds.
The effect can be imagined, but it would be as difficult to describe as would the different colors to a blind man. The boys did their best, no doubt, but the couple in the house did not seem to have an "ear for music," so J. C. dismissed them with a fee, and all was again quiet as usual, and the supply of hot water was allowed to cool. The horse fiddle is put away, ready to receive the next lot of chickens that may be brought to the store, and the various other instruments are also awaiting their future turn of usefulness.

Those were glorious drouth breakers, if they did come a little late.

Threshing is now going on all over the land, both wheat and oats yielding well, while pasture seems to be taking a fresh start.

We noticed in THE STAR that another picnic will be held at the Big Spring, next Saturday. Glad of it; we wanted to be there the other time, but could not.
Will make a desperate effort to count one at the next. We always felt at home in that beautiful little valley, and a more kind and hospitable people the writer has never found in all his travels, and his sojourns have not been a few.

Sept. 11th, 1893. PARTOUT.

One word describes it—"perfection."
We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles.

A. F. SPEICHER.

Berkley's Mill.

Since the late rains the pasture fields are doing their level best.

Samuel Bowman, of Pine Hill, passed through here, Saturday, on his bicycle, bound for Salisbury.

Charles Baldwin and family were visiting friends at Edie and Berlin, last Saturday and Sunday.

F. J. Connyrman, ex-county commissioner of Jenner X Roads, is here visiting his brother Jerome. Mr. Connyrman has the cancer at his mouth and has suffered a great deal of pain on account of the dreadful disease. But he has hopes of being cured by the new cancer doctor.

The farmers are harvesting their potato crop, which is a pretty fair yield.

School has commenced, and the little boys and girls can be seen winding their way to the institutions of learning.

The new barber shop here is doing a good business, and if trade keeps on improving much faster. Mr. Gessner will have to get an assistant.

Ed. C. Shumaker and wife were at Salisbury, last Sunday, attending the funeral of Miss Rebecca Bonheimer, of Meyers-dale, was the guest of her parents, last Sunday.

Eli Hummel and Pete Weaver, of "Seldom-seen" passed through here one day last week. They were cursing the hard times, but preaching democracy, free trade and wild-cat banking as good things.
Sept. 12th, 1893. NON DE PLUME.

New Discovery.

Mayers' Magnetic Catarah Cure is used by vapor inhalation and is the only medicine of the kind ever put on the market.
By inhalation the medicine is not poured into the stomach and thence sent wandering through the system. But by inhalation the medicine is applied directly to the diseased organ and the only way to reach the affected parts in the nose.
Every bottle is guaranteed by the druggist. Price $1 per bottle. Guaranteed to cure. For sale by all druggists.

Savage.

Hunting is now being followed by a good many people of this vicinity.

All the people up this way are rejoicing over the heavy rain we had last week.
The meadows and pasture fields have again turned green.

"Raccoon Jerry" has been hunting for the last two weeks, but killed only five groundhogs and several other insects not mentioned. He will make a raid on larger game, this week.

A. J. Folk has purchased a fine fox hound and is going to run foxes until their tails drop off.

E. J. Egan, who had been sick, is again stirring around.

Samuel Slanbaugh traded horses, last week, and now has a fast-line trotter.
She will make a mile till next fall, if she don't run short of feed.

"Raccoon Jerry" has taken the contract to paint Wm. Shoemaker's new house. That's right, Jerry, lay the gun down and go to work like a man.

A. J. Cramer is going to erect a merry-go-round at the next Big Spring picnic.
A horse will run the machine at 5 cents a ride.

H. W. was too much man for the Sheriff alone, so the Constable from Meyers-dale accompanied the Sheriff to H. W.'s residence.

Jerry Peck was recently in this vicinity visiting friends. He arrived from the west. PEACH BLOSSOM JOHN.
Sept. 11th, 1893.

St. Paul.

Farmers are done sowing wheat.
J. P. Kinsinger stopped at our shops today to get his shovel plow in shape to harvest his buckwheat.

S. McClure has returned from the World's Fair.

The picnic held near this place on the 2nd inst., was a grand success.

The base ball game between St. Paul and Shaw Mines clubs, was a victory for St. Paul, by a score of 44 to 20.

We think the citizens of our town should put a stop to the loafing of the young toughs of this place, around the corner, at late hours.

Two of our best hunters recently went hunting and report having shot one squirrel and a hornet's nest. Hurrah for them! OLD DOG.
Sept. 12th, 1893.

If you can afford to be annoyed by sick headache and constipation, don't use De Witt's Little Early Risers for these little pills will cure them.

A. F. SPEICHER.

Water From the Jordan River.
Of all strange articles that pass through the U. S. Custom houses from time to time, perhaps none has, of late years, attracted so much attention as seven barrels of water from the Baptismal pool of the Jordan river. This remarkable shipment was consigned by United States Consul at Jerusalem to the Jerusalem and the Crucifixion Panorama, on Wabash avenue, Chicago, where it has just been delivered.

Eight large casks were started by camel train overland from the Jordan to Joppa, the Joppa of Bible days, but one camel with its burden was lost by falling over a rocky precipice, so seven barrels reached their destination. The announcement of the arrival of this shipment by the New York and Chicago papers brought scores of people to the great panorama, all anxious to procure some of this remarkable liquid; some wanted it for healing purposes, some as souvenirs, others for baptismal ceremonies. Mr. Gross, the manager of this remarkable and enterprising religious exhibition, said the idea of the importation was to present at stated times small bottles of this water to visitors to this magnificent religious exhibition, which comprises not only the panorama of Jerusalem and the Crucifixion, but also the world-famous painting, "Christ's Triumphant Entry Into Jerusalem."

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation.

A. F. SPEICHER.

Chicago on Fire.
One of the most interesting and wonderful exhibitions outside of the World's Fair, at Chicago, is the great panorama of the Chicago fire. No written description can do justice to this remarkable scene. It presents the city as it was while burning, in which are shown in a startling manner the fire ruins and panic that make this conflagration the most awful calamity of the century. Everyone going to the World's Fair to see the sights should take occasion to view this thrilling scene. It is situated at 130 Michigan avenue and is easy of access from all the down town hotels.

Little vegetable health producers: De Witt's Little Early Risers cure malarious disorders and regulate the stomach and bowels, which prevents headache and dizziness.

A. F. SPEICHER.

The scandal monger is one of the worst enemies the small town has to contend with. On this class of people we clip the following truthful tribute from an exchange: "Not only should the tongue be trained not to speak scandal, but the ear should be trained to loathe it. If people have done wrong, your telling of it or hearing about it is far more likely to do harm. Most of the scandalous stories going around here have very little truth in them and every pure-minded person should not only scorn to repeat them, but should consider themselves insulted when anyone approaches with a tale of scandal.
It is vulgar. The scandal monger is vile and coarse in every fiber. Keep your own heart and life pure, and you will do more to purify the moral atmosphere around you than if you spend your time in decrying impurity in others."

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles.

A. F. SPEICHER.

He Felt Tired.
An old white-washer stood before the court as a witness. The lawyer for the defendant tried to confuse him.

You are Friedrich Muller?
Yes.
Are you the Friedrich Muller who was sentenced under mitigating circumstances for robbery?
No, I am not that Muller.

You are, perhaps, the Muller who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for theft?
No, I am not that Muller, neither.

Were you ever in prison?
Yes, twice.
How long the first time?
A whole afternoon.
An afternoon? And the second time?
You must make truthful statements, for you are sworn. If you were in prison for so short a time, what did you do?
I only white-washed a cell for a lawyer who had cheated his clients.

The lawyer did not ask any more questions on that subject. On his way home he purchased a copy of "The Discovery and Conquest of the New World," to drive away that "tired feeling."—Agents' Herald.

Defends His Profession.
Charles B. Miller, editor of the New York Times, comes to the defense of his profession and protests against the wholesale adverse criticism of newspapers.

In the Forum he gives the self-appointed critics, who belabor the newspaper press, a warning that has long been needed. The truth is, as he well says, that the people who are so ready to exclaim against newspapers set up standards that are either wrong or unreasonable, and a newspaper managed to suit them would be a ghastly failure. Of course, as the press is a human institution, it is often made a weapon where it ought to be a shield. Nevertheless, taking the world as it is, which is the way newspapers have to take it, Mr. Miller declares that the publication of a newspaper devoted entirely to exalted themes is com-mercially impossible, whereas the newspapers now are as good as the age and world in which they are published.—Ex.

We could not improve the quality if paid double the price. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best Salve that experience can produce, or that money can
