CORRESPONDENCE.

Grantsville.
Mr. Geo. T. Brew returned from Bellefonte, his former home, one day last week. Mrs. Brew is expected about the 20th inst. The shingle mill at "Brew-Mar" is expected to open up again and work will be pushed forth in earnest.

Charles Beachy left last Saturday for Sang Run, to drive a team for Marshall Beachy, who has undertaken quite an extensive contract for hauling shingles.
Mr. Beachy has two heavy teams on the road now and is making more money than when he used to haul goods from West Salisbury to this place. He is one of our young men who possess some push and energy and cannot content himself with leading a snail life.

We feel sorry to announce the death of a male child born to Mr. and Mrs.
Gregory Bevans, last Saturday night.
We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Joe Shaw returned from the World's Fair, last Friday, after an absence of eight days. He gives a glowing account of what he saw while there, and says it is worth any person's time and money to go and see what there is to be seen.
But the Midway Pleasance, he says, is a farce from one end to the other and ought to be excluded from the fair grounds.

Rev. Hasler preached his Harvest Home sermon at this place, last Sunday morning, to a goodly audience. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, flowers, fruits and grains of the season.
The designs were perfectly new and original, and the general arrangement of everything was so prim and tasty that one cannot help but think that an unusual degree of artistic skill was brought to bear upon the whole plan of decoration.
The music was composed of very appropriate selections, and rendered in such a forcible manner as to make a person think of the words of the poet: "Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast." The leaders of the choir deserve a great deal of credit in the selection of their material for singers, as the choir was composed of the best musical talent in town and New Germany; and we understand a few vocalists were to be present from Salisbury, but they failed to make their appearance. The discourse delivered was very appropriate and practical.
The whole affair was one long to be remembered.

Rev. Fred Michaels preached a very able discourse in the Methodist church, last Sunday evening. Theme, "Heaven." Dr. G. C. Keller and wife left on Wednesday last for an extended visit to relatives in Ohio. Dr. Keller expects to go to Chicago to see the "Elephant."

section of country.

Mrs. Long, from Westmoreland county, returned home a short time ago.

J. H. Martz and I. D. Lepdig, from Glencoe, made a hurried trip to Somerset, on special business, and returned the same day.

James Bell, of this vicinity, is lying seriously ill at his home, with the dreaded disease typhoid fever.

Mrs. Nelson Bittner, from Illinois, was here at her old homestead, trying to dispose of her property, but failed to do so.

C. C. Martz, of this township, put up one of the best hydraulic cider presses in this country, bought from Thomas A.
Bright & Co., Goshen, Indiana. Capacity of this press is from 60 to 80 barrels per day. It is now in operation, the first four days of the week throughout the entire season. Mr. Martz will make you twice as much cider on his hydraulic press as you can get on the old hand press.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. had a picnic near Kennell's Mills, last Saturday. The Wittenberg band was present. The picnic was a grand success.

Rev. Garland will occupy the pulpit at Kennell's Mills church, on the evening of Sept. 30th, at 7:30 p. m.

On the 30th of this month the School Board will meet for hiring and making agreements with teachers.

John Martz last spring bought four potatoes. When the time came to plant, he cut them and planted; and from those four potatoes he raised 152 potatoes.

Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure is used by vapor inhalation and is the only medicine of the kind ever put on the market.
By inhalation the medicine is not poured into the stomach and thence sent wandering through the system. But by inhalation the medicine is applied directly to the diseased organ and the only way to reach the affected parts in the nose.
Every bottle is guaranteed by the druggist. Price $1 per bottle. Guaranteed to cure. For sale by all druggists.

St. Paul.
Hills are looking green in our section.
Brush-cutting and fence-making are all the "go" in this vicinity.

J. J. Engle is erecting a fine new residence in our "burg."
The ghost in the St. Paul school house frightened a great many of our folks, one night last week. If it hadn't been for W.
H. being so sound asleep, it might have got a warm reception.

H. McClintock and his old chum brought in the old grandpa groundhog of Chestnut Spring. They report his weight to have been 23 1/2 pounds. It was a good pig, boys. OLD DOG.

Rockwood.
Frank McDonald and wife are among our numerous friends at the World's Fair.
We wish them a very pleasant trip.

F. O. Dupont, our able and alert "boss," has lately purchased two lots from Squire Stein and is now excavating ground for a cellar. He will build at once.

Our School Board has been very busily engaged in arranging to have free text books properly distributed.

We are told that the people about Meyers-dale and vicinity supposed the Rockwood poet to be none other than the notorious moonshiner, Billy Pritis. A poem of our poet's production appears in the same issue of the Meyersdale Register which announces this fallacious impression as existing, but anyone who has closely observed the sentiment and themes of the last poem, or a majority of all the others that appeared in print, should not labor under a misapprehension. However, a radical change in Laurel Hill morals may have taken place, unknown to your reporter. Our humorist claims it is all owing to this glorious and prosperous Democratic administration that our poet is robbed of his merited fame.

Our town was billed on Wednesday, announcing a trapeze performance, and 7 o'clock p. m. was the specified time for the show to commence. Unfortunately the contortionist imbued too freely during the day and an alarming state of affairs was anticipated by a large assemblage that had collected at the announced time, when they beheld the celebrated showman's sobriety seriously invaded upon. However, good fortune prevailed and no mishaps occurred during the performance, which, considering the condition the showman was in, was fairly credible. We believe when showmen come to a town in the condition this man arrived at Rockwood, they should not be granted license to show.

One of the "Rocky Mountain" "coon fellows was recently seen in this vicinity.
Peaches are getting ripe; blossoms are out of date, and I am sure that this isn't the time for blossoms. "Peach Blossom John" ought to change his name. He is said to be in the "coon business at present.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Ode to the Hen.

Of robin and bluebird and linnet, spring poets write page after page; their praises are sounded each minute by prophet, soothsayer and sage; but not since the stars sang together, not since the creation of men, has anyone drawn a goose feather in praise of the patient old hen.

All honor and praise to the singing, that cheers of the wildwood in spring; the old recollections of bringing joy, childhood, and that sort of thing; but dearer to me than the twitter of robin or martin or wren, is that motherly cluck when a litter of chicks surrounds the old hen.

And her midwinter cackle, how cheery above the new nest she has made; it notifies hearts all a weary another fresh egg has been laid; and when the old bird waxes heavy, and aged and lazy and fat, well cooked with light dumplings and gravy, there's a great consolation in that.

After Last Fall.
A little boy climbed an old man's knee.
Begged for the reason, "Do, papa, please."
"Why are you gloomy, idle, alone?"
"Have you no work, but loafing at home?"
"I had a good job, last year, you know, Why I have none now, child, you shall know: List to the story: Grover, last fall, I helped to elect him; idle, that's all."

chances.
After the vote was taken, after the change had come,
After the factories closing, after the wheels were dumb;
Many a heart was aching, if you could read them all.

Many a home was darkened, after last fall.
"Bright were the prospects, clouds not in sight, Happy our homes were, from morn till night;
Then came the tempest, spoke soft and low, Fooled us poor workers, how I don't know.
When we awakened, to what we'd done, Factories were idle, mills could not run; Down they all closed, pet, ended that's all, Just as our work was, after last fall."

"Long months have passed, child, no work to do, Although I've sought it, for mother and you;
No work to give me, tried to explain, They could not help it, pleadings are vain;
I know the reason, after 'twas done, I helped to close up factories that run; That's why I'm idle, no work at all, I lost my job, pet, after last fall."
—Byron D. N. Jones in Pittsburg Times.
