A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY. EIGHT LYNCHERS KILLED.

They Were Seeking The Life of a Mur-derous Negro, and Who Was Lynched Later.

At Roanoke, Va., Robert Smith, a negro. At Roanore, va., Robert Smith, a nerro, on Wednesday assaulied and nearly killed Mrs. Henry Bishop, wife of a well-to do farmer of Boletourt county. Mrs. Bishop was at the market with a load of produce and Smith bought a box of grapes. He askand Smith bought a box of grapes. He ask-ed her to go with him to get the money, and taking her to a house nearby locked the door and bound her. Then, drawing a razor he demanded her money. She gaye it up and while doing so jerked the razor from his hand, The negro choked her, threw her down and pounded her head with a brick. leaving her for dead. Mrs. Bishop shorbly afterward regained consciousness. and, returning to the market, told of the outrage. Detective Baldwin soon arrested the negro. The excited crowd attempted to take Smith away from the officer and lynch him, but away from the officer and lynch him, but Bald win with the prisoner on a horse dash-ed at full speed in face of the crowd and soon had hi mbehind the bars. An immense crowd gathered around the jail and kept crowd gathered around the jail and kept ner easing as night approached. At 5 o'clock the Romoke Light Infrantry marched to the jail by orders of Mayor Trout. Guards were posted and the streets in the immediate vicinity cleared. About dark the crowd increased by a hundred by Mr. Bishop's son, a fireman on the Nor-folk and Western railroad. At 8 o'clock portions of the mob battered in the side door of the jail, where the militia and Mayor Trout had retred. Then shooting was commenced by the moh, and the mayor was shot in the foot. The militia were or-dered to return the fire and a voley from about 25 rifles was port d into the mob. Eight men were killed by this fire and more than that number wounded, some of them fatally.

Allen Wa ts, Judge Woods and others were endeavoring to quiet the crowd, Sergt, Griffin and two officers took the negro from the jail into the woods. To-wards daylight they were notified that squads of men were scotting the entire adjacent country and they thought it best to take their srisoner back to jail. They were proceeding along the Franklin road, near Tenth avenue, when a squad of men, about 20 in number rushed upon them and selzed the prisoner. With shouts and yells the determined men rashed the anged to a hickory limb, his body riddled with ballets and northly mangled. It was all over by 5 o'clock and the simall body of men who had done the work had dispersed. Braun, Worthington, O; Mrs. J. W. Braun, B. V. Weishart, Frankfort, O; Albert J. Sholter, Rately, O; Wm. Blair, Indianapo-lis; Mrs. Chris. Kinmel, Davton, O., Mrs. Wm. Evans, Fowellton, W. Va.; Sallie Evans (daughter), Blanche Dillison, Sinking Springs, N. Y. The first section had stopped for water, and the second section, following too closely, could not be flagged in time. The wreck of the rear car was thrown high in the air, falling back upon the engine. The terrible impact forced the loward sleeping passengers and the scene which issued was one of indescribable horror. The engine ploughed is dreadful way literally through the bodies of sleeping men and wood of the shattered cars and in the darkness the aw-ful screams of the injured and dying min-pled with the hiss of the sitem from the forn and twisted holler. The passengers in the rear train escaped with nothing more than asevere shaking up.

PENSION BUREAU WORK. Suspended Pension Cases to Be Dispose' of by October 10. At Washington an official s atement of the Pension Bureau shows that the total number of pensions granted since March 4, 1893 is 55,399. Of these 4,128 were issued since August 26, of which 1,712 were origi-nal and 1,497 increases. Of the original pensions granted 326 were for disabilities contracted in the service and in the lime of duty and 316 under the act of June Z7,1890.

duty and 316 under the act of June 27, 1890. The Board of Revision disposes each week of about 1,600 cases of those suspended under a recent order of the Bureau. With this average a week it is estimated that all cases heretofore suspended will be disposed of by October 10. Probably 75 per cent of these cases will be returned to the rolls, though in many cases the rates will be changed.
