CORRESPONDENCE.

Rockwood.

Miss Maggie Baker is visiting her many friends and relatives in Pittsburg.
Edward Kregar, a representative of D.
Chestnut & Co., of Pittsburg, spent a few days in town, last week.

Another new house on Broadway is nearing completion.
Reports from all sides are being heard concerning the appointment of a postmaster at this place, and in all probability before this article appears in print the long looked for new Democratic postmaster will have donned his proper regalia and be taking preparatory steps before assuming entire command.

The Meyersdale cornet band, while on their way to the veterans' reunion at Somerset, played several pieces at this place, among which was that familiar air, "After the Ball."

Penrose Wolf and wife, A. J. Groll and wife, Frank McDonald and wife, Dr. Bergstresser and J. R. Haines are among the number of people that returned home from the World's Fair, last week.
They report a very pleasant trip and all are highly pleased with the great exposition.

Geo. Reidenour, our faithful S. & C. passenger engineer, has been spending a few weeks of vacation; George Parks, a B. & O. engineer, ruining the engine during the vacation of Mr. Reidenour.

The Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Co. has been hauling many persons to the World's Fair, and solid vestibuled trains pass through our town nearly all hours of the day.

D. H. Wolfersbarger, proprietor of the Rockwood house, opposite the B. & O. railway station, is doing a large business, this fall, on account of the World's Fair trains that pass through daily, every train stopping 25 minutes for meals.

The Columbian Republican club, of Rockwood, have received badges to wear at the Republican convention to be held at Reading, Pa. The delegates are A.
Evans, M. B. Hartzell and Hon. E. D.
Miller.

We have been greatly interested and entertained in reading the spicy and instructive contributions submitted by "Old Sile," "Peach Blossom John" and "Old Dog." In fact we would be highly pleased to meet these noted personages and have a sociable chat in regard to this glorious and prosperous Democratic administration. And if we could conveniently have "Raccoon Jerry" at the conference, we would have an animating and profitable gathering, no doubt.

Sheriff Good spent Saturday last in our town.

The Rockwood band is progressing rapidly and will soon be ready to enter the contest of the county.

A committee on constitution and by-laws appointed by the Advisory Council Jr. O. U. A. M. of Somerset County, composed of W. H. H. Baker, of Glade, R. E. Meyers, of Somerset, and J. M.
Miller, of Rockwood, met at this place on last Saturday forenoon and performed the arduous work of the Advisory Council.

Two weeks of school past, (with a slight interruption of insignificance and unimportance, very pleasantly). We hope we can say this at the end of the school term. Let the good work go on.

A Texan statistician announces that the population of the world, estimated at 1,000,000,000, if divided in families of five, could be accommodated in Texas, each family with a five-acre lot. He says there would be 50,000,000 lots left over for parks and public buildings.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation.
A. F. SPEICHER.

Carelessness.

"I'll never forget Bill Timmins," said the man who used to live in the far Northwest. "Bill was as game a man as ever lived and too generous to take advantage."

"Isn't he living now?" asked the listener, who had been a good deal impressed by the sadness of the narrator's tones.

"No, I was on the coroner's jury that looked after Bill."
"What was the verdict?"
"Died of carelessness!"
"Carelessness! How?"
"Got into a fight without a gun on him."—Denver Tribune.

Ignorance of the merits of De Witt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune.
These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, bad breath, constipation and biliousness.

A. F. SPEICHER.

Washington An Advertiser.

When The American was first started, one hundred and twenty years ago today, George Washington was its largest advertiser. He had for lease "twenty thousand acres of land on the Ohio and Great Kanawha," and is an inducement, he said: "And it may not be amiss further to observe, that if the scheme for establishing a new government on the Ohio, in the manner talked of, should ever be effected, these must be among the most valuable lands in it, not only on account of the goodness of soil and the other advantages above enumerated, but from their proximity to the seat of government, which more than probably will be fixed at the mouth of the Great Kanawha." What if he would return to earth, and see the Great West with its World's Fair, and its millions of population!—Baltimore American.

Forced to Do It.

"Mamma," said little Willie, "I cannot tell a lie, I took that pie to feed a poor, little, starving boy."
"My darling child," said his mother, "and did the poor little fellow eat it?"
"No'm. You see, I couldn't find any starving boy to give it to, so I had to eat it myself."—Chicago News-Record.

If you can afford to be annoyed by sick headache and constipation, don't use De Witt's Little Early Risers for these little pills will cure them.
A. F. SPEICHER.

Two little boys, being anxious to make an honest penny, made a bucket of lema-onade each and stationed themselves on a corner to wait for customers. One had a sign over his bucket "5 cents a glass," while the other sign read "2 cents a glass." A stranger passed by, and thinking there was a rate-rate lemonade war in progress, decided to save 3 cents by buying a glass from the 2-cent lad. After drinking a tumblerful, he said, "My little man, why do you sell yours for 2 cents, while your rival sells his for 5 cents?"
"Oh," said the youngster, "you see after I got mine made the puppy fell into it, and I had to reduce the price." The gentleman retired into a neighboring alley and lost 2 cents.—Ex.

One word describes it—"perfection."
We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles.
A. F. SPEICHER.

Dr. Buckley, in the New York Christian Advocate, says: Foreigners who come back through New York say of Chicago, "that it is as irreligious as Paris, licentious as Vienna, as much engaged in gambling as Monte Carlo, and more drunken, and lax in administration of its statutes than any city in Europe."

We could not improve the quality if paid double the price. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best Salve that experience can produce, or that money can buy.
A. F. SPEICHER.

The Elkton Whig and the News of the same place are waging war over the respective merits of the Republican and Democratic candidates. The Democrat lectures them upon descending to personalities. The News, in an editorial addressed to Editor Torbet, of the Whig, says: "Referring to your editorial advice, couched as it is in language seemingly all your own, we insist that whoever the author of it may be, it is certainly a heterogeneous conglomeration of in-congruities, a regular rhomboid, inclosed in an isosceles triangle, a pure parallelo-piped, trained in a trapezium, tough as a tetrahedron, queer as a quadrilateral, ignorant as a icosahedron, dirty as a diagram, polluted as a parallelogram, rough as a right-angled triangle, piggyish as a polygon, hoggyish as a hypotenuse, treacherous as a trapezoid and drunk as a dodecagon."

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles.
A. F. SPEICHER.

The man who wants to live happy should not care what every "Tom, Dick and Harry" has to say about him; one exalts him while another condemns him, so that it is about evenly divided. The man who has the nerve to press forward in the right, regardless of what other people say, is the man that succeeds.—Ex.
