JOB PRINTING.—The Star office has first-class job printing equipments, turns out all its work in the best style of the art and at very reasonable prices. THE STAR does all kinds of commercial work, poster and bill printing, and in fact nearly every kind of printing belonging to the art. All job orders, whether by mail or otherwise, receive prompt attention.

WANTED!

1000 Men, women and children to call at our studio and be convinced of the excellence of our photographic work.

Photographs in all reasonable sizes and styles, and reasonable prices.

From this time on, our studio will be open for business on Saturday of each week, instead of Tuesday and Wednesday. We believe this arrangement will be more satisfactory to you. Note the change.

We will be on deck every Saturday. Call and see our Frames and Mouldings.

Respectfully,
E. E. CONRAD,

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Read Wm. Petry's new "ad" in this issue.

Henry Dash has returned from the World's Fair.

Rev. Milliron and family are at the World's Fair, this week.

A thorough charter has been decreed by the court for Somersetfield.

Rev. Kribbs will preach in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening.

The cases in court against Thomas Williams and Emanuel Kuntz have been continued.

THE STAR is this week not as newsy as usual, owing to moving from one building to another.

Frank B. Black, of Meyersdale, is to be wedded to Miss Flora Snyder, of Somerset, Oct. 12th.

We regret to learn that Mrs. John J.
Keim broke her arm, recently, by falling on a slippery walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lepley went to New Haven, Fayette county, Pa., last Saturday, to visit friends.

Dr. Esculapius De Lozier had to shoot his valuable stallion, the other day, owing to serious illness of the animal.

Harvey Hay and Ed Loechel went to Cumberland to take in the races. Guess they will come back with big piles of boodle.

R. B. Sheppard and wife went to Johnstown, last Thursday, where they attended a colored banquet. They report a very nice time.

Mrs. A. D. Johnson, of Uniontown, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Keim. Mr. Johnson was also here, but has again returned home.

M. J. Beachy and family have returned from the west and report a pleasant time, with the exception of Master Robert's illness while they were in Nebraska.

Owing to moving into new quarters,
THE STAR is considerably late this week.
However, we expect to catch up with our work again, next week, and get the paper out on time.

Samuel J. Lichty and wife have returned from Illinois, where they had been among friends on a visiting tour, for the past few weeks. They report a very pleasant trip.

Rev. A. D. Gnagey and wife, of Meyersdale, are the proud parents of son No.
1. That makes nephew No. 2, for the editor of THE STAR, while at the same time he has eight nieces.

The jury in the case against Joseph Hoffman, Collins Hamilton, and William and Matthew Koontz, assault and battery with intent to kill, on information of Abram Beam, returned a verdict of not guilty.

We have an article for the People's column, this week, which we can not publish. There is too much brimstone about it, and it would cause trouble that might end in a duel. The writer may call and get his manuscript.

The Extract works did not resume operations, this week, as was announced, but we are reliably informed that work will commence next week. The wages, however, will be Democratic, as was stated last week in THE STAR.

By reading Photographer Conrad's new "ad," which appears in this issue, you will notice that he has changed his days for taking pictures in Salisbury. Mr.
Conrad is an exceptionally fine workman and does a nice business here.

There is some talk of another hotel for Meyersdale, says the Commercial, but a fifth hotel liquor license is objected to, says the same paper. Why object? If license is a good thing, why should a select few have a monopoly of it? If license must be granted, give it to all applicants that can fulfill the requirements of the law, then let it be a survival of the fittest.

The way fire insurance rates have lately been advanced in this town, it seems like damp-phoolishness for Salisbury to worry along without water works. Some mosbacks think we can not afford to have water works, but the fact is we can not afford to be without. Suppose fire was to break out in the business portion of the West side of Grant street. What would the mosback think then? And what would become of our town?

Rev. R. H. Singer, the beast in human form that was tried at Somerset, last week, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit rape on the person of Mrs. Alice Jeffreys, of Petersburg, got off with a verdict of guilty of assault and battery. Whether Singer tried to commit rape or not, it seems to us that the evidence was such that he is not a fit person to stand behind the sacred desk and expound the Gospel. A motion for a new trial has been made.

Leanius Deterich thinks Salisbury should be called Darktown, if its name is to be changed, unless our citizens put in an electric light plant. He says Salisbury needs electric light and ought to have it. His head is level, but the trouble is there are too many people in this town that are afraid of having to pay about 50 cents a year more tax. Darkness and devilment go hand in hand, and Salisbury will have lots of the latter article as long as she is satisfied to remain as dark as darkest Africa.

By an oversight no STARS were sent to Grantsville, last week, and we didn't learn of the mistake until late on Wednesday evening. That accounts for the long delay, and we hope our Grantsville patrons will pardon us. It was all the fault of our mailing clerk, as the paper was printed promptly on time. But alas! the mailing clerk is no more, for when we were told of the omission, we seized the clerk, dragged her to the editorial grinding machine and thrust her in among the wheels. Then there was a rumble of machinery, a shriek, and all was over.
We have a new mailing clerk now, one that will send THE STAR to all our subscribers, every week, and thereby escape the fate of clerk No. 1.

All who are indebted to THE STAR are kindly and urgently requested to pay up.
Times are very hard, and as we have lately been put to a great deal of expense in moving and improving our printing plant, we need our money very badly and we want it. A great many of our subscribers have been receiving THE STAR ever since its establishment and have not yet paid a solitary cent for it. This is a shame, for the amounts are so small that they could easily have been paid long ago. We do not wish to appear impatient, but we believe waiting nearly two years for our money is about long enough.
We have paid for all the thousands of papers that we have been sending out, also for the printing of them, and we do not think that our delinquents should expect us to "put up" for them any longer.

Every paper should be paid for in advance, yet we do not mind waiting a reasonable time when our patrons are not just prepared to pay in advance. But the time has now arrived that we must insist on being paid what is due us. We desire all our patrons that can, to pay in advance, and all who are in arrears, at least to pay what is past due or as much of it as they possibly can.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making the Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation.
A. F. SPEICHER.

The Big Band Picnic.
The band picnic held at Salisbury, last Saturday, was a grand success. Considering the weather, the attendance was large, and all present seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. Three bands besides the home band were present, viz: Citizens' Cornet Band, of Lonaconing, Md., Berkley's Mill Cornet Band and Wittenburg Cornet Band.

The band from Lonaconing arrived here on Friday and treated our town to some of the best music ever rendered on our streets. The Citizens' Band of Lona-coning is a musical organization that is a great credit to the town to which it belongs. Its members are a jovial, gentlemanly set of young men, all handsome, finely uniformed and constitute one of the finest appearing bands that can be found anywhere. And don't you forget it the "Cony" boys can play.

The Berkley's Mill Band arrived Saturday morning, and we want to say right here that it is a musical organization that need not be ashamed to play anywhere.
We do not believe that a better band could be found in any country village in this state, or any other state, for that matter. It is a band that would be a credit to any town of 5,000 inhabitants.
The members of this band are good musicians and the best kind of fellows.
They have the finest kind of instruments and play some difficult pieces of music.
They are a good band and a good-looking band.

The Wittenburg Band is also a very good one for a country band. It renders music that compares very favorably with that of many bands of greater preten-sions. Its members are also a gentlemanly, good-looking set of young men, and have reason to feel very proud of their organization.

The best kind of feeling prevails here toward all the visiting bands, and Salisbury will be glad to have them visit the town at any time hereafter. The success of the picnic is largely due to these visiting bands, for which the home band feels very grateful and stands ready to reciprocate the favor.

Much credit is due the Jr. Cornet Band for the harmony that prevails within its ranks. "In unity there is strength" as well as in onions. Keep on pulling together, boys, and the citizens will then pull with you. You have shown that by working together harmoniously you can get up a very good picnic, and the next time you want to get up anything of that kind, you can do still better, as you will meet with more encouragement.

Meyersdale was represented by Charley Plitt and his peanut roaster, but Charley was not allowed to do business with the machine. That was right. Charley is a good fellow and all that, but as Meyers-dale never patronizes Salisbury picnics, it would not have been right to allow a Meyersdale man to monopolize the picnic peanut trade. We do not need Meyersdale's patronage, however, neither do we need Meyersdale peanuts.

The home band requests THE STAR to thank those of our citizens who so kindly contributed money and other things to make the picnic a success.

A $20.00 BIBLE REWARD.
The publishers of the BANNER MONTHLY in their issue for October offer the following reward:

We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us which is the shortest chapter in the New Testament (not the New Revision) by October 20th, 1893. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided, as stated in the MONTHLY. The money will be forwarded to the winner, October 25th, 1893. Persons trying for the reward must send 10 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the November MONTHLY, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and quite a number of other nice rewards will be offered. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out and try for the reward. Address BANNER PUBLISHING COMPANY, Glen Rock, Pa.

Picnic Ignorance.
We don't know about THE STAR's explanation of a church-opera business.
Perhaps Peter L. is a "amoosin' cuss" like Artemus Ward's kangaroo; you can't exactly tell when he means it, or when he is simply sarcastic; he must decide that.
If the latter, let it go at that.—Commercial.

When people intentionally try to injure others by misrepresenting them, they usually plead ignorance.

A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.
B. M. JAYLORD, Leslie, Mich.

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent you for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured.
Truly yours, MATHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 45, PITTSBURGH, PA.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking, and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent.
Yours truly,
MRS. HELEN MORRISON,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case.
I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by the use of two packages of your tablets, and without any effort on my part.

Dear patient heart that deemed the heavy care of drudging household toil its highest duty; That laid aside its precious yearnings there Along with beauty.

Dear heart and hands, so purposeless, still and cold. (How peacefully and dreamlessly she's sleeping!) The spoolshorn shrank of rest about his fold, And leave me weeping.
