Notice to Stockmen and Farmers.
Prof. G. W. Zeigler, Professor of Orthochomy and Ovariootomy, will be at my residence on and after Oct. 16th, 1893, for several days, for the purpose of castrating ridgling horses and spaying cattle. Charges reasonable and work guaranteed.
Prof. Zeigler is said to be the most renowned riding operator and cattle spayer in the world, having had 20 years of practical experience as a V. S., and has castrated over 14,000 horses. He is endorsed by some of the most eminent men of the Veterinary Medical Profession. Among his endorsers may be mentioned Prof. Andrew Smith, F. R. C. V. S., Principal of the Ontario Veterinary College; Prof. Stocker, Principal Ames, Iowa College; Dr. Jennings, M. D. V. S., and others, Pittsburg, Pa.
Parties having cattle to spay can have their work done at home, if desired.
Respectfully,
R. M. BEACHY, Elk Lick, Pa.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grantsville.
Joseph Blocher and wife, from Meyersdale, but formerly from this place, have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity for the past few days. According to the numerous hand-shaking, they received a hearty welcome. We would like to see you come more frequently.
Jonas E. Gnazew went to Oakland on some election business, for a few days.
Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warnick were made glad by the arrival of a bran new daughter, at their place. Considering that it is their first born, it is something to feel proud of. The mother and child are doing exceedingly well.
Last Sunday Noah Broadwater and family started for the World's Fair—a very commendable thing for our business men to do during these dull times.

For the last eight days there has been a geologist scouring the landscape in this community, but just what his business is no one seems to have discovered.
Daniel Smouse and Chris Lichty were out hunting, a few days last week, and each came home with a wild turkey. They seem to know where they keep.
Henry Winterburg has come home to stay with his mother, this winter, to run the farm and take care of the stock.

Boynton.
Miss Flossie Livengood, and Miss Rosenberger of Meyersdale, spent several days here recently with relatives.

Mrs. Melcher Hochman and two daughters, who have been sick for some time, are improving.
W. W. Grove, who has been housed during the past week with sickness, is able to be about again.

The report that there was a fistie encounter on Railroad street, one day last week, seems to have been exaggerated. Archie only sounded the key note in upper G.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Livengood are spending several days here on their farm. John Turner is nursing a smashed foot, which was caught under a piece of lumber, one day last week.
Daniel Fete is moving from north street to Salisbury, this week.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Riser. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation.

Change and Rest.
Bethel, the Lord Chancellor, occasionally said a good thing. Thus, when leaving a country hotel, he said: "I came down here for change and rest. I found that the water kept the change and the landlord the rest."—Sir W. Fraser.

The Pie Was Tough.
"That was a disgusting tramp I helped this morning," said old Mrs. Smythe, of Bungtown Corners. I gave him a pie and asked him to saw some wood, and about 10 minutes later he came in and asked me if I'd mind if he ate the wood and sawed the pie."—Bazar.

Bad Form in Letter Writing.
The world is in too much haste to write elegant letters. Apart from the careless ones and from the ignorant ones who "do not know that they do not know" are those who affect haste, have a contempt for such details as suitable margins, never dot or cross anything, abbreviate "and" and "which" and squeeze their signature and "y's v'y ty" into the corner of the sheet. "Respectfully" is not respectful, and it is a poor compliment to one's correspondent to appear grudging of the morsel of time bestowed in a leisurely written letter.

Read What Mr. Fred Wallace Has to Say. Mavers Drug Co., Oakland, Md.

GENTLEMEN—I wish to express my appreciation of the merits of your Catarrh Cure. I have suffered with catarrh for five years, and can truly say it has given me more relief than any other medicine I have tried, and it will undoubtedly effect a permanent cure. All it needs is a fair and impartial trial to establish its universality. Very truly,
FRED WALLACE, Mill Point, W. Va.

It has cured Mr. Wallace of one of the worst cases of catarrh on record, with a heavy discharge of the throat. One bottle is guaranteed to cure. It will cure you, otherwise no charge. For sale by all druggists. Price $1. Sold by A. F. Speicher, Elk Lick, Pa., also by G. E. Pearce & Co. and A. F. Parker, Frostburg, Md.

The Bank Was Not "Busted."
An Arizona bank cashier mailed to the door the legend: "This bank is not busted; it owes the people $36,000; the people owe it $55,000; it is the people who are busted; when they pay, we'll pay." Now let the assignees of Arizona get together.—Minneapolis Journal.

The Three Little chairs.
They sat alone by the bright wood fire, The grey-haired dame and the aged sire, Dreaming of days gone by:
The teardrops fell on each aged cheek— They both had thoughts that they could not speak.
As each heart uttered a sigh,
For their sad and tearful eyes described Three little chairs placed side by side
Against the sitting-room wall:
Old-fashioned enough as there they stood, Their seats of flag and their frames of wood,
With their backs so straight and tall.
Then the sire shook his silvery head,
And with trembling voice he gently said:
"Mother those empty chairs!
"They bring us such sad, sad thoughts tonight, We'll put them forever out of sight.
"In the small, dark room up-stairs."
But she answered: "Father, no, not yet; For I look at them and forget
That the child 'em went away,
The boys come back, and our Mary, too, With her apron on of checkered blue,
And sit here every day.
"Johnny still whistles a ship's tall masts, And Willie his leaden bullets casts,
While Mary her patchwork sews.
At evening-time three childish prayers Go up to God from those little chairs
So softly that no one knows.
"Johnny comes back from the billowy deep, Willie waxes his battle-field sleep
To say a good-night to me;
Mary's a wife and mother no more,
But a tired child whose playtime is o'er
And comes to rest on my knee.
"So, let them stay there, though empty now,
And every time when alone we bow
At the Father's throne to pray,
We'll ask to meet the children above
In our Savior's home of rest and love,
Where no child goeth away."
—[Mrs. H. T. Perry.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

A Pen Picture of Him Drawn by the Englishman, Goldwin Smith.
Abraham Lincoln is assuredly one of the marvels of history. No land but America has produced his like. This destined chief of a nation in its most perilous hour was the son of a thriftless and wandering settler, bred in the most sordid poverty. He had received only the rudiments of education, and though he afterward read eagerly such works as were within his reach, it is wonderful that he should have attained as a speaker and writer a mastery of language and a pure as well as effective style. He would

BOWS.
Here's the Idea:
The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

look back smiling on the day when his long shanks appeared bare below the shrunken leather leggings which were his only nether garment. His frame was gaunt and grotesque, but mighty. He stood 6 feet 4 and was said to have lifted a cask full of beer and to have drunk out of the hunchole. This made him a hero with the Clary Grove boys. He had a strong and eminently fair understanding, with great powers of patient thought, which he cultivated by the study of Euclid. In all his views there was a simplicity which had its source in the simplicity of his character. His local popularity was due largely to his humor and the stock of good stories, always pointed, though not always delicate, which through life it was his delight to collect and repeat. At the same time he was melancholy, touched with the pathos of human life, fond of mournful poetry, religious, though not orthodox, with a strong sense of an overruling Providence, which, when he was out of spirits, sometimes took the shape of fatalism. His melancholy was probably deepened by his gloomy surroundings and by his adventures in love.

Carl's Tale of Woe.
Py shakes I told you something, if you listen mit your ears.
I never was so foolish, I pet, in 50 years.
I shud committed suicide; I trowed myself away, Unt vote for Grover Cleveland on last election day.
So listen to my story, unt I told you how it vos. Dot I vos been so simple unt a foolish blunder-bus.
There vas a Denny croaker, his name is Paddy Fell.
He comes in py my house all time his tales of woe to tell.
He talked about Republicans, he said vos no good,
Unt like to see dem get knocked out; he vish I shud do only vomit.
Frent Carl, he said to me one nite, he looked so awful true,
"You shate de Grand Old Party unt get plenty vork to do,
I vos for Grover Cleveland unt lager beer gets cheap.
You'll get your sauer krout for nix;" his vords most make me veep.
"Eight hours' vork will pe a tay; three Sundays in a week."
Dot nearly took my preath away; for joy I could not speak.
Vell, I done shust like he told me, for Grover I did vot.
Instead I vish dot I had vent unt cut my own taru trout.
I valked up to de pools dot day prond as a army horse,
Unt shust as I vos coming pack I met Tom Jones, my boss.
He shook my hand, said "How you vos? I hope you put in on A solid ticket, Carl, my boy, for friend Ben Harrison."
Shust den I got oxted, and said I vos no tool
To vot mit dose Republicans unt pe a taru pig fool.
I want no more Protection, dot ding it is played out,
I said, unt valked away with Pat, unt for Grover we did shont.
Next day I marched in the parade mit snow up to my knees;
But I vos full of with whisky, so of course I could not freeze.
(Slow mnste).
Eight months, py Jinks, have passed away, I got no vork or cash,
Unt all those sunny prospects unt hopes have gone to smash.
I got no peer, I lost my friends, my tick it is played out;
My wife is runned away from me; I got no sauer krout.
In fact, I'm all proked up, by taru I vish I vas a
So I could kick myself to death for being such a fool.
I learnt me what I won't forget, no more I get took in
If I live to be a thousand years, I pe a Republican.
