Republican Nominations.

Election, Tuesday, November 7th.

STATE.

One of the pleasant occurrences of the last few weeks was the marriage of Mr. John G. Pile to Miss Sadie Holtzour, on the 19th of this month. The bride and groom were both of this place. The marriage took place at Centerville, 3 miles northwest of Rockwood. Rev. Long, of the Reformed church, officiated. We wish them a happy life and much prosperity.

U. S. Werner and J. M. Miller were delegates to the Advisory Council, held at Somerset, last Saturday evening. They stopped at the Park hotel and report a very pleasant time. They also report the meeting highly beneficial.

Joseph D. Snyder, of this place, is among the number of young folks that recently returned from the World's Fair. Joe reports a very interesting time.

W. E. Baker and his sister Maggie, who for the past few weeks have been visiting their many friends and relatives in Pittsburg, have returned home. They report a very pleasant time in the "Smoky City."

The Chataqua Literary and Scientific Circle, after a practical and beneficial consummation of several years work, again effected reorganization for the coming year. It is useless to attempt a citation to its universal and eminent worth already realized, and far beyond our feeble imaginations to predict its future accomplishments. It is purely an educational enterprise, and its perceptible movements toward still greater attainments, from year to year meet with favor by all who participate in the work, as well as from the learned faculty of the age not connected with it. The object is to reach the masses and afford practical educational preparation to all not able to attend higher institutions for want of means or other hindrances. To this end, therefore, an instructive course is pursued each year with gratifying results. It is actually bringing to our doors the advantages and opportunities of a high school course. This laudable society is rapidly gaining in numbers in all progressive, civilized countries.

It is useless to attempt a citation to its universal and eminent worth already realized, and far beyond our feeble imaginations to predict its future accomplishments. It is purely an educational enterprise, and its perceptible movements toward still greater attainments, from year to year meet with favor by all who participate in the work, as well as from the learned faculty of the age not connected with it. This laudable society is rapidly gaining in numbers in all progressive, civilized countries.

A progressive age is indicated by progressive spirit and earnest activity along all lines and through all channels that effect improvement. Especially is this true in politics. At least it was regarded with such significance at Rockwood as to necessitate the organization of a Republican club. By necessity we do not wish to signify lukewarmness, as existing among the Republican voters of Rockwood, for the abstract meaning must not be so accurately employed, but only in the measure that is required to better our conditions politically was it necessary to institute the club, and rapid strides have indeed been made. We are politically preparing for war at the polls, in 1896. We believe the next President ought and will be a Republican President. We believe also that a Republican majority in both houses is necessary for the maintenance of true American principles. While we feel confident that all this will be forthcoming, we, however, know that preparation is necessary. Major McKinley, undoubtedly our next nominee for the Presidency, expects a handsome majority from Rockwood, and he'll get it, you may be sure.

Miss Sadie Schiverton, of Cedar Rapids, Ill., who has been visiting her sister for the past few weeks, returned home last week, accompanied by her niece, Miss Sadie Critchfield, as far as Pittsburg.

Last Sunday was the coldest day we have had this year. We also had snow, Saturday evening.

Geo. Parks, who has been waiting on his engine to come out of the shop, got it last Sunday a week; but last Friday night he was in a wreck, and now he will have another lay-off, while his engine is being repaired.

Speech Restored.
For five years I suffered with pain and discharge of the throat, hacking cough, frontal headache, weak eyes, &c., at times; could not talk above a whisper; lost weight continually, and not able to work. I was treated by the best physicians in the county, but received no relief. After giving up all hopes I was recommended to use a bottle of Mayer's Magnetic Catarrh Cure. After using it for four weeks my speech returned. All symptoms of Catarrh have disappeared and "I feel like a different person."

MRS. ELIAS HANDWERK,
Elk Lick, Somerset Co., Pa.

The above is one of the many testimonials we have received this week, and we will publish every two weeks additional persons having been cured by our marvelous medicine. Try a bottle and be cured at once.

MAYERS' DRUG CO.,

Savage.
Holiday Bros. are making visits to the Cove, occasionally.

Lloyd Shoemaker is at present running Peck's blacksmith shop.

"Old Aunt Kate" is making preparations to enlarge her stable.

E. J. Egan is on the "war path" again. He says he is going to attend the college at Savage, this winter.

Our home physician has made a great improvement on Main street, by erecting a fine building, 31x5.

"Jesse Pepper" has resigned his job clearing new ground.

E. B. Durst has moved his headquarters into "Crab Hollow," a place where he can see the sun three hours out of twenty-four.

"Raccoon Jerry" purchased a fine dog from W. J. Shoemaker, for the purpose of freeing ground-squirrels. The canine being too slow on foot, Jerry traded him for a paint brush and will follow painting for a while.

N. B. Christner, the Mt. Rasky farmer, is at present afflicted with a severe attack of neuralgia.

Oct. 30th, 1893. NOW AND THEN.

We could not improve the quality if paid double the price. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best Salve that experience can produce, or that money can buy.

A. F. SPEICHER.

Grantsville.
Last Sabbath J. Hamilton Fuller, son of Isaiah Fuller, was buried in the town cemetery. Funeral discourse preached by Rev. Enlow. Hamilton was a hale and hearty man up to several months ago, when he was hurt while logging in the woods of West Virginia. From this injury he never recovered, but it finally ended in his death. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives.

Senator W. R. Getty returned from Meyersdale, last Monday evening.

Mr. Richmond, of Cumberland, candidate for Chief Judge, was in town the other day, sizing up the political lay of the land.

The Republican meeting, last Friday, was largely attended. The majority of the candidates were present and seemed unusually clever. The speakers for the occasion were Messrs. Murphy, George and Stutzer.

Mr. Ryland is making some inside improvements at his dwelling house.

C. S. Broadwater and family are contemplating spending the coming winter in Texas, on account of the severity of the climate here.

Oct. 31st, 1893.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation.

Southampton.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earhart, of New Millport, Indiana county, are at present visiting Mrs. Earhart's father, mother, brothers and relatives in this locality. They contemplate staying about two weeks.

Chas. C. Martz is running his hydraulic cider press to its fullest capacity. Mr. Martz claims he can make a barrel of cider out of 12 bushels of apples. He has a pressing capacity of 75 tons.

There was quite a lawsuit before Squire Martz, last Thursday, in which Southampton township was plaintiff and Solomon Emerick defendant. The squire has not as yet rendered a decision.

Mrs. Hannah Comp is lying seriously ill, at her home, near Comp's church, in what is usually called Swope Corner.

Quite a revival meeting is in progress at present, at Wills Creek chapel.

Rev. W. C. Garland will occupy the pulpit at Kennell's Mills Union church, on the evening of Nov. 5th, at 7:30.

Pfeiffer Bros. contemplate starting a large nursery in this township. Much success to the new enterprise.

What has become of the Democrats? They are as scarce as hens' teeth.

Election, Nov. 7th. Vote for Fell and Jackson and the straight Republican county ticket.

Very few people get married, nowadays. They all put it off until 1896, because they have no money to buy beer for the serenaders.

Did we ever have good times under a Democratic administration? I should say not. Why, the times were so hard through the country that the Lord would not let the corn grow. PRIMMA DONNA.

Sovereigns of Europe and Asia.
Written for THE STAR, by JOHN P. VOGL.

In England, Victoria rules by God's Grace;
In Germany, William II justice displays;
Don Carlos holds the Portuguese rein,
While Alfonso XIII is the King of Spain.
In Holland, they have Wilhelmina for Queen,
And on Belgium's throne, Leopold II is seen.
In Austria, Francis Joseph rules the realm;
In Turkey, Abdul Hamid is at the helm.

The venerate Christian IX is King of the Danes;
Lombard III, Italy's highest honor retains;
In Greece, George I sits in the Chair of State;
In Russia, Alexander III decides the subject's fate.

In Wurttemberg and Saxony, William and Albert they own,
While Otto sits on Bavaria's throne;
In Germany and Sweden are under Oscar II united;
Serdia's throne with Ataxandria is brightened.

Montenegro and Roumania at Turkey independently snarl,
And have their own Monarchs—Princes Nicholas and Carl.

In Baden, Frederick I was summoned to reign;
In Hesse, Louis V the throne did attain.
Leo XIII sits St. Peter's chair;
In Oldenburg, Peter the last does declare.

In Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Frederick Francis III was proclaimed;
In Mecklenburg-Strelitz, Frederick William, Grand Duke was named.

George Victor is Prince of Waldeck-Pyrmont;
In Saxony-Altenburg, Ernest to all papers of State his signature appends.
Luxemburg's Grand Duke is Adolph, Duke of Nassau.

In Brunswick, Prince Albrecht expounds the law;
France and Switzerland with Republican forms of government are content,
With Carnot and Schenck respectively, at their heads, as President.

In China they all acknowledge Kuang-Hsu;
And Japan is governed by Mutsu-Hitu;
In Persia, the Sultan is Seyyid Fuysal Turke,
While on Beloochistan's throne, Mir-Khadadul we see.

In Stam, Phrabat Somdet Phra Yuhna is King,
And the Afghans are under Abdur-Rahman's protecting wing,
While the Persians are governed by Nesser-Eddin.
In Corea the scepter is swayed by Lihung.
Thus endeth my historical song.

Save that all the other Asiatic states
Are governed by European potentates.

One word describes it—"perfection."
We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles.

Bound to Be Grammatical.
Justice of the Peace—"Had you ever saw this man before?"
Witness—"Yes."
"Had he come before you had met?"
"No."
"Is them your eggs what you say was stole?"
"Yes."
"Would you have recognized them if you had seen them before they was brung here?"
"Yes, I would have knowed them."
"Speak grammatic, young man. It ain't proper to say 'have knowed.' You should sav, 'have knew.'"—Ex.

Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure is the only medicine used by vapor inhalation, and is guaranteed by your druggist.

The way in which some local advertisers set the laws of grammar at defiance is highly amusing. I remember reading in a Pennsylvania paper, last year, the following unique announcement: "Girl wanted to mind baby about fourteen years old." Proportionately, we should expect the required nurse to be at least a centenarian.—Ex.
