MILLER & COLLINS, The Popular Clothiers.

Don't Forget This.
Watch the man that wants to sell you goods or Marble at 40 per cent. below price. He must have something in view in the future to catch up to a living price; so watch him and his work, and then you will place your orders with the old, reliable firm of J. B. Williams, Frostburg, Md., for first-class work.

S. F. WILSON,
Salesman for J. B. Williams.

WANTED! One hundred of our subscribers to pay their subscription to THE STAR as soon as possible.
We want to buy an engine for our printing office, and to buy an engine we will need considerable money; but if 100 of our subscribers pay up promptly, we can get an engine on short order. Several hundred of our patrons are owing us amounts ranging from $1.50 to $2.00, and nearly all of them can easily pay the small individual amounts they owe us. By paying these small amounts they will not bankrupt themselves, but collectively they can raise enough money in a few days to buy the engine so badly needed.

We must have it, as it is almost impossible for us to get along without steam power any longer. Therefore, do your Christian duty by paying what you owe us. As soon as we get that engine there will be no more delays in getting out the paper, and the paper will also be better in every way. Besides that, it will be a great credit to Salisbury to have a large steam printing office. Join the procession of progress and help us to boom the town. You can help us greatly by paying what you owe us. Don't delay in the matter, for the money is due us; pay up at once.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Beal, died last Thursday. Funeral services took place at the Reformed church, on Saturday. We extend to the bereaved family our sympathy.

Rev. Leader, the new Reformed minister, moved here with his family, last week. We welcome them to our thriving town and believe they will find that Salisbury is a pleasant town in which to reside.

It is said that a Long Island newspaper contained a hotel advertisement which read: "Special drawing-room for ladies thirty-five feet wide," and that the inn-keeper found it impossible to procure boarders who could exactly fill the bill.

A married lady was heard to remark, yesterday, that she had to go home and sew on a Democratic badge for her husband. On inquiry what the badge was, she replied, "a patch on the seat of his pants," sitting around looking for work.—Ex.

The new ballot law has been changed and voting has been greatly simplified by the change. All you need to do now to vote a straight ticket is to mark an X in the circle at the top of your party ticket. Be sure to mark your X in the circle under the head which reads, "Republican Ticket." That is where it will do the most good.

Those of our advertisers who cut down the space of their standing advertisements, during the year, and who promised when they did so to insert lots of local "ads," ought to hand us some of those promised locals occasionally. They have doubtless forgotten their promises, but the editor has not. Editors have good memories.

Wonder where all that advertising patronage is that certain people in this town promised us in "black and white" in order to get us to establish a newspaper here? We have never seen a great deal of it, but it is still being promised occasionally. Promises, however, do not benefit us unless they are fulfilled. "A man of words and not of deeds is like a garden full of weeds."

Now is the time to buy a good bicycle away down. If you want a good wheel, don't wait until next spring, for prices are always much higher in the spring than in the fall. See that fine machine we ordered for Alvin Rodamer, this week, and then call on P. L. Livengood, the agent, for the lowest fall prices on bicycles that ever were quoted.

The fashion magazines have it that side whiskers for men and ringlets for women are very fashionable, this year. We don't know what in blazes is meant by ringlets, but if side whiskers are fashionable, H. W. Delozier and THE STAR man are strictly "in it," and all the other handsome and pious gentlemen in town will likely follow their fashionable leaders.

Fred Durr, of Pocahontas, recently had a dangerous fall, but it is believed that he will recover. He fell heir to a large fortune in Germany, and falling heir to a fortune, you know, is some times dangerous. This is the third fortune in Germany that Fred has fallen heir to, the last one being about $100,000, it is said. Fred is to be congratulated.

George H. Suhrie informs us that S. C. Hartley & Co. report good returns from their advertisements that from time to time appear in THE STAR. That is what we like to hear, but there is nothing strange about it; for THE STAR has the circulation to guarantee good returns to its advertising patrons. It is the people's favorite paper in the southern end of the county and makes weekly visits to nearly every family in this locality.

The new law firm of Hay & Walker is progressive and wide awake. The members are not allowing any grass to grow under their feet, and in keeping with their other ideas of improvement and progressiveness, they have decided to open a branch office in Meyersdale. One member of the firm will be at the branch office every Monday to receive, entertain and advise clients.—Somerset Democrat.

Strangers still continue to laugh at us for having different names for our post office and borough. They strongly insinuate that we are a set of fools for remaining handicapped with too many names, when it would require so little trouble to do away with the nuisance and adopt a new name that would appropriately answer for both postoffice and borough. We deserve to be branded as fools as long as we are content to remain in the old ruts.

A city on a hill can easily be hid in the darkness of night, if, like Salisbury, it has no electric light. Our leading citizens ought to be taking steps to get electric light in this town at an early date. We need it. It is the cheapest, safest and best, and it would give the town a reputation for enterprise that would help to boom it. Modern improvements always bring more modern improvements, more building, more new enterprises and more prosperity.

How dear to my heart is the fat, juicy oyster, when old "Soldier Billy" stews it so well; no dainty is sweeter, or softer, or moister, no hard is too brilliant its glories to tell; how sweet when on Pay day men rake in their wages, to order a stew or a roast, and swallow like wine that has come through the ages, the calm, placid oyster that comes from the coast; the blonde, placid oyster, the fat, juicy oyster, the dead, dreamless oyster that comes from the coast.

The non-advertising merchant goeth forth to his lair at the rising of the sun, and let no man interfere. He stand eth around all day, like unto a bottle of castor oil, and the people with the shetkels come not into his lair. He advertises not his wares, and his face is forgotten on the face of the earth. Who hath dried apples? Who hath fly-solled gingham? Who hath calicoes made "befo' de wah"? Who hath stale baking powder without end? He that knoweth not the way to the printer.

A smart young man in Meyersdale recently treated his best girl to what he supposed to be a box of candy pills, which he had purchased from a confectioner. He forgot, however, that he had also purchased a box of pills at a drug store—pills of a different kind—and had both boxes in the same pocket. Next day the girl looked like the last rose of summer, and now they do not speak as they pass by. The young man at first couldn't account for her coolness toward him, but it has since dawned upon him that he made a mistake and gave her the wrong pills.

There are a lot of young hoodlums in this town that take a flendish delight in tormenting poor old Harriet Weaver, an old lady who for some time has been gradually losing her mind. This old woman is well stricken in years, lives all alone and is unprotected. She has always been perfectly harmless, and what sport boys can see in tormenting one in so pitiable a condition as she is in, we are unable to figure out. Some of the tricks they have lately been playing on her are not only cowardly and outrageous, but are filthy in the extreme and of a very criminal nature. Some of the old woman's tormentors are pretty well known, and their parents are respectable people.

We publish this as a warning for the boys and at the same time as a hint to the Borough authorities to be on the alert to catch the young rascals and mete out justice to them, if they continue in their meanness.

We want it distinctly understood that persons who have been receiving statements of their indebtedness to THE STAR have got to "ante up" with the cash, and that, too, without much further delay in the matter. We are getting tired of carrying accounts for people who are a great deal more able to pay the small amounts they owe us than we are to pay the much larger ones that we have to pay every month for stock and labor. We have been very patient with our delinquents, but there is a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and after waiting from one to two years on some people to pay their subscription, we think it is about time to compel payment, if we can't get it by kind requests and plain business statements. Some people will let you waste postage and paper on them, year in and year out, and not seem to know you when they meet you on the

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY CURED.

A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:
DEAR SIR:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. I have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.
B. M. JAYLORD, Leans, Mich.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured. Truly yours, MATHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 45, PITTSBURGH, PA.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking, and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly,
MRS. HELEN MORRISON, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case. I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by the use of two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part.
W. L. LOTEAGY.

street, when at the same time they could pay you just as well as not. We are getting tired of monkey business, and there are some people that are soon going to pay costs in addition to what they owe THE STAR, if nothing else will do them. We regret that we have got to lose control of our temper, but we can not help it. The provocation is great. We have been paying our debts promptly, but people who are indebted to us, it seems do not want to pay. That is not fair treatment and we can stand it no longer. Pay up and save costs. Something has got to be done.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at A. F. Speicher's Drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Garrett County Ahead on Big Apples.
For some time the Somerset county papers have been blowing a great deal about big apples raised in different parts of the county and brought into the various newspaper offices for exhibition. Guess Somerset county has got to shut up now, for Truman Maust, of Garrett county, Md., brought two apples to THE STAR office, this week, and each of them weigh 1 1/2 pounds.

One of them is of the King of Thompkins County variety, while the name of the other is unknown. But in the absence of a name, we shall call it Maust's Beauty. These are the biggest apples we have heard of, this year, but Mr. Maust says they are not as large this year as usual, owing to the drought which lasted nearly all summer. Now, if anybody has larger apples than those brought in by Mr. Maust, we would like to see them.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, and now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of Stomach, Liver or Kidneys.—It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by A. F. Speicher Drug-gist.

Hunting Accident.
Yesterday while Frank Billmeyer and Charles Kelly were out hunting, the latter shot at a pheasant on wing, killing the bird and at the same time giving his partner a liberal dose of shot. Billmeyer was in direct range of the gun when he was discharged, but Kelly did not see him, hence the accident. The wounded man got 21 shot in one leg, one in his forehead, narrowly missing his eye, and several in other parts of his body. But as the shot did not much more than puncture the skin, the wounds are not dangerous. Little boys cannot be too careful in handling guns.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. F. Speicher, druggist.

Garrett.
The Jr. O. U. A. M., of Garrett, presented our schools a flag, last Friday. Very appropriate addresses were delivered by Revs. Weaver and Young, in behalf of the "Star-Spangled Banner."

Rev. Weaver delivered the lecture, "Love, Courtship and Marriage," to a crowded house, last Friday night. All present expressed their appreciation of this lecture and the manner in which it was delivered. Mr. Weaver impressed upon the minds of both young and old the importance and deliberate consideration, in fact the most important step which tends to our future happiness, that of choosing and selecting a life partner to share our sorrows and joys in this life. Not forgetting the poor bachelor in his forlorn state, in reference to the noted "gentleman," he quoted some very suitable extracts, such as, "Tis sweet to love, but oh! how bitter, to love and then not get her." In short the lecture was a treat to the people of Garrett, one long to be remembered.

Stewart Lichty, the night telegraph operator at Connellsville, passed through town on his way home, after a vacation of ten days attending the World's Fair and visiting at his former home. Stewart says Barnum & Bailey's big circus is nothing along side of the "Exposish," and that the Midway Plaisance beats any other side show he ever saw. Stewart knows a good thing when he sees it.

E. C. Spriggs, our genial barber, says the outlook is bright. It's a boy.

The good old Democratic times prevail in Garrett as well as elsewhere; but one consolation we have, and that is it can at the longest last only three years longer.

Our schools are progressing finely, with the exception of being over-crowded to such an extent that the teachers can hardly do justice to all the pupils.

Judge Stagle, of Pittsburg, has rendered a decision to the effect that policemen can follow a criminal all over the state, if he feels satisfied that he should be arrested. It has heretofore been supposed that a policeman's authority was effective only within the limits of the city in which he was employed.—Somerset Herald.
