THE COLUMBIAN ALBUM.

Magnificent Souvenir of the World's Fair Placed Within the Reach of All.

The Pittsburg Times, which has a reputation for enterprise and liberality which is equaled only by its excellence as a newspaper, caps the climax with an announcement which is certain to be universally commended. It proposes to distribute among its readers, and all who will become readers of The Pittsburg Times, the "Columbian Album," a splendid collection of photographic views of buildings and points of interest about the grounds of the World's Columbian Exposition. There will be ten parts, each containing 16 large photographs, reproduced on fine paper and accompanied by clear descriptions. The whole will form a magnificent and enduring souvenir of the great fair, which is at once the pride and wonder of the century. Beginning Monday, November 13th, The Times prints in each issue a coupon. Upon receipt of six of these coupons, from different issues of the paper, and five two-cent postage stamps, or the equivalent in cash, The Times will send to any address one part of the "Columbian Album." All the parts can be obtained in the same way, so that at the end of ten weeks everybody who reads The Times can have the complete album. The work will give its possessors who were unable to go to Chicago, almost as much pleasure as a trip to the fair, and to those who did walk up and down the streets of the White City, it will be an invaluable souvenir. Look out for The Pittsburg Times, every day. It will give you all the news for one cent a day, and will also give you an opportunity to obtain the "Columbian Album." If there is no agent for The Times in your locality, you can build up a profitable business by writing to The Times and securing the agency at once.

Don't Forget This. Why should you when we can provide you twelve elegant Holiday Presents for $3? Think of it—twelve friends made happy by twelve of Conrad's beautiful, fadeless, water-proof American "Aristo" Photos! Could anything be more tasteful and economical? Certainly not, and nothing could be more appreciated. Come now, and avoid the rush that always occurs just before Xmas. Studio over Dr. Speicher's drug store open on Saturdays. Respectfully, E. E. CONRAD.

If you want a good high grade bicycle at a medium price, buy the Central. If you want a good medium grade bicycle at a low price, buy the Ben Hur. This is the best time of year to buy a wheel. You can save money by buying now. P. L. LIVENGOOD, AGT., Elk Lick, Pa.

Don't Forget This. Watch the man that wants to sell you goods or Marble at 40 per cent. below price. He must have something in view in the future to catch up to a living price; so watch him and his work, and then you will place your orders with the old, reliable firm of J. B. Williams, Frostburg, Md., for first-class work. S. F. WILSON, Salesman for J. B. Williams.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Note the change in the B. & O. time card.

Don't make a mistake, but use Thurston's Cathartic Liver Pills. 5-1

Rufus Hartline and family went to Lonaconing, Tuesday, to visit friends.

Holy communion was celebrated in the Reformed church, last Sunday.

Diseases caused by torpid liver are entirely cured by the use of Thurston's Cathartic Liver Pills. 5-1

Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Preparatory services, Saturday at 2 p. m.

Our young band did some excellent playing when serenading Sam Livengood. The boys are beginning to knock out music like old hands at the business.

The series of meetings held all last week in the German Baptist church, by Rev. John Meyers, of Somerset, ended with communion services, last Saturday evening.

Rev. Leader will preach in the Lutheran church, Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 30th, in behalf of the W. C. T. U. A union service throughout. All are cordially invited.

Mothers find Thurston's Present Age Worm Syrup a perfect remedy for worms, wind colic and relieves the troubles caused by children teething. It is soothing and produces rest. 5-1

If this town, with all its stores and shops, can not give its local paper more than $28.75 worth of advertising per month, it ought to be abandoned to the owls and bats.

We have so much correspondence, this week, that we are obliged to omit the least important items. We hope this will be a sufficient explanation to our able assistant editors.

Mrs. Nancy Maust, one of the editor's aunts, died at her home in Indiana on the 14th inst. She was a sister to our uncles Jere J., John J. and Peter J. Livengood, of this place, and had many acquaintances here.

Lincoln Koontz, of Lincoln, Tex., and Miss Bertie Stafford, of Connellsville, were married on Monday evening of last week, at the residence of Samuel Koontz, in Salisbury. The groom is railroading in Texas and will make his home there.

Wilson Martin, son of J. B. Martin of West Salisbury, met with a painful accident in Hocking's mine, on Tuesday. He was a driver in the mine and had his leg broken by having it caught between a prop and a car which left the track. THE STAR extends its sympathy to the unfortunate young man and hopes he will have a speedy recovery.

Mr. Daniel Barchus, a former resident of this county, and now a prominent citizen of Elk Lick, Pa., is in the city visiting friends. He reports two inches of snow on the ground when he left home, but found the weather pleasant here. He will visit Washington before returning home, about the middle of next month. —Hagerstown Herald and Torch Light.

Burns are absolutely painless when De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is promptly applied. This statement is true. A perfect remedy for skin diseases, chapped hands and lips, and never fails to cure piles. A. F. SPEICHER.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All persons indebted to this office and not knowing it are requested to call and find out. All those knowing themselves indebted and not wishing to call are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to catch them. All those not indebted are requested to call and become indebted.

Not one minute elapses between the taking of One Minute Cough Cure and relief. Why shouldn't people take One Minute Cough Cure? They should. They do. A. F. SPEICHER.

George Langford, of Boynton, has moved to Ursina. By his removal Boynton has lost a most estimable family. Mr. Langford is one of the best men we ever knew, and it is with great regret that we announce his removal from among us. He is a man of superior natural intelligence, a refined gentleman and an honest and upright man. May success follow him wherever he goes.

It not only relieves; it does more, it cures. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. Suitable for all ages, all conditions, at all times. A. F. SPEICHER.

Rev. Jonas Lichty, who a few years ago moved from Elk Lick to Waterloo, Iowa, died Nov. 21st, aged about 62 years. He died of heart disease and dropsy. For many years the deceased was prominent in the German Baptist church, and his large circle of friends will greatly mourn his departure. His children were all present at his deathbed. To his brothers, sisters and other relatives, many of whom reside here, the sympathy of the community is extended.

Among other things this office is badly in need of a new dress for the paper. The body type of the paper is nearly worn out and can't last much longer, and to get a new dress of type will cost lots of money. But we cannot afford to get new type with such a measly home advertising patronage as we have at present, neither can we afford to go in debt to buy such new equipments as we are in need of. We will not go in debt, fellow citizens, to keep up this paper. It must be kept up by increased patronage, if it is to continue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Livengood will please accept the editor's thanks for driving away the largest case of the "blues" we ever had. For some time we have been subject to seizures of the "blues," and every attack has proven to be more severe than the one preceding it. It is indeed a strange disease, if it can be called a disease, and we believe it can. The "blues" give a man an aching heart and a weary, tired brain, but there are certain cures for the disease. The surest cure in our case is a good, social chat with friends who are in a happy mood and carry sunshine in their faces; and oh, how good a fellow feels when a little sunshine penetrates the darkness—the darkness thrice blacker than night that always comes with the blues! Mr. and Mrs. Livengood called at our sanctum this afternoon for a social chat, and somehow their kind words of encouragement and their genial contentment made us feel good, and we feel pretty good ever since. "Give us liberty or give us death," but do not give us the "blues"—the heart-piercing, brain-grinding "blues."

Mr. Samuel L. Livengood and Miss Millie Green were united in the bonds of wedlock, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of M. J. Livengood. The wedding was a quiet one, no one but the very nearest relatives of the bride and groom being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Kribbs. The groom is the junior member of the firm of Jer. J. Livengood & Son, the well known Salisbury carriage builders. He is well and favorably known here as a good mechanic, an honorable young man and a musician of fine ability. The bride is the editor's sister-in-law, a daughter of Mrs. J. F.

Green, of Carleton, Nebraska, had until recently held a position in THE STAR office. She worked on THE STAR as a compositor, ever since the paper was established, and during her two year's residence here made many friends among the people of Salisbury. She is an excellent typist and was in our employ here and in Nebraska, in all about four years. She is a young lady of rare good sense and intelligence, and we are both to part with her as an employe. However, the best of friends must part, and we feel that what is our loss is some other person's gain. THE STAR warmly congratulates the couple and hopes their journey through life will be much smoother than that of country editors.

The Standard Oil Co. is putting down another pipe line, and at present work is progressing on it near Lep Augustine's. Our laboring men can get no work of them, this time, because they have all the men they want. They pay their men $1.50 and $2.00 per day.

S. Slanbaugh and W. C. Wiseman butchered a 3-year-old beef that dressed 784 pounds. The hide weighed 133 1/2 pounds. Who can beat that for a 3-year-old? Nov. 20th, 1893. JACK RIPPER.

It Should Be in Every Home. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottles at A. F. Speicher's drug store. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

The Rockwood Cornet Band is making elaborate preparations to give an entertainment. They will doubtless be in readiness, next week. The troupe is made up wholly of home talent. Laughable songs, plays, dialogues and declamations will be rendered. A spy program requiring two evenings for rendition, is being arranged, and from a reliable source we learn that there will be no repetition of the first night's program on the second, but an entire change of program will invariably take place. Policeman F. O. Dupont has been engaged to participate in the performances. Fred will be one of the leading characters. A hundred laughs in a hundred minutes will be in store for those that attend. A "rip-roaring and bottom-busting" farce, called a dog fight, will be presented, and is one of Mr. Dupont's German specialties. The training of the company is under the direction of H. F. Humphries and W. E. Baker. The date of the entertainment will be made known later, through the columns of THE STAR. A liberal patronage should be forth-coming.
