Congressman Hicks has introduced a bill to pension Captain Heffley, of Berlin, at $30 a month.

Miss Bertha Davis, of Ursina, has been the guest of Dr. Speicher and family for the past few days.

The German Baptist or Dunkard church will erect a house of worship a Oakland, Md., in the near future.

Our subscription list continues to grow exceedingly large. All the progressive people are falling in line. Geo. T. Brew, of Grantsville, Md., has decided to locate at Oakland, where he will continue in the lumber business.

The R. & O. Railroad Company is about to lease 5,000 more cars. That ought to lessen the car famine to a considerable extent.

Last year more coal was shipped out of the Georges Creek region than in any other year of its history. The same can be said of the Elk Lick region.

Sheriff Har:zell made an official visit to Salisbury, on Tuesday. As a matter of course he dropped $1.25 in the slot for a year's subscription to THE STAR.

A subscriber wrote to the editor of his local paper and enquired: "What ails my hens? Every morning I find one or more of them keeled over, to rise no more." The reply was: 'The fowls are dead. It is an old complaint, and nothing can be done except/to bury them.

The members of the last Pennsylvania Legislature enacted a law which is not generally known. The act of July 9th, 1897, gives to school boards every where in the state the right to purchase and pay for, out of the school funds, an American flag staff- and all the neces sary appliances.

The Penmar Coal Co. will erect no less than 40 double houses at their coal works, about three miles south of town. Work is about to begin on these new buildings, and we also have authority to state that it will be but a very short time until men will be put to work grading the railroad extension.

Machinist Bopheimer informs us that they have been experimenting at the Extract Works, trying to pump their liquor by means of compressed air, and that the new process works admirably. He says the old centrifugal pumps are to be taken out and all the pumping done hereafter by the new process.

The publication of THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR at Salisbury, Pa., was re sumed last week with Mr. P. L. Livengood as editor. The people of that town should show their appreciation of the editor's efforts with a liberal patronage. Salisbury is one of the prettiest little towns in Pennsylvania. - Lonaconing Review.

Stealing is a bad and dangerous occupation.

Some idea of the attention that the B. & O. is now paying to its passenger traffic may be gained from the fact that during the last eighteen months nearly eight hundred passenger cars received thorough and ordinary repairs, 696 being repainted. Nearly all of the equipment is now Royal Blue and most of it is equipped with Pintsch gas, the Pintsch light being used on local as well as through trains. The Pittsburg division needs better rolling stock, and the best trains will shortly be better equipped .- Connellsville Courier.

J. W.
