a Democrat.

A Political Crime Attempted in the Twenty-seventh Congressional District-Republicans of the Quay Following Trying to Get the Famous Free Silverite to Run Against the Republican Congressman-A Deep Laid Plot of the Bosses.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Harrisburg, Sept. 13.—The necessity for throttling the power of Quayism which has its heel on the neck of the Republican party is made more clear every day to the people of Pennsylva-nia. In the past this gang of political bosses has spared neither age nor con-dition. That this will be its policy in the future is shown by the develop-ments in the Twenty-seventh congres-sional district. This district is com-posed of the counties of Warren, Ven-ango, Forest and McKean. Hon. Charles W. Stone, one of the best and purest men in the congress of the Uni-ted States, has represented this district for years.

The batter of the second secon for years. Stone came within a score or so of votes of defeating the slated candidate. William A. Stone

William A. Stone. IT MADE QUAY MAD. IT MADE QUAY MAD. This action of Charles W. Stone, of Warren, angered the bosses, because it caused them no end of trouble. He put up such a magnificent, straightout and honest fight that Quay became frightened. His followers becaue fran-tic, They made the long distance tel-ephone and the telegraph wires hot with their messages to Senator Quay, who stayed in Washington to hear the right before the convention, gave of ders direct to his subservient, follow-ers that they must stand up for his stated candidate, William A. Stone. The future was nominated only by a scratch, as everyone knows. Muy has never forgotten this. The Hon, "Lexow" Andrews has never for-growd follow their chief. And now young and Andrews and the rest of the mare after Charles W. Stone with knives and axes. THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE. "The most brazenly sensational movement made by the machine in a dozen years is being attempted here in the Twenty-seventh congressional dis-trict. It is nothing less than an ef-fort to drive Hon. Charles W. Stone, ex-lieutenant governor, late candidate for governor and one of the ablest Re-publican representatives in congress, out of politics, by the election of a Democrat. Democrat. And the Democrat is Hon. Joseph "And the Democrat is Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, the blatent free filver cham-pion and flamboyant modthplece of a discredited political minority. "There can be no denial of this fact. Mr. Sibley, who is now at his beautiful summer home in the lake country of New York, is scriously considering the invitation to canvass the Twenty-sev-enth district against Congressman Stepe. enth Stope. BIDDEN BY QUAY MEN.

"The invitation to become a candidate was extended to him by a mixed com-mittee of free sliver Democrats and Quay Republicans, who waited on him

Kane. "The almost incredible lengths to which the machine will go to work the will of the master promises again to be illustrated here, as it was in the case of Colonel Stehle, of York county, and Hon. George F. Huff, of Westmoreland. "The Nineteenth district, York, Ad-ams and Cumberland counties, was de-liberately thrown away and given to the Democrats because Senator Quay wanted Stehle, the old soldier, defeated because he refused to vote for Quay for president. "Because in a manly, straightforward for president. "Because in a manly, straightforward way Charles W. Stone made his fight for the gubernatorial nomination and drove Senator Quay to the necessity of hurrying to Harrisburg to give orders on the eve of the convention, the statesman from the Twenty-seventh district must be sacrificed as Stehle was sacrificed, and the district hanced over to the custody of a Free Silver. over to the custody of a Free Silver, Populistic candidate of national reputation.

tation. MACHINE CANNOT DENY IT. "It will be useless for the mac' ne to deny complicity in this nefarious piece of party treason. None but ra-chine men are prominent in pushing Sibley to the front. The men who are shouting anathemas at Lucius Rodgers are men who have taken exceptions to his strictures on Senator Quay's late course.

his strictures on Senator Quay's late course. "If Mr. Sibley decides not to become a candidate, it will not be because he has not been promised Republican s.p-port, but .ecause at this time he 'oes not care to spend the $75,000 or $100,-000 it would cost to take the oil district out of Charles W. Stone's hands." "The Business Men's League com-menced this week their campaign against Quay and Quayism; against boases and boasism. Their campaign committee has been doubled in size. It has engaged 20 speakers to traverse the state and lift the iid off the seeth-ing cauldron of political corruption. Mr. Wanamaker will himself traverse the state from end to end. He will speak at every country fair that he can reach. This year will see a po-litical campaign memorable in the an-nals of this state. And something will drop.
