OUR FALL STYLES IN MEN'S SUITS,

which are ready for your inspection.

We have placed our clothing on a higher plane than heretofore.

The fabrics are strictly all wool and decidedly the most novel that will be offered this season.

There are many new improvements in the details of our garments.

The comfortable and graceful hang to our suits for fall will give the wearer that distinguished appearance foreign to ordinary ready-to-wear clothing.

The fact that you will not pay one penny more for the right kind should interest good dressers with an eye to economy.

Our range of prices—$5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.00, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00.

Thomas Lewis, a young man 27 years of age, was killed in the old Borden mine, near Frostburg, on Oct. 1st, by a fall of roof.

Mr. Curtis K. Grove, of Somerset, was in Salisbury last week. We are informed that he was here to install officers in the I. O. O. F.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Knepper, of Somerset, are enjoying a visit from their son, Lieutenant Chester M. Knepper, of the United States Navy.

The editor is sorely afflicted with asthma, this week, and scarcely able to be about. The paper will suffer accordingly, but we can't help it.

Much important news will be found on our inside pages, this week. There you will find all about the Indian uprising and many other current topics of equal importance.

One hundred and sixty cars of coal are being shipped daily from the new mining region at Windber, in the north of this county, and 1,600 men are employed in the new region.

Mr. Geo. K. Walker and family have moved from Berlin to Johnstown, where we are informed Mr. Walker has gone into the hotel or boarding house business. THE STAR wishes him much success.

Mr. M. H. Hoover has returned from Compassville, Pa., where he had been employed as telegraph operator for the Standard Oil Co. He has been transferred to the line running through this vicinity.

Mr. John Newman, who resides a few miles south of Salisbury, was married to a Miss Garlitz, of Pea Ridge, Garrett county, Md., last Sunday. The ceremony was performed in Frostburg. THE STAR extends its congratulations.

Captain Henry F. Picking, of the U. S. Navy, was called to Somerset, last week, by the death of his sister, Miss Ida Picking. Somerset countians will be glad to know that Captain Picking is due for promotion to the rank of Commodore.

Died, Tuesday morning, Oct. 11th, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Hoover, of this place. Deceased was between four and five months old. The funeral service took place at 10 a. m., yesterday, conducted by Rev. D. H. Leader, of the Reformed church.

Dr. J. C. Mackey left on Monday for a run of two weeks through the state of Ohio. He will return about the 28th. There will be no preaching in the Brethren church of this town until the 30th, when the usual service will be resumed, and the pastor will preach.

Berlin came near being swept by fire on Sunday, Oct. 2nd. Fire was discovered in the cellar of the Poorbaugh building in which the post-office is located, and was discovered none too soon, as it had already made considerable headway. A disastrous conflagration was narrowly averted. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A soldier by the name of Ebaugh, a member of the 15th Minnesota regiment, is spending part of a furlough in this vicinity. We are informed that he is a son of Reinholt Ebaugh, late of Summit township. We are informed that this soldier is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Short, of West Salisbury, and that he is a cousin of Mrs. Short.

James Turner, who was sent to the penitentiary from this county for stabbing John Bittner, at Hooversville, on Dec. 24th, 1891, was recently pardoned through influence brought to bear by his people, who are wealthy and reside in England. Turner had served about half of his term before his friends in England knew of his whereabouts.

Mr. John O. Stoner, the well-known coal operator of Berlin, who recently opened a new mine there, has just completed a new tippie at a cost of about $1,200. The railroad company has laid a new siding to the new mine, which is now ready for operation. The coal business has for many years been one of Berlin's mainstays, and it would seem that the end of her "black diamonds" is not yet.—Somerset Standard.

Concerning tree performances out of season, John S. Hefley informs us that during one of the falls of several years ago a plum tree on his lot in the borough of Berlin blossomed and matured a second crop of fruit nearly to full size before the cold wave set in. That tree, however, never blossomed again, and in three or four years after its phenomenal undertaking, died. Mr. Hefley has a plum tree that at the present time is in bloom.—Berlin Record.

Mrs. Gonser, the widow of Mr. Isaac Gonser, who used to run a hardware store in this town some years ago, has been very unfortunate lately. Mrs. Gonser is postmistress at Bills-Geiger station. In connection with the post-office she has been conducting a small store, and we are sorry to note that the poor woman has twice been robbed, lately, and that nearly all of her stock of merchandise has been carried away. It is to be hoped that the thieves will be captured and punished as they deserve. Robbing a poor widow is one of the lowest of crimes.

This is the way an exchange soliloquized on the opening of schools: "Ended is the long vacation, joyous time of recreation. Now without much jubilation children turn to education, while their teachers through the nation waste no time in gratulation. Some regard with consternation their return to regulation; others feel exasperation thus recalled from dissipation. There is frequent lamentation. School to many means vexation, tribulation, desolation, and acquiring information isn't fun, like osculation. So without much exultation they resume their occupation. In a word the situation rather dampens exhilaration."

Capt. R. R. Sanner, of Oakland, was formerly a playmate and afterwards a comrade in arms of Norman B. Ream, the multi-millionaire of Chicago, who has recently figured in a deal by which a controlling interest in the Baltimore & Ohio was secured by Chicago capitalists. Mr. Ream was raised near Ursina, Pa., and is well known in that section. After the close of the war Ream wandered west, failed at one time for a large sum, pulled himself together again, and for years has been one of Chicago's millionaires. He and Robert Lincoln are the executors or trustees of the great Pullman estate.—Oakland Journal.

A short time ago Miss Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kooser, sent two original designs, which she had modeled, to the famous establishment of Tiffany & Co., of New York, and last week, greatly to her surprise, received a letter from the head of the firm advising her that both of her models had been accepted and that the workmanship was unsurpassed. The letter also solicited Miss Kooser to accept employment as a special designer and modeler with the firm at terms to be named by herself. The offer is a compliment that many of the best known artists in the country would be flattered to entertain, and at the same time is one which thousands of artists have sought to secure. It is altogether probable that Miss Kooser will accept the offer and that she will go to New York this fall.—Somerset Herald.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used to-day for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

THE BAKER ESTATE.

Good Cheer For all the Rightful Heirs.

SOMERSET, Pa., Oct. 10, 1898.

EDITOR STAR:—I will say through THE STAR, to the Baker heirs, that we have again heard from headquarters, very recently, and the work is progressing as fast as possible. Our Eastern man, who holds the original paper, has again been heard from and will be on hand in due time. He has the "lay of the ground" and will render us valuable assistance. Before the close of this year the attorneys will be engaged in the work for a final adjustment, and if the heirs will stand by the work of the attorney with such evidence as shall be necessary to prosecute the work, backed up by the necessary means, we shall win. Let all interested be of good cheer.

ALEX. CASEBEER.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin diseases and especially piles there is one reliable remedy, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's don't accept counterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

Railroad Wreck at West Salisbury.

A rather disastrous railroad wreck occurred at West Salisbury, a few days ago, caused by a train running into an open switch. A lot of empty cars were hurled against a car loaded with coal, which stood on the switch at the Extract works. The accident resulted in the smashing of a number of cars and completely wrecking the trestle at that place. The guy wires holding the large smokestacks of the Extract works in place were also rent asunder, which came very near letting the big stacks down.

The railroad men, we are informed, claim that the switch was opened by some malicious person who deliberately planned the wreck. If this is the case, no efforts should be spared to find out who did the dastardly deed.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any Salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

Methodist Conference Appointments.

The Pittsburg annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed its sessions at Braddock, on Monday afternoon, last week. The appointments for the ensuing year, which were read by Bishop Goodsell, gave general satisfaction. The list of appointments for this county, which is in the McKeesport district, is as follows: Addison, to be supplied; Confluence and Ohio Pyle, O. J. Watson; Meyersdale, W. R. Moore; Somerset and Berlin, H. N. Cameron; Stoyestown, to be supplied; Ursina, J. S. Potts. Johnstown was chosen as the place for holding the next meeting.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

Republican Meeting in Salisbury.

There will be a Republican meeting in Salisbury, Friday, Oct. 28th, at 7 p. m. Able speakers will be present and all the issues of the present campaign will be discussed. Full particulars will be given in our next issue.

A stubborn cough or tickling in the throat yields to One Minute Cough Cure. Harmless in effect, touches the right spot, reliable and just what is wanted. It acts at once. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

ON A BURNING TRANSPORT.

Somerseters Meet with Awful Experience Coming from Porto Rico.

Somerset Standard.
A few weeks ago a party of young men—E. M. Love, Geo. S. Harrison, R. E. Beerits and C. F. Uhl—left Somerset to pass a week or two on the island of Porto Rico. Mr. Love returned home last evening, having come to New York on the steamer Philadelphia, the day before. The other members of the party left Ponce on the U. S. transport Oldham, whose course was around the southern coast of Cuba. The following dispatch shows what happened to the Oldham:

Santiago, Oct. 4.—The United States transport Oldham, which left here on Saturday, has returned with her bunkers on fire. The presence of fire was discovered yesterday at 10 o'clock in the morning, near the main hold, which was at once flooded with 50 tons of water and a gang of men was put at work removing the ammunition, of which the ship carried a large supply. All the officers and soldiers who were well enough to do so worked hard to extinguish the fire and it is hoped she will be able to leave here again in three days time. Surgeon Major Seaman reports all well on board.

Yesterday afternoon Capt. C. J. Harrison received a cablegram from his son saying the Somerset party was at Santiago and well.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

Court Proceedings—Civil List—Second Week.

The following cases were settled: Cyrus Berkebile vs. Daniel S. Ober; S. P. Sweitzer vs. Jane Winters; Jane Winters vs. S. P. Sweitzer; Barbara Lichty vs. Emanuel M. Berkeley; W. H. Mullen vs. Jacob Marker.

CASES CONTINUED.

Mary R. Specht vs. W. H. Ruppel; Julian Bowman vs. M. H. Hartzell, sheriff; P. B. Crider vs. Jasper Augustine; Harry Cessna vs. Safety Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Elmira Bonnell vs. J. C. Crownover; M. Buckman vs. J. McSpadden; Samuel M. Saylor vs. Frank Ehlen et al.; The Wilmore Coal Co. vs. Melker Shafer; J. H. Countryman vs. J. W. Guthrie; Jos. Patton vs. John R. Fair; Jas. B. Fidler vs. Catharine Bisbing; Emma C. Fair vs. Edward Hoover.

CASES TRIED BY JURY.

Frank Wagner vs. Isabella Boyer, et al. Verdict for plaintiff for costs.
H. H. Stahl vs. J. M. Wright. Verdict for plaintiff for $26.00.
Lou A. Smith vs. The County of Somerset. Verdict for plaintiff for the sum of $474.99.

Postmasters at Money-order Offices May Cash Pension Checks.

It has been decided by the Postoffice Department to permit postmasters at money-order offices to cash pension checks and remit such checks to their respective depositories in lieu of the corresponding amount of cash. The pensioner presenting the check must be known personally to the postmaster. It is not expected that these checks will be presented to the postmasters at the larger places where there are banks, this arrangement being intended merely to add to the convenience of the old soldiers and enable them to avoid the expense which now frequently attaches to the negotiation of their checks.

When you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure, don't accept anything else. Don't be talked into accepting a substitute for piles, for sores, for burns.—P. S. Hay, Elk Lick.

Said to Cure Fits.

The following letter, received by Sheriff Hartzell, yesterday, shows that superstition is yet a pretty lively corpse:

"Mr. Hartsell have you got the ropes that the body boys were hung with and if you have would you give me the knot of the rope I would like to have it give some purpose my daughter gets the fits and the people say that it will cure her if I can get one of the knots please and let me know at once and oblige me."—Somerset Standard.

The above is not as much of a joke as it appears. The rope the Roddys were hanged with will cure any case of fits, if applied in the same way that it was applied to the Roddys.

Mine Accidents.

Frostburg Forum.
John Smith, of Ormond street, had one of his feet hurt in the mines on Tuesday, by falling slate.

Mr. Andrew Lapp, of East Main street, had one of his feet severely injured in the mines, Tuesday. He had a narrow escape from death.

Mr. John MacFarlane had one of his hands badly smashed in the mines, last Tuesday.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, The famous little pills.

The Feet.

Never wear a shoe that pinches the feet.

Never wear a shoe or boot tight anywhere.

Never wear a shoe that presses up into the hollow of the foot.

Never wear a shoe that will not allow the great toe to lie in a straight line.

Never wear a shoe or boot so large in the heel that the foot is not kept in place.

Never wear leather sole linings to stand upon. White cotton drilling or linen is much better and more healthful.

Never wear a shoe with a sole narrower than the outlines of the foot traced with a pencil close under the rounding edge.

Never wear a shoe or boot that has depressions in any part of the sole to drop any joint or bearing below the level plane.

Never wear a shoe with a sole turning up very much at the toes, as this causes the cords on the upper part of the foot to contract.

Never wear one pair of shoes all the time unless obliged to do so. Two pairs of boots worn a day at a time alternately give more service and are much more healthful.

Never think that the feet will grow large from wearing proper shoes. Pinching and distorting makes them grow not only large but unsightly. A proper, natural use of the muscles makes them compact and attractive.

Never wear a short stocking or one which after being washed is not at least one half inch longer than the foot. Bear in mind that stockings shrink. Be sure that they will allow your toes to spread out at the extreme ends, as this keeps the joints in place and makes a strong and attractive foot.—Ex.

Snake and Hawk Fight.

Philip Fazenbaker, a miner at Windom mine, near Bloomington, was coming home from work when he ran across one of the largest sized chicken hawks and a six-foot blacksnake engaged in a fight to the death. The hawk was on its back, and had the snake grasped in the talons of one foot. The snake in its turn had coiled about the body of the hawk and had life about squeezed out of it. Mr. Fazenbaker killed the snake and captured the hawk. It is evident that the hawk had tried to capture the snake, but could not get away with it. Mr. Fazenbaker gave the hawk to Mr. Bruner Bantz, of Luke, Md., who now has it in his possession alive.
