Reunion of the Flesher Family.

There was an interesting and pleasant family reunion at the home of Mr. Luther Flesher, at Alverton, Westmoreland county, Pa., on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 24th, at which time and place the children of Mr. Adam Flesher, with three families, spent the day with their aged father.

The following members of the family were present: Mr. Adam Flesher (father); Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Flesher and their daughter, Metta, of Coal Run, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Flesher and their daughter, Margaret, of Greensburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Flesher and their children, of Alverton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Simpson, of Tarrs, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. David Danner and family, of Scottdale, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Smith and daughters, Dora and Rosa, of Pleasant Unity, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tarr and their son, Albert, of Tarrs, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davidson and their son and daughter, Curtis and Pearl, of Vanderbilt, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loux, of New Stanton, Pa.

We are sorry to say that Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flesher and family could not be present, their absence being the only thing to mar the festivities of the day.

A photographer from Scottsdale was present and took a photograph of the family.

Mr. Adam Flesher was born and reared in Lewis county, near Weston, W. Va., where he married and raised a family, then moved to Tarrs, Pa., in 1882, where he has lived nearly ever since. He is the father of ten children, all living, except one son who was killed in the war of the Rebellion, and one daughter who died in childhood. Of the eight children living, all except two are married and have families.

The mother of the family died in 1873, ever since which time her aged husband has been a widower. The aged father is now 80 years old and is in fair health for a man of his years. He has had forty-six grandchildren and five great grandchildren, there being three of his grandchildren and one of his great grandchildren dead.

Little Harry's Fire-King Act.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Little Harry Berman, of Chicago, was showing his playmates how to be a great magician with the aid of a mouthful of gasoline and a parlor match. That is about as far as Harry has been able to tell the story. Harry is 12 years old. Once he went to a circus, where a man greatly astonished him by eating fire. After that a big boy at school told him that the man didn't really eat fire; that he just filled his mouth with gasoline and set it on fire.

He wanted several more boys to see him do his act. He does not remember, however, what really did happen after he squirted the gasoline at the match blaze. The other boys do not recall very much about it, either. They thought little Harry had exploded.

"Oh, it was an awful sight," said one of the little boys. "He was just doing the great act lovely when he blew up."

He will recover in a few days, and has promised never to become a great magician again.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve

He Was Inquisitive.

A funny incident occurred, the other day, in a store not a hundred miles away from town, which is worth telling. A country miss, with blooming cheeks, entered the store carrying a pair of fowls which she placed on the counter after having succeeded in selling them to the merchant. The latter looked at them carefully, and asked, "Are you sure they will lay there?" The country dame blushingly replied, "O no sir! They are both roosters." The merchant collapsed.—Ex.

Riverside.

Nov. 28.—The thermometer has been lingering below the freezing point for the past few days.

Thanksgiving passed off quietly.

Porkers are being slain daily and Amos Thomas has many calls to manipulate the knife and steel. The largest porker of the vicinity was owned by Cyrus Rodamer. The animal, it is said, netted 530 pounds.

King Bros. & Stevanus were cutting corn-fodder for our farmers during the past week.

Our school has closed for a week. The teacher, E. J. Egan, has gone to the county capital to attend the teachers' institute. We hope that by the time our tutor returns he may be able to do still more efficient work.

Frank Tedrow has vacated the tenement house owned by Sarah Butler and has moved his family to West Salisbury.

Elmer Folk, a member of Co. I, Fifth regiment, is working on Mr. Wilmoth's sawmill.

William Engle, teacher of the Pleasant Hill school, was a visitor at the Thomas school, on the 24th.

Dr. H. W. Esculapius Delozier has added a fifth equine to his stock of well-fed and well-groomed war steeds. "Doc" is an expert driver, that is, if it requires an expert to drive in the side ditch.

C. J. Burkholder, the premature Scull resurrectionist, has resigned his work, prospecting for minerals. The probabilities are that he will enlist as a traveling volunteer in behalf of the Scull ring. Now, he may be well adapted for this work among his peers in politi-
