door in the nick of time, and dashed away again to leave Dorothy at the young ladies' seminary where she hal been teaching for a few months. I found Tom in the vestry, so su-premely happy that he had not even noticed my tardiness—but, for that matter, I walked in the clouds all evening, and noticed n-thing what-even that happened at his wodding, so we are quits on that score. Dorothy and I will be married in September, and Uncle William, who insists that his "good management" brought it all about, has promised to set us up with a carriage of our own set us up with a carriage of on the day of the wedding. --
