T. R. Sufall, who had resigned his position with The Star, has again hired his place for another year. Tom's many friends in Salisbury will be glad to see him stay here.

Mr. Mort Wagner has purchased the stock of groceries formerly owned by his brother, the late Morris H. Wagner. He will conduct a grocery in the same store room his brother occupied.

H. Clark, Chantree, Ga., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers cured him of piles that had afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a speedy cure for skin eruptions of the most dangerous character. Sold by Medicine Dealers.

J. W. Coleman had a hemorrhage of the nose, last Monday, which necessitated the calling in of Dr. Hickok to stop the flow of blood. We are glad to report that Dr. Hickok is again able to stop it out—Curtis (Neb.) Leader.

Francis Shank, who several years ago purchased the old Findlay farm, where he has been engaged in the lime business ever since, recently sold the place to Isaiah Baer. Mr. Shank has not yet decided where he will locate next.

Mr. W. B. Stearns will be married to Miss Lou Koozt, next Sunday, after which he will settle down and become a citizen of Salisbury. "Bert" is a most excellent young man, and THE STAR bids him a royal welcome to Salisbury's citizenship.

This week the editor is again at the helm of THE STAR, after a sojourn of sickness lasting over two weeks. He is not yet a well man, as he is still very weak, but he is gradually convalescing. The sick spell reduced him in weight from 185 to 164 pounds.

"I think DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills in the world," says E. E. Lake, of Happy Creek, Va. They have all obstructions of the liver and bowels, act quickly and never gripe. Sold by Medicine Dealers.

We are informed that Mr. S. D. Livengood has placed our John Bonheimer in charge of the Meyersdale electric light plant. If this is correct, we congratulate Mr. Livengood on having secured a most excellent man. Bonheimer is all right in every way.

Messrs. E. J. Egan and Abraham and Daniel Livengood went to Huntingdon, Pa., on Monday, where they will attend Juniata College. All three of them are most excellent young men, and they are bound to obtain a good education which is very commendable in them.

John Segge, one of the fellows who recently helped to assault Constable William H. Hildreth, which was made in last week's STAR, voluntarily surrendered himself a few days ago and paid for his foolishness. He left town somewhat poorer than he was before, but it is to be hoped that he has at least a moral lesson.

The Salisbury Cornet Band has decided to purchase a very fine new instrument from Mr. Charles Cochran, who blows the B flat bass. Charles is making such excellent headway with his part that the other members of the band have decided that he needs a new horn, and are anxious to get him a very good one, because he deserves it.

J. I. Carson, of Honesdale, Washington, Pa., says, "I have found Kodol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in cases of indigestion, flatulence, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to give relief. Sold by Medicine Dealers.

Among the illustrations in that excellent work, the Honesdale Book, written by Judge Biggle, is General George Washington's stable at Mt. Vernon. The chapter on stables contains many helpful hints, and has the plans and elevation of an attractive village stable. The price is 50 cents, by mail, address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Hon. S. A. Kendall was in town on Monday, pressing his claims for a reelection. The people of Somerset county should return Koozt and Kendall to the Legislature, as they are very good men, and they have been very true to their constituency. One good term deserves another. Vote for Koozt and Kendall.

Be sure to attend the political meeting in Hay's opera house, next Wednesday evening, April 18th. General Koozt and others will be present and tell you some things that every honest man should know. All good Republicans should especially be present. Come and hear the issues of the present campaign fairly, honorably and manfully discussed.

Our dreary old apology of a school building caught fire on Tuesday morning, which it is in the habit of doing about once or twice a year. The flames were soon discovered, however, and extinguished. A hole or two in the roof is the extent of the damage. After the pupils and teachers were all out of the building, many people hoped that the old shed would burn down, and really no one can blame them.

No family can afford to be without DeWitt's Little Early Risers. It will stop coughs and cure a cold quicker than any other medicine. writes C. W. Williams, Sterling Ken, Pa. It cures cramp, cholera and all throat and lung troubles and prevents consumption. Pleasant and harmless. Sold by Medicine Dealers.

Quite a pleasant affair came off, Monday evening, April 9th, at the Lutheran parsonage, in this place. It was the pastor's birthday, and a number of his friends came together to congratulate him and wish for his many returns of the day. Their congratulations and good wishes were emphasized by a sum of money, presented in a neat and complimentary speech. Mr. Johnston was taken by surprise, and was highly gratified.

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. Its early use prevents consumption. Children always like it, and mothers endorse it sold by Medicine Dealers.

Fire and Death. During the noon hour on Tuesday a frame dwelling occupied by Mr. James D. Swartzwelder and family, of West Salisbury, was consumed by fire, and the residence of H. J. Christner, which stood near by, had a close call. The fire seemed to have originated in the kitchen while the family were eating dinner in a room in the front part of the house.

This Man is Not Guilty. Error STAR:—As the authenticity of a string of rhymes which was published in several county papers and signed "An Eye Witness," has been laid at my door, (at Shady Side) I hereby wish to inform the general public that I am neither the author of, nor the proprietor of, the remotest idea of who he may be. True it is that I do write poetry when my fancy dictates, but I rhyme because I love to do so, and like Bobbie Burns said, "I rhyme for fun." Always trusting that my poetic productions may give no offense to either saint, sinner or even politician. But now that my name is being frequently used around the old "burg" in connection with a petty bribe, I am now constrained to deviate from my usual style, as all who have read my verses in the past will notice. This is my position: I am not in politics, and never hope to be, and should any one think that I would stoop low enough to use one half the names of my good neighbors, either in politics or out of it, in order that the other half may laugh, they are very badly mistaken. I will not sling mud, only in self-defense, and now I would whisper to those who are using my name in the manner above mentioned the simple request—be still. If you don't, my sharp-tongued barbings hunt your name up and your name will be in my paper.

Grantsville, Md. April 9th.—Please allow me a short space in your valuable paper for a few items from our little village. Farmers are busy making sugar. Noah Broadwater has gone to Pittsburg to purchase his spring goods. Mr. Matthew Jones, loses probably $400 or $500, as the house is said to have been worth about that amount, and unfortunately there was no insurance on it. Mr. Jones has nothing but daily labor to depend upon, and the Swartzwelder family the same. As both families are worthy as well as very unfortunate, the people of this community ought to help them. Some one please order a paper at once. THE STAR and give no warning of the train's approach, thus causing the accident which otherwise would not have occurred, the railroad company was in for damages, and recently settled with Mr. Eckord for $1022.50. We congratulate Mr. Eckord on the settlement, but he did not receive a cent too much.

Our Town Council has voluntarily increased the salary of Burgess J. Livengood from $25 to $50 per annum. This was a step in the right direction, for Burgess Livengood is a most worthy officer, and he has been worth more to the town through than all the other burgeses it ever had combined. He is a thorough toiler and doer, and he applies his power of fine impressions puts of money into the borough treasury. Another commendable feature of the Town Council did was to empower the Burgess to hire as many policemen at any time as he considers necessary to preserve order on our streets and in and about the business houses of the town. The "bug" might be said to be down. If they persist in making themselves disagreeable to decent people, the Burgess and policemen will see to it that they pay dearly for their foolishness.

A Few From the Carleton (Neb.) News. David Kelso has been quite sick this week, being confined to the house most of the time. There was quite a number attended J. E. Lichty's sale, last Saturday, and everything sold brought good prices. J. W. Coleman has been very sick this week. On last Monday his nose began bleeding and continued so badly that Dr. Hickok had to finally stop it up to prevent too great a loss of blood. He is better at present.
